Who's who in Nigeria ,1990 Annual Report Nigeria. Public Complaints Commission,1995 Terrorism, Politics, and Human Rights Advocacy Temitope B. Oriola,2024-03-15 Terrorism Politics and Human Rights Advocacy provides an insider outsider analysis of the BringBackOurGirls BBOG movement Formed through a coalition of elite women and middle class allies to advocate for the rescue of over 200 high school girls from Chibok Nigeria who were kidnapped by Boko Haram in 2014 the movement is a global leader in the lives matter advocacy and a new episode in African women led rights movements Based on data garnered from over 170 research participants Oriola demonstrates how the BBOG transformed the Chibok kidnapping into an international cause and a social problem in a sociological sense inadvertently creating a social problem industry The volume provides in depth analyses of the organizational structure decision making repertoire of protest framing internal dynamics and divisions within the BBOG Far more than a social media phenomenon the BBOG deploys a hybridized communication process which seamlessly combines the time space compression of social media with the relative fidelity and territoriality of traditional media State repression against the BBOG and response of movement actors are also articulated and the outcomes and impact of the BBOG explicated The BBOG experience speaks to the texture of the African state and its military architecture party politics and challenges to human rights advocacy the findings speak to peace and security in Africa the war against terrorism in the Lake Chad Basin perpetuation of social problems and outcomes of social movements in the postcolony Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization gender and political representation the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict comparative political thought and the nature of the continent s engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged as is interdisciplinary research and work that considers ethical issues relating to the study of Africa Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The focus of the series is on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman Professor of Democracy and International Development University of Birmingham Peace Medie Senior Lecturer in Gender and International Politics University of Bristol and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira Professor of the International Politics of Africa University of Oxford Benue State Government ... Christian Higher Education Joel Carpenter,Perry L. Glanzer,Nicholas S. Lantinga,2014-03-07 This book offers a fresh report and interpretation of what is happening at the intersection of two great contemporary movements the rapid growth of higher education worldwide and the rise of world Christianity It features on site evaluative studies by scholars from Africa Asia North America and South America Christian Higher Education A Global Reconnaissance visits some of the hotspots of Christian university development such as South Korea Kenya and Nigeria and compares what is happening there to places in Canada the United States and Europe where Christian higher education has a longer history Very little research until now has examined the scope and direction of Christian higher education throughout the world so this volume fills a real gap A
