Bob Ward Ford, Inc. V. Ford Motor Company ,1986 Federal Register ,2000-04 Mass Media Writing Elise K. Parsigian,2013-11-05 This innovative book is the first to identify and describe the systematic process that drives the day to day work of writers in the real world of print and broadcast journalism public relations and advertising The key to creative problem solution for both simple and complex assignments in media work is engagingly detailed in this thought provoking guide Users of this book will learn how to fulfill assignments and write copy that meets an editor s or client s expectations speaks to the intended audience stands up to question and remains in memory The author skillfully blends tested processes from science and art to equip the student with the tools of self management and the techniques of disciplined creativity that defend against erroneous judgment Recognizing the role of problem solving in media and the primacy of critical thinking at all stages of the writing process from preparatory measures to final writing the author challenges the assumption that discipline and creativity are incompatible partners That partnership is described in detail then dramatized with absorbing examples and illustrations drawn from interviews with experienced practitioners in print and broadcast journalism public relations and advertising Each chapter is a discovery of how this reliable partnership for solving writing problems in media applies to both anticipated and unexpected communication situations Making known what media professionals have learned through trial and error on the job here is a thinking and writing dynamic that students new hires and aspiring free lancers can now acquire before entering the world of print or broadcast journalism public relations or advertising
