Dear Aunt Rita,

Greeting:
A way to begin the letter

I had a wonderful time visiting you this summer. Swimming in your pool was a lot of fun. I liked your slide and playing Marco Polo with my cousins.

Thank you for taking me to the museum too. That was so thoughtful. I learned so much about the Revolutionary War. I wonder if I would be a Patriot or Loyalist?

Body:
Personal message

I will never forget my visit with you. I hope to come back next summer! Will you be able to come see us soon? I miss you!

Closing:
A way to end the letter.

Love,

Signature:
The Writer signs his/her name

Joanie

educators to prioritize literacy learning and work together more productively to achieve better literacy outcomes for all students The innovative framework includes five major elements 1 a set of clearly defined literacy attributes concise expectations for what students should know do understand and experience in the language arts 2 instructional contributions that best support students including struggling learners in acquiring the attributes 3 appropriate assessments for tracking students progress 4 reporting practices that clearly explain the progress achieved and 5 rigorous analysis of data to inform instruction The model embraces a broad conception of literacy and includes expectations for reading writing listening and speaking as well as viewing and representing making it especially suitable for learning in the digital era

Religion in the Public Schools Michael D. Waggoner, 2013-04-10 Since September 11 2001 the profile of religion's role in our global society has increased significantly Religion has long been a force in people's lives as numerous studies and polls show yet we continue to struggle with understanding differing religious traditions and what they mean for our common life There are few places where Americans can meet together to learn about each other and to share in the common construction of our futures One such place for many is public education The purpose of this book is to illustrate the complexity of the social cultural and legal milieu of schooling in the United States in which the improvement of religious literacy and understanding must take place Public education is the new commons We must negotiate this commons in two meanings of that term first we must come to mutual understandings and agreement about how to proceed toward a common horizon of a religiously plural America second we must work our way through the obstacles in these settings in practical ways to achieve results that work
