

- Cognitive Dissonance: A psychological theory that describes the discomfort people experience when they hold contradictory beliefs, attitudes, or values. Cognitive Dissonance theory explores the mechanisms individuals use to resolve such inconsistencies.
- Existential Crises: A profound questioning of one's existence, purpose, and meaning in life. Existential crises often involve feelings of anxiety, despair, and a search for existential meaning and fulfillment.
- Human Nature: Philosophical and psychological inquiries into the inherent qualities, characteristics, and behaviors that define what it means to be human. Discussions about human nature often involve debates about innate traits versus learned behaviors.

Follow-Along Questions:

1. Existentialism: Several philosophers in the film discuss existentialism, the philosophical movement that explores individual existence, freedom, and choice. Pay attention to their views on human freedom and responsibility. How do these ideas align with psychological concepts like self-determination and personal agency?

---
2. Mind-Body Connection: The film delves into the relationship between the mind and the body, exploring how our thoughts and emotions impact our physical well-being. Notice the discussions around stress, emotions, and their effects on the body. How do these discussions relate to psychosomatic disorders and the mind-body connection in psychology?

---

3. Consciousness and Self-Awareness: Philosophers in the film contemplate the nature of consciousness and self-awareness. Listen for their perspectives on the distinction between being aware of oneself and being aware of others. How do these discussions connect to theories of self-awareness in psychology, such as mirror self-recognition?

Examined Life Documentary Summary:

Examined Life Astra Taylor, 2009 The companion to Astra Taylor's acclaimed documentary film Examined Life features the full transcripts of Taylor's conversations with eight iconoclastic and influential philosophers conducted while on the move through places that hold special resonance for them and their ideas Peter Singer's thoughts on the ethics of consumption are amplified against the backdrop of Fifth Avenue's posh boutiques Judith Butler and artist and disability activist Sunaura Taylor stroll through San Francisco's Mission District questioning our culture's fixation on individualism And while driving through Manhattan Cornel West perhaps America's best known public intellectual compares philosophy to jazz and blues reminding us how intense and invigorating the life of the mind can be Book jacket

What a Body Can Do Ben Spatz, 2015-03-05 In What a Body Can Do Ben Spatz develops for the first time a rigorous theory of embodied technique as knowledge He argues that viewing technique as both training and research has much to offer current debates over the role of practice in the university including the debates around practice as research Drawing on critical perspectives from the sociology of knowledge phenomenology dance studies enactive cognition and other areas Spatz argues that technique is a major area of historical and ongoing research in physical culture performing arts and everyday life Philosophical Interventions

Martha C. Nussbaum, 2012-01-02 This volume collects the notable published book reviews of Martha C. Nussbaum an acclaimed philosopher who is also a professor of law and a public intellectual Her academic work focuses on questions of moral and political philosophy and on the nature of the emotions But over the past 25 years she has also written many book reviews for a general public in periodicals such as The New Republic and The New York Review of Books Dating from 1986 to the present these essays engage constructively and also critically with authors like Roger Scruton Allan Bloom Charles Taylor Judith Butler Richard Posner Catharine MacKinnon Susan Moller Okin and other prominent intellectuals of our time Throughout her views defy ideological predictability heralding valuable work from little known sources deftly criticizing where criticism is due and generally providing a compelling picture of how philosophy in the Socratic tradition can engage with broad social concerns For this volume Nussbaum provides an intriguing introduction that explains her selection and provides her view of the role of the public philosopher Zizek and Media Studies

M. Flisfeder, L. Willis, 2014-04-09 Film media and cultural theorists have long appealed to Lacanian theory in order to discern processes of subjectivization representation and ideological interpellation Here the contributors take up a Zizekian approach to studies of cinema and media raising questions about power ideology sexual difference and enjoyment A Philosophical Inquiry into Subject

English and Creative Writing Oli Belas, 2022-11-18 While engaging with the current political educational climate of England this book offers a timely contribution to debates around questions of knowledge in relation to education and school level English by drawing together theories of individual and disciplinary knowledge The book provides a philosophical conception of knowledge as fundamentally embodied at the level of the individual and a matter of cultural form at the level of shared or common knowledge and an analysis of the implications of this for schooled English The research draws from various related fields including literary criticism philosophy of knowledge and of symbolic form and phenomenology The book rethinks general notions of knowledge and lays out the problems that exist within knowledge and language systems in education especially secondary and university levels This highly relevant and informative book offers an insightful resource for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of education studies educational policy and politics philosophy of education and literature studies

The People's Platform Astra Taylor, 2014-04-15 An invaluable primer for anyone seeking to understand why our networked world isn't all that it is cracked up to be The Guardian The Internet has been hailed as an unprecedented democratizing force a place where everyone can be heard and all can participate equally But how true is this claim In a seminal dismantling of techno-utopian visions The People's Platform argues that for all that we tweet and like and share the Internet in fact reflects and amplifies real world inequities at least as much as it ameliorates them Online just as off-line attention and influence largely accrue to those who already have plenty of both What we have seen so far Astra Taylor says has been not a revolution but a rearrangement Although Silicon Valley tycoons have eclipsed Hollywood moguls a handful of giants like Amazon Apple Google and Facebook remain the gatekeepers And the worst habits of the old media model the pressure to seek easy celebrity to be quick and sensational above all have proliferated on the web where aggregating the work of others is the surest way to attract eyeballs and ad revenue When culture is free creative work has diminishing value and advertising fuels the system The new order looks suspiciously like the old one We can do better Taylor insists The online world does offer a unique opportunity but a democratic culture that supports diverse voices and work of lasting value will not spring up from technology alone If we want the Internet to truly be a people's platform we will have to make it so Beautifully written and highly recommended David Byrne musician and author

Every Day I Write the Book Amitava Kumar, 2020-03-27 Amitava Kumar's Every Day I Write the Book is for academic writers what Annie Dillard's The Writing Life and Stephen King's On Writing are for creative writers Alongside Kumar's interviews with an array of scholars whose distinct writing offers inspiring examples for students and academics alike the book's pages are full of practical advice about everything from how to write criticism to making use of a kitchen timer Communication engagement honesty these are the aims and sources of good writing Storytelling attention to organization solid work habits these are its tools Kumar's own voice is present in his essays about the writing process and in his perceptive and witty observations on the academic world A writing manual as well as a manifesto Every Day I Write the Book will interest and guide aspiring writers everywhere

Why We Fight Shane Burley, 2021-04-20 Why We Fight is a collection of essays written in the midst of the largest resurgence of the far right in fifty years and the explosion of antifascist antiracist and revolutionary organizing that has risen to fight it The essays unpack the moment we live in confronting the apocalyptic feelings brought on by nationalism climate collapse and the crisis of capitalism but also delivering the clear message that a new world is possible through the struggles communities are leveraging today Burley reminds us what we re fighting for not simply what we re fighting against

Fragments of the City Colin McFarlane,2021-10-05 Pursuing fragments Pulling together falling apart Knowing fragments Writing in fragments Political framings Walking cities In completion      Machines Abraham P. DeLeon,2015-01-01 This book is about machines those that have been actualized fantastical imaginal machines to those deployed as metaphorical devices to describe complex social processes Machines argues that they transcend time and space to emerge through a variety of spaces and places times and histories and representations They are such an integral fabric of daily reality that their disappearance would have immediate and dire consequences for the survival of humanity They are part and parcel to our contemporary social order From labor to social theory art or consciousness literature or television to the asylums of the 19th century machines are a central figure an outgrowth of affective desire that seeks to transcend organic limitations of bodies that whither age and die Machines takes the reader on an intellectual artistic and theoretical journey weaving an interdisciplinary tale of their emergence across social cultural and artistic boundaries With the deep engagement of various texts Machines offers the reader moments of escape alternative ways to envision technology for a future yet to materialize Machines rejects the notion that technological innovations are indeed neutral propelling us to think differently about those things created under specific economic or historical paradigms Rethinking machines provides a rupture to our current technocratic impetus shining a critical light on possible alternatives to our current reality Let us sit back and take a journey through Machines holding mechanical parts as guides to possible alternative futures      Finding Francis Elizabeth J. West,2022-12-08 Winner of the 2023 College Language Association Book Award Finding Francis finding family freeing history Francis is found Beyond Francis a family is found in archival material that barely deigned to notice their existence This is the story of Francis Sistrunk and her children from enslavement into forced migration across South Carolina Georgia Alabama and Mississippi It spans decades before the Civil War and continues into post emancipation America A family story full of twists and turns Finding Francis reclaims and honors those women who played an essential role in the historical survival and triumph of Black people during and after American slavery Elizabeth West has created a remarkable biohistoriography of everyday Black resistance grounded in a determination to maintain enduring connections of family kinship and community despite the inhumanity and rapacity of slavery There is inevitable heartbreak in these histories but there is also an empowering strength and inspiration the truth of these lives will indeed set us all free      Psychoanalysis and Ecology at the Edge of Chaos Joseph Dodds,2012-03-12 This book argues that psychoanalysis has a unique role to play in the climate change debate through its placing emphasis on the unconscious dimensions of our mental and social lives Exploring contributions from Freudian Kleinian Object Relations Self Psychology Jungian and Lacanian traditions the book discusses how psychoanalysis can help to unmask the anxieties deficits conflicts phantasies and defences crucial in understanding the human dimension of the ecological crisis Yet despite being essential to studying environmentalism and its discontents

psychoanalysis still remains largely a psychology without ecology The philosophy of Deleuze and Guattari combined with new developments in the sciences of complexity help us to build upon the best of these perspectives providing a framework able to integrate Guattari's three ecologies of mind nature and society This book thus constitutes a timely attempt to contribute towards a critical dialogue between psychoanalysis and ecology Further topics of discussion include ecopsychology and the greening of psychotherapy our ambivalent relationship to nature and the non human complexity theory in psychoanalysis and ecology defence mechanisms against eco anxiety and eco grief Deleuze Guattari and the three ecologies becoming animal in horror and eco apocalypse in science fiction films nonlinear ecopsychanalysis In our era of anxiety denial paranoia apathy guilt hope and despair in the face of climate change this book offers a fresh and insightful psychoanalytic perspective on the ecological crisis As such this book will be of great interest to all those in the fields of psychoanalysis psychology philosophy and ecology as well as all who are concerned with the global environmental challenges affecting our planet's future

Summary of David Attenborough's A Life on Our Planet Milkyway Media,2021-11-23 Buy now to get the main key ideas from David Attenborough's A Life on Our Planet Humans have long ruled the natural world bending it to our will and desires But all actions have consequences and we've only just begun to see the destruction our actions have caused on our planet In A Life on Our Planet David Attenborough discusses how we as a species arrived at this crucial juncture in our planet's history and what we must do in order to return it to balance The most important step is increasing our planet's biodiversity With more species of plants and animals that means more food sources for both animals and humans better carbon intake and an overall better functioning ecosystem With climate change species going extinct and an ever increasing population we are seeing the signs that Earth is at its tipping point We must act now and begin to return Earth to its natural state or potentially lose it forever

The Likeness Gretchen Bakke,2020-05-19 The Likeness is a close ethnographic study of subjectivity in the former Yugoslav republic of Slovenia In this highly imaginative work the author argues that much of what matters in Slovenia plays out on surfaces of people and things systems and locations rendering the complexity of expression external and legible but rarely unique or original Here likenesses are everywhere in bloom and powerfully deployed Moving blithely from Slovenia's most famous thinkers to its most confounding artists from grammatical categories of number to the particularities of history The Likeness explores alternative modes of self expression as postsocialist Slovenia gains visibility on the world stage

The Oxford Handbook of Cinematic Listening Carlo Cenciarelli,2021 Defines a new area of interdisciplinary research Looks at the ways in which listening to film is situated in textual spatial and historical practices Covers a broad span of film history from early cinema and European art cinema to contemporary science fiction and live score screenings Extends the study of film sound beyond film considering cinema in relation to media ranging from shadow plays and photograph musicals to video games and VR Book jacket

Addressing Ableism Jennifer Scuro,2017-10-25 Addressing Ableism is a set of philosophical meditations outlining the scale and scope of ableism By explicating concepts like experience diagnosis precariousness and prosthesis Scuro maps out the institutionalized and intergenerational forms of this bias as it is analogous and yet also distinct from other kinds of dehumanization discrimination and oppression This project also includes a dialogical chapter on intersectionality with Devonya Havis and Lydia Brown a philosopher and writer activist respectively Utilizing theorists like Judith Butler Tobin Siebers Emmanuel Levinas and Hannah Arendt to address ableism Scuro thoroughly critiques the neoliberal culture and politics that underwrites ableist affections and phobias This project exposes the many material and non material harms of ableism and it offers multiple avenues to better confront and resist ableism in its many forms Scuro provides crucial insights into the many uninhabitable and unsustainable effects of ableism and how we might revise our intentions and desires for the sake of a less ableist world
