Henning Book 2 Prince Of Wintergrave:

Henning Book 2 Hayden Thorne, 2014-11-03 Being a prince in a past life yields no benefits in the present Henning has quickly learned His concerned housemates have made themselves his official overbearing chaperones Ellery appears to despise him and Henning's limited movements slowly wear down his nerves With his awakening process turning out to be more of a zombie like stagger the stakes rise inevitably as undead attacks not only increase in frequency but also in danger levels Henning finds some relief in the company of Alan Scott a handsome smart young man he meets in a store who displays an earnest interest in Henning He gradually tears Henning's heartbroken attention away from Ellery offering him promises of happiness as can only be defined in a boy's first love In the meantime danger now spills over to threaten innocent civilians as they get dragged into monster attacks making it difficult for Henning and his companions to fight back while raising troubling questions about the walls between worlds being torn down by dark magic It also reveals the effect of a soul bond on Henning and Ellery's awakening that is each boy's awakening is affected by the other and the mystery of how and why only get muddier As Henning and his companions scramble for answers it's a mad race against time when things happen that make them suspect Varian of crossing over to their world searching for Henning
