How To Find Your Self Without Looking:

How to Find What You're Not Looking For Veera Hiranandani, 2021-09-14 New historical fiction from a Newbery Honor winning author about how middle schooler Ariel Goldberg's life changes when her big sister elopes following the 1967 Loving v Virginia decision and she's forced to grapple with both her family's prejudice and the antisemitism she experiences as she defines her own beliefs Twelve year old Ariel Goldberg's life feels like the moment after the final guest leaves the party Her family's Jewish bakery runs into financial trouble and her older sister has eloped with a young man from India following the Supreme Court decision that strikes down laws banning interracial marriage As change becomes Ariel's only constant she's left to hone something that will be with her always her own voice How to Find Yourself Brian S. Rosner, 2022-05-05 A Christian Answer to the Identity Angst of Our Culture In the 21st century West identity is everything Never has it been more important culturally speaking to know who you are and remain true to yourself Expressive individualism the belief that looking inward is the way to find yourself has become the primary approach to identity formation and questioning anyone's self made self is often considered a threat or attack Prompted by his own past crisis of identity Brian Rosner challenges the status quo by arguing that while knowing yourself is of some value it cannot be the sole basis for one's identity He provides an approach to identity formation that leads to a more stable and satisfying sense of self This approach looks outward to others acknowledging that we are social beings and looks upward to God to find a self who is intimately known and loved by him How to Find Yourself equips readers from a variety of backgrounds to engage sympathetically with some of the most pressing questions of our day Challenges the Status Quo Examines and critiques expressive individualism the leading strategy for identity formation Gospel Centered Identifies an approach to identity formation in Jesus's life story and God's personal knowledge of his children Accessible Helpful for a wide audience of laypeople students and church leaders Foreword by Carl R Trueman Opens with a message from the author of The Rise and Triumph of the Modern Self *How to Find Yourself and Your Best Match.
