Globalisation and National Identity in History Textbooks Joseph Zajda, 2017-07-06 Globalisation and National Identity in History Textbooks The Russian Federation the 16th book in the 24 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research discusses trends in dominant discourses of identity politics and nation building in school history textbooks in the Russian Federation RF The book addresses one of the most profound examples of the re writing of history following a geo political change Various book chapters examine debates pertaining to national identity patriotism and the nation building process The book discusses the way in which a new sense of patriotism and nationalism is documented in prescribed Russian history textbooks and in the Russian media debate on history textbooks It explores the ambivalent and problematic relationship between the state globalisation and the construction of cultural identity in prescribed school history textbooks By focusing on ideology identity politics and nation building the book examines history teachers responses to the content of history textbooks and how teachers depict key moments in modern Russian history This book an essential sourcebook of ideas for researchers practitioners and policymakers in the fields of globalisation and history education provides timely information on history teachers attitudes towards historical knowledge and historical understanding in prescribed Russian history textbooks

School History Textbooks across Cultures Jason Nicholls, 2006-05-15 What do school history textbooks mean in the contemporary world What issues and debates surround their history and production their distribution and use across cultures This volume brings together articles by authors from the United States Italy Japan Germany France Russia and England each piece drawing attention to a series of fascinating yet highly specific national debates In this collection perspectives on the place and purpose of school history textbooks are shown to differ across space and time For the student or scholar of comparative education this compilation raises important methodological questions concerning the grounds and parameters upon which it is possible to make comparisons

Textbook Quality Ivan Ivic, Ana Pesikan, Slobodanka Antic, 2013-12-11 This book is about textbooks textbook quality and quality standards of textbooks From a theoretical point of view in the light of Bahtin s theory of speech genres school textbooks are seen as a specific complex genre defined by the addressee At the same time this approach requires us to see textbooks as a cultural product From an educational point of view textbooks are according to Vygotsky s theory of cultural development a key socio cultural aid to cognitive development in school years Forty three quality standards are operationally defined and explained They can be used for compiling textbooks for textbook accreditations for textbook evaluation and for selection by teachers

Historical Foundations of Education Theodore Michael Christou, 2023-03-23 This volume considers history as a foundational discipline in education It shows how history is a means for exploring what it means to be human by considering those stories sources forces and contexts that shape the way we construct narratives History is more than content no matter what we might recall from our experiences in schools The volume shows how studying history is one means of uncovering why institutions beliefs policies and practices are as they are Educational structures are like all things mutable History empowers the individual to be an actor in this process of change and to act judiciously About the Educational Foundations series Education as an academic field taught at universities around the world emerged from a range of older foundational disciplines The Educational Foundations series comprises six volumes each covering one of the foundational disciplines of philosophy history sociology policy studies economics and law This is the first reference work to provide an authoritative and up to date account of all six disciplines showing how each field's ideas methods theories and approaches can contribute to research and practice in education today The six volumes cover the same set of key topics within education which also form the chapter titles Mapping the Field Purposes of Education Curriculum Schools and Education Systems Learning and Human Development Teaching and Teacher Education Assessment and Evaluation This structure allows readers to study the volumes in isolation by discipline or laterally by topic and facilitates a comparative thematic reading of chapters across the volumes Throughout the series attention is paid to how the disciplines comprising the educational foundations speak to social justice concerns such as gender and racial equality

A Study of Intermediate Grade History Textbooks Commonly Used in the State of Indiana Lenna Elizabeth Smock, 1929 Textbooks in American Society Philip G. Altbach, J. Donald Monan, S. J. Professor of Higher Education and Director Philip G. Altbach, Gail P. Kelly, Hugh G. Petrie, Lois Weis, 1991-01-01 In recent years textbooks have been widely criticized for low standards lack of imaginativeness and insensitivity to racial and gender issues Increasingly they are cited as another weak link in American public education This book goes beyond the headlines to examine how textbooks are produced how they are selected and what pressures are placed on textbook authors and publishers The book focuses on the relationship of the textbook to the educational system and includes important issues such as the politics of textbook policy the determinants of textbook content the role of textbooks in educational reform and the process of selection at the state level The authors offer current research on textbook policy including perspectives from those directly involved with textbooks from several thoughtful analyses by textbook editors and publishers to the views of California's Superintendent of Public Instruction

Instruction as a curriculum innovation and the concept of the outcomes in education in Australia In Part 4 Case Studies the authors using comparative research methodology evaluate children s images of picturing teaching multicultural education in the curriculum and the politics of curriculum reforms The authors including Laurie Brady Margaret Clark Gustavo Fischman Sydney Grant Talmadge Guy Ian Macpherson Cynthia Nance Jacob Perrenet John Schell William Schubert Margaret Secombe Edmund Short Jerzy Smolicz Jan Terwel and Joseph Zajda present a rich tapestry of curriculum theorising and practice in schools in different parts of the world Resources in Education ,1996 (Re)Constructing Memory: School

Textbooks and the Imagination of the Nation James H. Williams,2014-08-08 This book examines the shifting portrayal of the nation in school textbooks in 14 countries during periods of rapid political social and economic change Drawing on a range of analytic strategies the authors examine history and civics textbooks and the teaching of such texts along with other prominent curricular materials children s readers a required text penned by the head of state a holocaust curriculum etc The authors analyze the uses of history and pedagogy in building reinforcing and or redefining the nation and state especially in the light of challenges to its legitimacy The primary focus is on countries in developing or transitional contexts Issues include the teaching of democratic civics in a multiethnic state with little history of democratic governance shifts in teaching about the Khmer Rouge in post conflict Cambodia children s readers used to define national space in former republics of the Soviet Union the development of Holocaust education in a context where citizens were both victims and perpetrators of violence the creation of a national past in Turkmenistan and so forth The case studies are supplemented by commentary an introduction and conclusion Know Thy Enemy Meir Litvak,2021-03-22 In Know Thy Enemy Meir Litvak analyzes the re articulations of the Others in modern Shi ism as a novel way to examine the formulation of modern Shi i identity and place in the world Among these others which have transformed into enemies in the modern period are the West apostates Wahhabism Jews Baha is and feminism Looking at the rhetorical themes that Shi i writers use the book demonstrates the contrast between the collective positive We and the negative threatening Other as a major principle in the evolution of Shi ism as the minority branch of Islam It offers a complex view of Shi i identity combining a sense of victimhood and insecurity together with conviction of intellectual and moral superiority and long term triumph Postwar History Education in Japan and the

Germanys Julian Beatus Dierkes,2010 How did East and West Germany and Japan reconstitute national identity after World War II Did all three experience parallel reactions to national trauma and reconstruction History education shaped how these nations reconceived their national identities Because the content of history education was controlled by different actors history education materials framed national identity in very different ways In Japan where the curriculum was controlled by bureaucrats bent on maintaining their purported neutrality materials focused on the empirical building blocks of history wh

History Can Bite Denise Bentrovato,Karina V. Korostelina,Martina Schulze,2016-10-10 The volume provides critical insights into approaches adopted by curricula textbooks and teachers around the world when teaching about the past in the wake of civil war and mass violence discerning some of the key challenges and opportunities involved in such endeavors The contributors discuss ways in which history teaching has acted as a political tool that has at times been guilty of exacerbating inter group conflicts It also highlights history teaching as an important component of reconciliation attempts showcasing examples of curricular reform and textbook revision after conflict and discussing how the contestations and difficulties surrounding such processes were addressed in different post conflict societies

Teaching in the Social Sciences and the Humanities in the U.S.S.R. United States. Office of Education. Division of International Education,1959 History Education in Lebanon and the Borders of the Nation Bouchra Saab,2025-09-01 This study shows that widely used history textbooks in Lebanon are more standardized and censored than in most liberal democratic countries and relatively similar in form and content to textbooks from Syria and Iraq A diversity of historical narratives has progressively converged into one dominant narrative which entails a standard definition of the self In contrast the other is defined through the exclusion of religious groups considered exogenous and ethnicities considered inferior In addition women are marginalized Surprisingly the textbooks affiliated with Hezbollah a Shiite militia financed by the Iranian regime depart to a certain extent from this definition While most previous research on Lebanese history textbooks has focused on the diverging narratives of religious communities this study views these textbooks as the outcome of a tension between two major forces educational traditions on the one hand and contemporary politics on the other

History Lessons Dana Lindaman,Kyle Ward,2006-07-04 A fascinating look at what students in Russia France Iran and other nations are taught about America The New York Times Book Review This timely and important book History News Network gives us a glimpse into classrooms across the globe where opinions about the United States are first formed History Lessons includes selections from textbooks and teaching materials used in Russia France Iran Saudi Arabia Cuba Canada and others covering such events as the American Revolution the Cuban Missile Crisis the Iran hostage crisis and the Korean War providing some alternative viewpoints on the history of the United States from the time of the Viking explorers to the post Cold War era By juxtaposing starkly contrasting versions of the historical events we take for granted History Lessons affords us a sometimes hilarious often sobering look at what the world thinks about America s past A brilliant idea Foreign Affairs
