(Re)Constructing Memory: School Textbooks and the Imagination of the Nation James H. Williams, 2014-08-08 This book examines the shifting portrayal of the nation in school textbooks in 14 countries during periods of rapid political social and economic change Drawing on a range of analytic strategies the authors examine history and civics textbooks and the teaching of such texts along with other prominent curricular materials children s readers a required text penned by the head of state a holocaust curriculum etc The authors analyze the uses of history and pedagogy in building reinforcing and or redefining the nation and state especially in the light of challenges to its legitimacy The primary focus is on countries in developing or transitional contexts Issues include the teaching of democratic civics in a multiethnic state with little history of democratic governance shifts in teaching about the Khmer Rouge in post conflict Cambodia children s readers used to define national space in former republics of the Soviet Union the development of Holocaust education in a context where citizens were both victims and perpetrators of violence the creation of a national past in Turkmenistan and so forth The case studies are supplemented by commentary an introduction and conclusion Resources in Education ,1996 History and

Social Studies Hilary Bourdillon, 2022-03-02 First published in 1992 This volume includes reports papers and discussion from a September 1990 educational research workshop on textbook analysis in history and social studies Some 20 European countries are represented Operetta on the Prairie Peter Verney, 2023-03-23 Englishman Ed Brown has been left standing at the altar Hoping to leave behind memories of his ex fianc e and get a fresh start he takes a teaching job in Endon a rural Alberta town rather crudely described by a local as a one horse town at the arse end of nowhere Despite the small talent pool Ed is determined to put on a school production of Gilbert and Sullivan s operetta The Mikado but the local pastor is opposed to the production and has the power to prevent the children of his flock from taking part The arrival in town of the nomadic Sewall family including the parents young niece Mary results in more trouble She has a beautiful singing voice and Ed needs her for his production but he s also enticed by her uncanny resemblance to his ex fianc e Can Ed resist temptation or will he go down a very dark path And if anything else could go wrong and jeopardize the production it does

Diversities and Interculturality in Textbooks Kaisa Hahl, Rita Johnson Longfor, Pia-Maria Niemi, 2015-04-01 Textbooks are crucial in shaping today s global and diverse world They can contribute to making it both better and more intercultural but also on occasion create limited and biased ideas about the Other This collected volume undertakes multidisciplinary research into textbooks taking one of the best education systems in the world Finland as an example The authors investigate the issue of diversities in textbooks from multiple perspectives disciplines school levels and content areas Together the chapters provide examples of hidden ideologies neo stereotyping and othering when looking beneath the surface of texts and illustrations The authors also present concrete tools that can be used for analysing diversities and interculturality in textbooks In addition the chapters will serve to develop teachers and students abilities to encounter diversities and similarities in ways that enhance their sensitivity self reflexivity and criticality This volume will be of interest for students in educational sciences pre service teachers and in service teachers of various school subjects teacher educators and researchers in the areas of subject didactics multicultural and intercultural education language education educational leadership curriculum and policy Forewords and Commentary by Jari Lavonen Karen Risager Adrian Holliday and Julie S Byrd Clark Research in Education ,1974 Comparative Perspectives on School Textbooks Dobrochna Hildebrandt-Wypych,Alexander W. Wiseman,2021-04-22 This book examines the discourses on nation building civic identity minorities and the formation of religious identities in school textbooks worldwide It offers up to date practical and scholarly information on qualitative and mixed method textbook analysis as well as the broader context of critical comparative textbook and curriculum analyses in and across selected countries The volume offers unique and empirical research on how internal educational policies and ideological goals of dominant social political and economic groups affect textbook production and the curricular aims in different educational systems worldwide Chapters address the role of school textbooks in developing nationhood the creation of citizenship through school textbooks the complexity of gender in normative discourses and the intersection of religion and culture in school textbooks Citizenship and Citizenship Education in a Changing World Orit Ichilov,2013-12-19 Political economic technological and cultural changes have taken place all over the globe changes which have transformed the meanings of citizenship and citizenship education This volume represents an effort to analyze the implications of these changes Directory of Distance Learning Opportunities Modoc Press, Inc.,2003-02-28 This book provides an overview of current K 12 courses and programs offered in the United States as correspondence study or via such electronic delivery systems as satellite cable or the Internet The Directory includes over 6 000 courses offered by 154 institutions or distance learning consortium members Following an introduction that describes existing practices and delivery methods the Directory offers three indexes Subject Index of Courses Offered by Level Course Level Index Geographic Index All information was supplied by the institutions Entries include current contact information a description of the institution and the courses offered grade level and admission information tuition and fee information enrollment periods delivery information equipment requirements credit and grading information library services and accreditation Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano,2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials

Historical Outlook ,1920 The Psychology of Illustration Harvey A. Houghton,Dale M. Willows,2012-12-06 From the earliest stages of elementary school to the advanced college level vari ous types of illustrations are included in educational materials in order to pro mote learning These illustrative adjuncts are often profuse and in many cases they may be the most striking feature that distinguishes one set of learning materials from another In addition the perceived effectiveness of the illustra tions clearly plays an important role in the marketing of many educational materials Despite this pervasiveness and salience in education there has never been a systematic effort to bring together the results of research on illustrations in order to provide some level of guidance to the developers of commercial learning materials There is however a considerable research literature that is directly relevant to this aspect of education The purpose of the present two volume set is to summarize and interpret the existing research literature that deals with the various educational functions of illustrations In undertaking to produce an omnibus reference work on psychological and instructional issues surrounding illustrated learning material our paramount aim has been to stimulate closer collaboration between researchers producers and users of educational text The problems associated with moving the findings of educational research into the realm of everyday practice have been perennial ones While many researchers and practitioners are interested in fundamentally similar questions they typically speak dissimilar languages read different jour nals and carry out their work under disparate ideologies

Teaching for Dissent Sarah Marie Stitzlein,2015-11-17 Teaching for Dissent looks at the implications of new forms of dissent for educational practice The reappearance of dissent in political meetings and street protests opens new possibilities for improved democratic life and citizen participation This book argues that this possibility will not be fulfilled if schools do not cultivate the skills necessary for our citizens to engage in political dissent The authors look at how practices in schools such as the testing regime and the hidden curriculum suppress students ability to voice ideas that stand in opposition to the status quo Teaching for Dissent calls for a realignment of the curriculum and the practices of schooling with a guiding vision of democratic participation

Not So Normal Tom Symington, 2024-05-07 Growing up in post World War II Alberta in a stable loving home Tom Symington didn t feel that he was different Evading early pressures of romance and sexual exploration repressing instances of name calling femmy and hostility from schoolmates Tom was almost able to believe in a world that valued the rights and freedoms of all citizens From Calgary to Sierra Leone to France this candid heartbreaking memoir braids the evolution of gay rights in Canada with the life journey of one individual Following high school as Tom entered university and became a teacher he was forced to reconcile his sexual orientation with the prevailing social and legal environment in Alberta Canada and the world beyond As decades passed femmy merged with gay queer and LGBTQ community in a rallying movement and an enduring struggle towards pride and self acceptance against the current of societal expectations and discriminatory legislation Not So Normal is as much a coming of age odyssey and a celebration of selfhood as it is a grave reminder that there is still much work to be done in the realm of human rights and an urgent call to action to recentre love in our increasingly diverse and divisive world
