Histoire De L'automatisation Des Sciences Du Langage:

Histoire de l'automatisation des sciences du langage Jacqueline Léon, 2015-03-26 Cet ouvrage consacre l'histoire de l'automatisation mathématisation des sciences du langage se situe en histoire et épistémologie des sciences du langage Il s'inscrit dans l'histoire du récent Deux moments sont distingués la traduction automatique dans les années 1950 Automating Linguistics Jacqueline Léon, 2021-04-26 Automating Linguistics offers an in depth study of the history of the mathematisation and automation of the sciences of language In the wake of the first mathematisation of the 1930s two waves followed machine translation in the 1950s and the development of computational linguistics and natural language processing in the 1960s These waves were pivotal given the work of large computerised corpora in the 1990s and the unprecedented technological development of computers and software Early machine translation was devised as a war technology originating in the sciences of war amidst the amalgam of mathematics physics logic neurosciences acoustics and emerging sciences such as cybernetics and information theory Machine translation was intended to provide mass translations for strategic purposes during the Cold War Linguistics in turn did not belong to the sciences of war and played a minor role in the pioneering projects of machine translation Comparing the two trends the present book reveals how the sciences of language gradually integrated the technologies of computing and software resulting in the second wave mathematisation of the study of language which may be called mathematisation automation The integration took on various shapes contingent upon cultural and linguistic traditions USA ex USSR Great Britain and France By contrast working with large corpora in the 1990s though enabled by unprecedented development of computing and software was primarily a continuation of traditional approaches in the sciences of language sciences such as the study of spoken and written texts lexicography and statistical studies of vocabulary History and Philosophy of Computing Fabio Gadducci, Mirko Tamosanis, 2016-10-05 This volume constitutes the refereed post conference proceedings of the Third International Conference on the History and Philosophy of Computing held in Pisa Italy in October 2015 The 18 full papers included in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from the 30 papers presented at the conference They cover topics ranging from the world history of computing to the role of computing in the humanities and the arts The Philosophy and Science of Language Ryan M. Nefdt, Carita Klippi, Bart Karstens, 2021-03-30 This volume brings together a diverse range of scholars to address important philosophical and interdisciplinary questions in the study of language Linguistics throughout history has been a conduit to the study of the mind brain societal structure literature and history itself The epistemic and methodological transfer between the sciences and humanities in regards to linguistics has often been documented but the underlying philosophical issues have not always been adequately addressed With 15 original and interdisciplinary chapters this volume therefore tackles vital questions relating to the philosophy history and theoretical interplay between the study of language and fields as varied as logic physics biology classical philology and neuroscience With a four part structure questions of the mathematical foundations of linguistics links to the natural sciences cognitive implications and historical connections take centre stage throughout the volume The final chapters present research related to the linguistic connections between history philosophy and the humanities more broadly Advancing new avenues of research this volume is exemplary in its treatment of diachronic and cross disciplinary interaction and will be of interest to all scholars interested in the study of language Discourse

Jean-Paul Metzger,2019-05-24 Discourse is not just a means of expressing thought it is also an autonomous body an act through which we aim to achieve a certain effect Modern linguistics proposes a broader definition of discourse as a discrete and unique enunciative process where the speaker or author makes language concrete through speech in the Saussurian sense and describes the various acts oral illocutionary perlocutionary that discourse performs This book examines discourse an object of analysis and criticism from a wide range of perspectives Among the concepts explored are the contributions of rhetoric in the art of discourse the evolution of multiple approaches and the main methods of discourse analysis conducted by a variety of researchers The book deepens our knowledge and understanding of discourse a concept on which any research related to information and communication can be based Library automation and networking - New tools for a new identity / L'automatisation et les réseaux de bibliothèques - de nouveaux outils pour une identité nouvelle Herman
