Assignment:	Our Town Analysis

First, you will need to obtain a copy of Our Town from your local library or book seller. You can purchase it from AOP at <https://www.aop.com/curriculum/our-town> if you want. Just make sure your copy is not an abridged version. Read these instructions now so you are prepared to do this project well. The project is due before the unit test.

When you have finished reading the play, Our Town, you will analyze the three acts through a series of activities. You will submit the project for grading only after you have completed all three activities.

Note: Projects are not due the day they are assigned. They are due before the unit test.

Activity One:

In act one, the Stage Manager describes the time capsule that the townspeople plan to put in the bank cornerstone, saying:

We're putting in a Bible...and the Constitution of the United States—and a copy of William Shakespeare's play. What do you say, folks? What do you think?

Y'know—Babylon once had two million people in it, and all we know about 'em is the names of the kings and some copies of wheat contracts...and contracts for the sale of slaves. Yet every night all those families sat down to supper, and the father came home from his work, and the smoke went up the chimney, --same as here. And even in Greece and Rome, all we know about the real life of the people is what we can piece together out of the joking poems and the comedies they wrote for the theatre back then.

So I'm going to have a copy of this play put in the cornerstone and the people a thousand years from now'll know a few simple facts about us—more than the Treaty of Versailles and the Lindbergh flight.

See what I mean?

So—people a thousand years from now—this is the way we were in the provinces north of New York at the beginning of the twentieth century. —This is the way we were; in our growing up and in our marrying and in our living and in our dying (Wilder 33).

The Stage Manager wants to leave a record of everyday life for future generations to find so that people who find the time capsule will know what life was like beyond just the historical facts and major events.

Directions: Besides the items listed in the passage above, what else would you have included in the time capsule that would accurately portray daily life in Grover's Corners? Select items that you would include in the time capsule in addition to the items already listed. You must choose at least two items, and explain your reasoning clearly. What would people far in the future learn about daily life from your choices? In 150-200 words, justify your choices by explaining why you
