This Is Why We Can't Have Nice Things Whitney Phillips,2015-03-20 Why the internet troll problem is actually a culture problem how online trolling fits comfortably within today s media landscape Internet trolls live to upset as many people as possible using all the technical and psychological tools at their disposal They gleefully whip the media into a frenzy over a fake teen drug crisis they post offensive messages on Facebook memorial pages traumatizing grief stricken friends and family they use unabashedly racist language and images They take pleasure in ruining a complete stranger s day and find amusement in their victim s anguish In short trolling is the obstacle to a kinder gentler Internet To quote a famous Internet meme trolling is why we can t have nice things online Or at least that s what we have been led to believe In this provocative book Whitney Phillips argues that trolling widely condemned as obscene and deviant actually fits comfortably within the contemporary media landscape Trolling may be obscene but Phillips argues it isn t all that deviant Trolls actions are born of and fueled by culturally sanctioned impulses which are just as damaging as the trolls most disruptive behaviors Phillips describes the relationship between trolling and sensationalist corporate media pointing out that for trolls exploitation is a leisure activity for media it s a business strategy She shows how trolls the grimacing poster children for a socially networked world align with social media And she documents how trolls in addition to parroting media tropes also offer a grotesque pantomime of dominant cultural tropes including gendered notions of dominance and success and an ideology of entitlement We don t just have a trolling problem Phillips argues we have a culture problem This Is Why We Can t Have Nice Things isn t only about trolls it s about a culture in which trolls thrive 20 Totally Awesome & Totally Easy Language Arts Bulletin Boards Michael Gravois,2003 Boost language arts skills with this collection of decorativeand educationalclassroom displays These bulletin boards feature mostly student creations saving teachers time and giving kids a sense of pride in the classroom Students assemble Eye Spy Collages to help understand the difference between proper and common nouns create Ornament Books that focus on story elements make Pop Up Posters to show story settings and much much more For use with Grades 4 8
