

nocum etiam omnia tuas, si minus, quam plurimos; purga urbem. Magna res meta libertasque, modo inter me atque te murus interit. Nobiscum versari iam distius non potes; non feram, non patiar, non sinam.

V. As, then, this is the case, Catiline, continue as you have begun. Leave the city at least; the gates are open; depart. That Maelian camp of yours has been waiting too long for you as its general. And lead forth with you all your friends, or at least as many as you can; purge the city of your presence; you will deliver me from a great fear, when there is a wall between you and me. Among us you can dwell no longer—I will not bear it, I will not permit it, I will not tolerate it.

III. 3 Short Answers (from Time Line)

The orations from Our Cicero Timeline should be addressed this way:
For each of the orations provide a:

1. Date, i.e. when it was delivered
2. Purpose, i.e. why it was delivered
3. Context, i.e. under which circumstances was it delivered, what was the political climate, the point in Cicero's life.

Try to address Cicero both as a lawyer and as a person.

IV. 4 "De Cicero" Reflections

1. Give three situations (from the orations on the time line), one in his youth, one in his middle career, and one near the end of his life, in which Cicero acted on his principles even though this put him in great danger.
2. Give a character sketch of Quintus Cicero.
3. Perhaps the two greatest enemies of Cicero were Clodius Pulcher and Marcus Antony. How did his speeches impel each of these men to try to destroy him? What did they do to him?
4. Discuss Augustus' evaluation of Cicero: "An eloquent man, my boy, and a lover of his country." In what ways is it a just evaluation?
