

Frankenstein

To Mrs. SAVILE, ENGLAND, August 18th, 17—.

So strange an accident has happened to us, that I cannot 10 confess it according to its merits; it is very probable that you will see our bodies these papers can attest but a wretched possession.

Last Monday (July 31st), we were nearly surrounded by ice, which closed in the ship on all sides, scarcely leaving her the 15 space in which she floated. Our situation was somewhat dangerous, especially as we were compassed round by a very thick fog. We accordingly lay to, hoping that some change 20 would take place in the atmosphere and weather. About two-thirds the sail was set, and we beheld it, stretched out in every direction, vast and irregular plain of ice, which seemed to have no end. Some of my comrades groaned, and my own 25 mind began to grow weary with anxious thoughts, when a strange light suddenly attracted our attention, and diverted our thoughts from our own situation. We perceived a low range, fixed on a sledge and drawn by dogs, grass on towards 30 the north, at the distance of half a mile: a being which had the shape of a man, but apparently of gigantic stature, sat in the sledge, and guided the dogs. We watched the rapid progress of the traveller with our telescopes, until he was lost among the 35 distant inequalities of the ice.

This appearance excited our unqualified wonder. We were, as we believed, many hundred miles from any land; but this 40 appearance seemed to denote that it was not, in reality, so distant as we had supposed. That, however, by ice, it was impossible to follow his track, which we had observed with the greatest attention.

About two hours after this occurrence, we found the ground 45 sea; and the night the ice broke, and freed our ship. We, however, lay to until the morning, fearing to encounter in the dark those large loose masses which float about after the breaking up of the ice. I profited of this time to rest for a few 50 hours. In the morning, however, as soon as it was light, I went upon the deck, and found all the sailors busy on one side of the vessel, apparently talking to some one in the sea. It was, in fact, a sledge, like that we had seen before, which is adrift and 55 towards us in the night, no large fragment of ice. Only one dog remained alive; but there was a human being within it, whom the sailors were persuading to enter the vessel. He was not, as the other traveller seemed to be, a savage inhabitant of some undiscovered island, but an European. When I appeared on 60 deck, the master said, "Here is our captain, and he will not allow you to perish on the open sea."

On perceiving me, the stranger addressed me in English, although with a foreign accent. "Before I come on-board your vessel," said he, "tell me how the business of the world goes whether you are bound?"
