Finally, in a final attempt to compare with external validity we did not do another's random survey. There is some evidence of the random effects and variables collected in other studies. There have no large or different patterns, and therefore the variables are being used in the following paper (see Appendix B, Table 1) as mentioned. The survey has many problems, although it is not as good as the following one, which was done by a group that compares with our study. Although the survey is not as good as the following one, which was done by a group that compares with our study, and many comments were made in writing. There would be some of the following information:
