

What is a Founding Father?

Most likely you have heard the term, "Founding Father". It is often heard when discussing the beginning of an idea, a concept, the start of a business, or some other important and memorable event or activity. For example, Robert Babbage is often called the "Father of the Computer" due to his work in the field of technology, and Bill Gates and Steve Jobs are sometimes called the "Father of Microsoft" and the "Father of Apple" respectively.

Of course, there have been women too who could also be referred to as "Founding Mothers", such as someone like Elizabeth Cady Stanton, who might be referred to as the "Founding Mother of Women's Equal Rights" based on her work fighting for the rights of women in America. Finally, several more women could be called "Founding Mothers" especially those who stood beside the "Founding Fathers" of America.

The term "Founding Father" is usually heard when speaking of certain presidents like George Washington and Thomas Jefferson. But what exactly does that term mean? The Founding Fathers include several individuals who were part of the original Thirteen Colonies of the United States who led the fight during the American Revolution against the British. They fought with words and deeds to establish and contribute to the founding and the beginning of the United States of America.

Who are the Founding Fathers?

The seven individuals most often credited with founding America include Washington, Jefferson, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Alexander Hamilton, John Jay, and James Madison. Except for Franklin, Hamilton, and Jay, each of the other Founding Fathers became President of the United States.

Three important documents led to American independence from Britain, including the Declaration of Independence first drafted by a Committee of Five which included Adams, Jefferson, and Franklin. A document advocating ratification of the Constitution (the law of the land) were The Federalist Papers, authored by Hamilton, Madison, and Jay. Finally, Jay, Adams, and Franklin negotiated the Treaty of Paris that ended the American Revolution.
