

Abstract

- 100 Abstracted Summary: (Abstracts taken from the second session results document, speaking abstracts and appendices to the abstract document show a concentration on the use of various methods. There is considerable work concerning the fact that having a well-defined specific method for animal models used facilitates understanding. With a well-defined method problems in interpretation beyond sensory bias. I believe what I will be speaking about today is the use of the 1975 and 1976 results.)
