Critical Thinking for Marketers, Volume I David Dwight, Terry Grapentine, David Soorholtz, 2016-12-02 All marketing actions whether preceded by formal or informal decision making processes are based on what philosophers call arguments An argument is a set of related statements comprising premises and a conclusion Ideally premises give an audience good reasons for accepting your argument s conclusion In marketing these conclusions are normative decisions about what an organization should do for example raise prices by five percent add a new sales territory or perhaps change the marketing communications mix to invest more in digital and less in print The premises are the rationale behind why the organization should take such actions Critical Thinking for Marketers Learn How to Think Not What to Think provides information and guidelines on not only how to develop good arguments but also what it means to develop a good argument For example the book describes two basic kinds of arguments deductive and inductive and how to examine whether such arguments are good or not To do this the book explains 60 logical fallacies or errors in reasoning that marketers should avoid Additionally the authors several Think Better discussions examine how fields such as philosophy behavioral economics and marketing theory

Marketing Effectiveness Sorin Patilinet, 2025-08-03 In recent years with tightening budgets an explosion of data points and advancements in analytical methods marketers are now more than ever expected to deliver quantifiable results This is where marketing effectiveness comes in Contrary to popular belief marketing effectiveness is not just about the measuring of ROI The lens of effectiveness must be applied to all marketing mix elements from strategy to pricing and product to media and advertising It's a strategic shift that demands robust evidence based decisions and consistent application in order to grow Written by leading marketing practitioner Sorin Patilinet this book enables mid senior level marketers to integrate the scientific methods and advanced measurements required for true marketing effectiveness into their marketing strategies in order to reap the benefits of strong customer understanding and developing decision making processes for growth. Covering everything from neuroscience and its application to marketing to advanced analytics and machine learning models, this book provides a comprehensive practical guide for marketers. It also takes a look into the future of how AI will impact the use of marketing effectiveness and features real world examples from Snickers, Warby Parker and Uber Eats. Eat Your Greens Wiemer Snijders, 2018-09-27. How can we sell more to more people and for more money? The marketing world is awash with myths, misconceptions, dubious metrics and tactics that bear little relation to our actual buying behaviour. Marketing Myths [redacted] [redacted] [redacted], 2025-06-16. SNS 2025 300 SNS. China in Australasia James Beattie, Richard Bullen, Maria Galikowski, 2019-04-18. Drawing on expertise in art history, exhibition studies and cultural studies as well as politics and international relations, China in Australasia presents significant new perspectives on the role of art in the cultural diplomacy of the People's Republic of China. The book tells the forgotten story of the loan exchange and gifting of Chinese art museum exhibitions and the use of Chinese arts more broadly in growing diplomatic relations with Australia and New Zealand from 1949 to the present day. Its scope includes pre-modern, modern and contemporary sculpture, painting and peasant art as well as ancient artefacts, performance arts and gardens. In considering the geopolitical connections opened by the arts, this book presents new insights into some of the ways in which China, often in conjunction with local supporters, sought to present itself to the people of Australia and New Zealand. It also considers how, for their part, New Zealanders and Australians worked to expand understandings of their powerful northern neighbour within changing political contexts. The first of its kind, this book length interdisciplinary study of Chinese soft diplomacy in Australasia will be invaluable to students and scholars of Chinese studies, cultural diplomacy, museum studies and art history. Run with Foxes Paul Dervan, 2020-04-07. Paul Dervan has spent 20 years in marketing, working for high profile brands, creating new ones and helping to rescue those that have got in trouble. He was also given the unique opportunity to build a marketing lab where he undertook hundreds of experiments to see what really worked and what didn't. He's been up close with some of the world's finest marketers and seen both successes and failures, sometimes on a colossal scale. Run With Foxes is a blistering must-read collection of real-life stories from this fascinating world, revealing the messy reality of decision making in marketing and the secrets of making better decisions. The fact is, most marketing lessons that get shared come from successful campaigns; marketers are too afraid to be honest about mistakes. But everyone makes mistakes in marketing, and there are hugely valuable and unique lessons to be learned from taking a closer look at failures, big and small. Breaking open marketing triumphs and disasters with brutal honesty, as well as sharing exclusive first-hand interviews with some of the world's most respected marketers, this is the ultimate insider's guide to being a better marketer.
