1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

1. I am interested in understanding why people who are interested in the environment are more likely to engage in pro-environmental behavior. I am interested in understanding the factors that influence this relationship, such as social norms, personal values, and knowledge. I am also interested in understanding the role of the media in shaping environmental attitudes and behavior.
