Human Rights and Populism Jolyon Ford, 2023-09-15 For decades framing an issue as a human rights issue carried certain power and effect in politics and international relations one that has been challenged by the recent rise of populist political forces Ford explores the recent impact of populist politics on the universalist human rights project in particular how scholars have framed and responded to this challenge Ford offers a provocation to the human rights movement Rather than what have populists done to human rights it asks how did we the human rights movement do this to ourselves How did fundamental protections for all become so easily scapegoated as us and them as claims of small often foreign minorities Did human rights lose some vital connection to ordinary people's interests their value taken as obvious and self explanatory Looking forward the book asks how in a post truth fake news world we might reimagine human rights as underpinning human flourishing as well as important constraints on public and private concentrations of power Traversing relevant scholarly literature on the future of human rights and zooming out to look at wider patterns of political and diplomatic discourse this book will speak to policymakers diplomats journalists and human rights advocates and all interested in the crisis of liberal democracies

Critical Issues in Human Rights and Development Marks, Stephen P., Rajagopal, Balakrishnan, 2021-11-09 This collection addresses human rights and development for researchers policymakers and activists at a time of major challenges Critical issues in the title signifies both the urgency of the issues and the need for critical rethinking After exploring the overarching issues of development and economic theory gender climate change and disability the book focuses on issues of technology and trade education and information water and sanitation and work health housing and food      Routledge Handbook of International Law and the Humanities Shane Chalmers, Sundhya Pahuja, 2021-05-19 This Handbook brings together 40 of the world's leading scholars and rising stars who study international law from disciplines in the humanities from history to literature philosophy to the visual arts to showcase the distinctive contributions that this field has made to the study of international law over the past two decades Including authors from Australia Canada Europe India South Africa the UK and the USA all the contributors engage the question of what is distinctive and critical about the work that has been done and that continues to be done in the field of international law and the humanities For many of these authors answering this question involves reflecting on the work they themselves have been contributing to this path breaking field since its inception at the end of the twentieth century For others it involves offering models of the new work they are carrying out or else reflecting on the future directions of a field that has now taken its place as one of the most important sites for the study of international legal practice and theory Each of the book's six parts foregrounds a different element or cluster of elements of international law and the humanities from an attention to the office conduct and training of the jurist and jurisprudent Part 1 to scholarly craft and technique Part 2 to questions of authority and responsibility Part 3 history and historiography Part 4 plurality and community Part 5 as well as the challenge of thinking and rethinking international legal concepts for our times Part 6 Outlining new ways of imagining and doing international law at a moment in time when original critical thought and practice is more necessary than ever this Handbook will be essential for scholars students and practitioners in international law international relations as well as in law and the humanities more generally      Menschenrechte und ihre Kritiker Dieter Gosewinkel, Annette Weinke, 2019-12-02 Unterschiedliche historische Spielarten der Menschenrechtskritik und deren Wirkungsgeschichte Während die 1990er Jahre als eine Hochzeit der internationalen Menschenrechtsbewegung galten ist die Debatte über Menschenrechte seit einigen Jahren zunehmend von Skepsis und Pessimismus geprägt Schlagworte wie Endzeit oder Dämmerung der Menschenrechte sollen signalisieren dass mit dem Internationalen Recht auch die Menschenrechte in eine Legitimationskrise geraten sind Teilweise speist sich die gegenwärtige Kritik aus tagespolitischen Entwicklungen greift vielfach aber auch auf grundsätzlichere Argumente zurück Diese haben die Auseinandersetzung über Gehalt und Geltungskraft der Menschenrechtsidee von Anfang an begleitet Denn schon immer war die Genese moderner Menschenrechtskonzeptionen eng mit deren jeweiligen Gegenentwürfen verwoben Dabei lassen sich pragmatische Kritik und grundsätzliche Gegnerschaft nur selten auseinanderhalten Menschenrechtskritik entsprang vielschichtigen Motivlagen und trat zudem in unterschiedlichen Mischungsverhältnissen und Schattierungen auf Dieser Befund fordert dazu heraus das Phänomen der Menschenrechtskritik zu historisieren und zu systematisieren      The Commons in a Glocal World Tobias Haller, Thomas Breu, Tine De Moor, Christian Rohr, Heinzpeter Znoj, 2019-04-30 This volume focuses on how in Europe the debate on the commons is discussed in regard to historical and contemporary dimensions critically referencing the work of Elinor Ostrom It also explores from the perspective of new institutional political ecology NIPE how Europe directly and indirectly affected and affects the commons globally Most of the research on the management of commons pool resources is limited to dealing with one of two topics either the interaction between local participatory governance and development of institutions for commons management or a political economy approach that focuses on global change as it is related to the increasingly globalised expansion of capitalist modes of production consumption and societal reproduction This volume bridges the two addressing how global players affect the commons worldwide and how they relate to responses emerging from within the commons in a global local glocal world Authors from a range of academic disciplines present research findings on recent developments on the commons including historical insights new innovations for participatory institutions building in Europe or several types of commons grabbing especially in Africa related to European investments and restrictions on the management of commons at the international level European case studies are included providing interesting examples of local participation in commons resource management while simultaneously showing Europe as a centre for globalized capitalism and its norms and values affecting the rest of the world particularly developing countries This book will be of interest to students and researchers from a wide range of disciplines including natural resource management environmental governance political geography and environmental history

Human Rights in the Media Michelle Farrell,Eleanor Drywood,Edel Hughes,2019-01-03 This collection sets about untangling some of the knotty issues in the underexplored relationship between human rights and the media We investigate how complex debates in political judicial academic and public life on the role and value of human rights are represented in the media particularly in print journalism To focus the discussion we concentrate on media representation of the controversial proposals in the United Kingdom to repeal the Human Rights Act 1998 and to replace it with a British Bill of Rights The collection is underpinned by the observation that views on human rights and on the proposals to repeal and replace are polarised On the one hand human rights are presented as threatening and therefore utterly denigrated on the other hand human rights are idolised and therefore uncritically celebrated This is the fear and fetish in our title The media plays a decisive role in constructing this polarity through its representation of political and ideological viewpoints In order to get to grips with the fear the fetish and this complex interrelationship the collection tackles key contemporary themes amongst them the proposed British Bill of Rights Brexit prisoner voting the demonisation of immigrants press freedom tabloid misreporting trial by media and Magna Carta The collection explores media representation investigates media polarity and critiques the media s role Finnish Yearbook of International Law, Volume 23, 2012-2013 Jarna

Petman,2016-01-28 The Finnish Yearbook of International Law aspires to honour and strengthen the Finnish tradition in international legal scholarship Open to contributions from all over the world and from all persuasions the Finnish Yearbook stands out as a forum for theoretically informed high quality publications on all aspects of public international law including the international relations law of the European Union The Finnish Yearbook publishes in depth articles and shorter notes

commentaries on current developments book reviews and relevant overviews of Finland's state practice While firmly grounded in traditional legal scholarship it is open for new approaches to international law and for work of an interdisciplinary nature The Finnish Yearbook is published for the Finnish Society of International Law by Hart Publishing Volumes prior to volume 19 may be obtained from Martinus Nijhoff an imprint of Brill Publishers Asylum - A Right Denied Helen O'Nions, 2016-04-15 In recent decades asylum has emerged as a highly politicized European issue The term asylum seeker has suffered a negative perception and has been associated with notions of illegality and criminality in mainstream media These misconceptions have been supported by politicians as a distraction from economic and political uncertainties with the result that asylum seekers have been deprived of significant rights This book examines the effect of recent attempts of harmonization on the identification and protection of refugees It considers the extent of obligations on the state to admit and protect refugees and examines the 1951 Refugee Convention The motivations of European legislators and legislation concerning asylum procedures and reception conditions are also analysed Proposals and initiatives for refugee movements and determinations are examined and assessed The author makes suggestions for better protection of refugees while responding to the security concerns of States and questions whether European law and policy is doing enough to uphold the fundamental right to seek and enjoy asylum as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights This book takes a bold look at a controversial issue and generates discussion for those involved in the fields of human rights migrational and transnational studies law and society and international law Routledge Handbook of War, Law and Technology James Gow, Ernst Dijkhoorn, Rachel Kerr, Guglielmo Verdirame, 2019-05-15 This volume provides an authoritative cutting edge resource on the characteristics of both technological and social change in warfare in the twenty first century and the challenges such change presents to international law The character of contemporary warfare has recently undergone significant transformation in several important respects the nature of the actors the changing technological capabilities available to them and the sites and spaces in which war is fought These changes have augmented the phenomenon of non obvious warfare making understanding warfare one of the key challenges Such developments have been accompanied by significant flux and uncertainty in the international legal sphere This handbook brings together a unique blend of expertise combining scholars and practitioners in science and technology international law strategy and policy in order properly to understand and identify the chief characteristics and features of a range of innovative developments means and processes in the context of obvious and non obvious warfare The handbook has six thematic sections Law war and technology Cyber warfare Autonomy robotics and drones Synthetic biology New frontiers International perspectives This interdisciplinary blend and the novel rich and insightful contribution that it makes across various fields will make this volume a crucial research tool and guide for practitioners scholars and students of war studies security studies technology and design ethics international relations and international law Subalterns and International Law Remi Bachand, 2023-10-05 This book provides a theoretical analysis of international law's impact on relations between dominant and subordinate or subaltern groups. It charts the law's role in the reproduction, legitimation and transformation of systems such as capitalism, racism and imperialism. It looks at 4 distinct moments when law structures society: when rules and institutions are formally used; when law influences ideological positions; and when law is used to defend political claims. The book shows the law as a powerful tool for promoting the reproduction and legitimation of subordination. Offering a fresh perspective, it will appeal to scholars of international law and international relations. Reinventing Legal Education Alberto Alemanno, Lamin Khadar, 2018-05-24

European legal teaching, historically formalistic, doctrinal, hierarchical and passive, is coming under increasing pressure to reimagine itself as pragmatic, policy aware and action oriented. Out of this context, a bottom up movement of university law clinics appears to be emerging in Europe. Although intellectually indebted to the US model, the European variant reflects legal education and practice in Europe, specifically the multi-layered and multi-genetic legal landscape resulting from the Europeanization and internationalization of national legal systems, the globalization of European legal markets and the growing demand for civic engagement in view of increasingly powerful supra-national institutions. Through the prism of clinical legal education, Reinventing Legal Education is the first attempt to gather scholarly and systematic reflections on the developments taking place in European legal teaching and practice. This groundbreaking book should be read by anyone interested in how clinical legal education is reinventing legal education in Europe. Dynamics of Youth Agency in Times of Crisis Nadine Sika, 2021-12-19 This book examines the political economy of the Middle East and North Africa and how it impacts young people's civic and political participation today. The edited volume analyses the extent to which young people influence public policies, social, cultural and economic structures, and how, on the other hand, these young people are influenced by the same structures. It focuses on the politics and agency of youth and how they impact social change and continuity in the Middle East and North Africa. The book will be of great value to students, scholars and researchers interested in Youth Movements, MENA, Comparative Politics and Political Economy. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Mediterranean Politics. Legitimacy and International Courts Nienke

Grossman, Harlan Grant Cohen, Andreas Follesdal, Geir Ulfstein, 2018-02-22 An interdisciplinary volume exploring the concept of legitimacy in relation to international courts and what can drive and weaken it. Less-Lethal Weapons under International Law Elisabeth Hoffberger-Pippan, 2021-08-26 Hitherto, less lethal weapons, in contrast to classical firearms and other highly destructive weapons, have literally slipped under the radar of public international law. This book is the first monograph addressing and analysing all international legal regimes applicable to less lethal weapons, ranging from arms control treaties, international humanitarian criminal and human rights law. In doing so, the different scenarios in which less lethal weapons come to use will be taken into account, such as law enforcement, armed conflict and law enforcement scenarios during armed conflict. The relationships between the different legal regimes will be elaborated thoroughly, with a view to examining how international law responds to less lethal weapons The final chapter provides guidelines as well as recommendations on appropriate use and regulation of less lethal weapons where the different scenarios of application such as in armed conflict and law enforcement will be given due account Laws and Societies in Global Contexts Eve Darian-Smith, 2013-01-31 This text promotes a more global sociolegal perspective that engages with multiple laws and societies and diverse sociolegal systems based on very different historical and cultural traditions interacting on multiple local national and global levels The approach to global legal pluralism seeks to provide a framework for envisioning new global governance regimes that move beyond state based solutions to deal with trenchant transnational challenges

Commissions of Inquiry Christian Henderson, 2017-05-18 This timely and pertinent collection looks at the variety of questions involved in the operation of Commissions of Inquiry CoIs Traditionally existing as pure fact finding bodies in recent times the function of CoIs has arguably shifted and broadened so as to provide a form of legal adjudication This shift in their application merits scrutiny and this edited collection of essays addresses institutional and procedural aspects of CoIs as well as issues in regards to the application and interpretation of the substantive law applied to them Essay topics include the relationship of CoIs with and impact upon traditional forms of adjudication the influences of international law upon the work of CoIs through to issues of procedural fairness Drawing upon the expertise of scholars working within in the field it offers an insightful and critical analysis of CoIs Routledge Handbook of Food as a Commons Jose Luis Vivero-Pol, Tomaso Ferrando, Olivier De Schutter, Ugo Mattei, 2018-12-17 From the scientific and industrial revolution to the present day food an essential element of life has been progressively transformed into a private transnational mono dimensional commodity of mass consumption for a global market But over the last decade there has been an increased recognition that this can be challenged and reconceptualized if food is regarded and enacted as a commons This Handbook provides the first comprehensive review and synthesis of knowledge and new thinking on how food and food systems can be thought interpreted and practiced around the old new paradigms of commons and commoning The overall aim is to investigate the multiple constraints that occur within and sustain the dominant food and nutrition regime and to explore how it can change when different elements of the current food systems are explored and re imagined from a commons perspective Chapters do not define the notion of commons but engage with different schools of thought the economic approach based on rivalry and excludability the political approach recognizing the plurality of social constructions and incorporating epistemologies from the South the legal approach that describes three types of proprietary regimes private public and collective and different layers of entitlement bundles of rights and the radical activist approach that considers the commons as the most subversive coherent and history rooted alternative to the dominant neoliberal narrative These schools have different and rather diverging epistemologies vocabularies ideological stances and policy proposals to deal with the construction of food systems their governance the distributive implications and the socio ecological impact on Nature and Society The book sparks the debate on food as a commons between and within disciplines with particular attention to spaces of resistance food sovereignty de growth open knowledge transition town occupations bottom up social innovations and organizational scales local food national policies South South collaborations international governance and multi national agreements Overall it shows the consequences of a shift to the alternative paradigm of food as a commons in terms of food the planet and living beings
