Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2014-10-08 Now in its 4th edition this popular text for secondary social studies methods courses integrates discussions of educational goals and the nature of history and social studies with ideas for organizing social studies curricula units lessons projects and activities A major theme throughout is that what teachers choose to teach and the way they teach reflect their broader understanding of society history and the purpose of social studies education Advocating an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers and based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers Each chapter addresses a broad question about social studies education sub chapters begin with narrower questions that direct attention to specific educational issues Lesson ideas and materials in the book and online are especially designed to help new teachers to address common core learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms Chapters include highlighted Learning Activities Teaching

Activities and Classroom Activities designed to provoke discussion and illustrate different approaches to teaching social studies and conclude with recommendations for further reading and links to on line essays about related social studies topics Activities are followed by four categories Think it over Add your voice to the discussion Try it yourself and It s your classroom All of these are supported with online teaching material Designed for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice New in the Fourth Edition Provides a number of new lesson ideas paired with online lesson plans and activity sheets in every chapter Takes a new focus on data driven standards based instruction especially in relation to the common core curriculum Addresses the interactive nature of learning in updated technology sections Reflects current trends in history education Includes more of what the author has learned from working teachers Offers a wealth of additional on line material linked to the text

Measuring History S. G. Grant, 2009-03-01 Measuring History complements the cases presented in Wise Social Studies Practices Yeager Davis 2005 Yeager and Davis highlight the rich and ambitious teaching that can occur in the broad context of state level testing In this book the chapter authors and I bring the particular state history tests more to the fore and examine how teachers are responding to them At the heart of Measuring History are cases of classroom teachers in seven states Florida Kentucky Michigan New York Texas Mississippi and Virginia where new social studies standards and new and generally high stakes state level history tests are prominent In these chapters the authors describe and analyze the state s testing efforts and how those efforts are being interpreted in the context of classroom practice The results both support and challenge prevailing views on the efficacy of testing as a vehicle for educational reform Catherine Horn University of Houston and I lay the groundwork for the case studies through a set of introductory chapters that examine the current environment the research literature and the technical qualities of history tests Report Duluth Public Schools (Duluth, Minn.). Board of Education, 1922

Cracking the AP European History Exam, 2012 Edition Kenneth Pearl, Ph.D., 2011-08-02 Reviews subjects on the test offers tips on test taking strategies and includes two full length practice exams with answers and explanations

Teaching History with Big Ideas S. G. Grant, Jill M. Gradwell, 2010-07-16 In the case studies that make up the bulk of this book middle and high school history teachers describe the decisions and plans and the problems and possibilities they encountered as they ratcheted up their instruction through the use of big ideas Framing a teaching unit around a question such as Why don t we know anything about Africa offers both teacher and students opportunities to explore historical actors ideas and events in ways both rich and engaging Such an approach exemplifies the construct of ambitious teaching whereby teachers demonstrate their ability to marry their deep knowledge of subject matter students and the school context in ways that fundamentally challenge the claim that history is boring HELPING STUDENTS WITH

DISABILITIES DEVELOP SOCIAL SKILLS, ACADEMIC LANGUAGE AND LITERACY THROUGH LITERATURE

STORIES, VIGNETTES, AND OTHER ACTIVITIES Duran, Elva, Gonzales, Rachael, Park, Hyun-Sook, 2016-12-05 This social skills manual will present to teachers and parents lesson plans complete with literature stories vignettes and other activities to help students with disabilities develop social skills in all their environments The general skills and social skills at work are presented within detailed lesson plans that place emphasis on the vocabulary and the different lesson plan objectives that are essential to each lesson These generic skills will enhance an individual's ability to access social contexts in which healthy engagement can occur and improve the ability to cope with challenging tasks that are encountered in daily living The diversity of instructional techniques used to facilitate content mastery include guided and differentiated instruction modeling facilitating analysis and reflection of situations involving the appropriate and inappropriate use of key skills presentation and discussion of positive and negative consequences of each skill independent learning and connecting lessons learned to the central idea of the skills being taught These strategies are arranged in a logical order wherein the material mastered via one technique builds upon prior ones and provides a context for the next one in the instructional sequence In most cases it seems highly likely that students who are led through this sequence could not fail to acquire important information about understanding and applying these skills to their own lives This important new resource will enable professionals to be more effective in assisting students with disabilities in negotiating the many challenges in making the transition from school to the world of adult living

My Cold War Ann Diamond, 2007-09-01 On a day in the spring of 1956 my parents dressed my brother and me in brand new outfits my mother put on makeup and her best camel hair coat and we all went for a drive in the countryside near Montreal We took along our puppy Smokey wrapped in a blanket in case he peed on the seats of our new car Not long before my father had agreed to enrol me in a special program whose directors were very interested in bright little girls like me So begins Ann Diamond's terrifying tale of growing up in Canada during the Cold War an era when secrecy ran rampant ruining careers and lives This is the true story of one family caught in a dangerous web of deception Ann Diamond is an award winning Canadian writer

Discipline Problems Tadashi Dozono, 2024-05-07 Angel a Black tenth grader at a New York City public school self identifies as a nerd and likes to learn But she s troubled that her history classes leave out events like the genocide and dispossession of Indigenous people in the Americas presenting a sugar coated image of the United States that is at odds with her everyday experience The history I learned in school is simpler she says The world I live in is a lot more complex Angel like every student interviewed in Discipline Problems has been identified by teachers as a troublemaker a student whose behavior disrupts classroom norms and interferes with instruction But her critiques of the curriculum she s taught speak to her curiosity and insight crucial foundations for understanding history Like many students who have been marginalized by systemic racism in American schools she exposes the shortcomings of her classrooms academic environments by challenging both the content and the methods of her education All too often these challenges are framed as troublemaking and the students are disciplined for acting out instead of being rewarded for their intellectual engagement Tadashi Dozono a professor of education and former high school social studies teacher takes seriously the often overlooked critiques that students of color who get labeled as troublemakers direct toward their high school history curriculum He reinterprets troublemaking usually cast as a behavioral deficit as an intellectual asset and form of reasoning that challenges the disciplining reason of classrooms where whiteness is valued over the histories and knowledge of people of color Dozono shows how what are traditionally framed as discipline problems can be seen through a different lens as responses to educational practices that marginalize non white students Discipline Problems reveals how students of color
