

Basic Speech Outline

You can use this general outline format for all speeches. Throughout the year, we will adjust this template slightly for the individual speeches we write, but all of them are a variation of this basic format.

Introduction of Speech

- I. Attention Device Opener-Question, Statistic, Example, Story, to grab audience's attention
- II. Central Idea- The main idea of your speech that is integrated into your introduction.
- III. Specific Purpose-To explain (inform, persuade, show, etc.) your topic with three main points that will become the body of the speech.

Body of Speech

- I. First Main Point – Write a sentence explaining what your first point is.

- A. Story, statistic, research, reference, etc. about first main point.
- B. Story, statistic, research, reference, etc. about first main point.
- C. Story, statistic, research, reference, etc. about first main point.

(Transition Statement –Use your last point to transition to the Second Main Point)

- II. Second Main Point – Write a sentence explaining what your second point is.

- A. Story, statistic, research, reference, etc. about second main point.
- B. Story, statistic, research, reference, etc. about second main point.
- C. Story, statistic, research, reference, etc. about second main point.

(Transition Statement –Use your last point to transition to the Third Main Point)

- III. Third Main Point – Write a sentence explaining what your third point is.

- A. Story, statistic, research, reference, etc. about third main point.
- B. Story, statistic, research, reference, etc. about third main point.
- C. Story, statistic, research, reference, etc. about third main point.

(Transition Statement – Now make a transition to the Conclusion)

Conclusion of Speech

- I. Review of Main Points - Recap your speech in a concise but creative format.
- II. Final Thought - This should be a meaningful statement that will stick with your audience and give closure.

Communication Steven A. Beebe, Susan J. Beebe, Diana K. Ivy, 2001

Communication helps readers see the relationships among the concepts, skills, theories, and contexts of communication by anchoring all discussion around five fundamental principles. Written by experienced and highly regarded textbook authors and teachers, Communication Principles for a Lifetime provides readers with all the theory and skills necessary in the introductory course in a manner that will help them to apply what they learn throughout their lives. Understanding that the challenge of basic communication is learning the myriad of skills, principles, and theories, Beebe and Beebe emphasize five key principles of communication throughout their book. Be aware of your communication with yourself and others. Effectively use and understand verbal messages. Effectively use and understand nonverbal messages. Listen and respond thoughtfully to others. Appropriately adapt messages to others. For anyone interested in the art of communication.

Successful Public Speaking William A. Haskins, Joseph M. Staudacher, 1987

Instructors Manual Steven A. Beebe, Melinda Morris Villagran, Susan J. Beebe, 2002-04

This book is written to be the primary text for a college level public speaking course. The authors offer strategies that are anchored in ethical principles to assist speakers in articulating a message that connects with their audience. They emphasize that an effective speaker is an ethical speaker. Audience centered speakers articulate truthful messages that give audience members free choice in responding to a message while also using effective means of ensuring message clarity and credibility.
