the Rough Guide to Europe on a Budget About Rough Guides Rough Guides have been inspiring travellers for over 35 years with over 30 million copies sold Synonymous with practical travel tips quality writing and a trustworthy tell it like it is ethos the Rough Guides list includes more than 260 travel guides to 120 destinations gift books and phrasebooks Party Reform Anika Gauja, 2016-11-24 Party Reform is a new comparative study of the politics of party organization The book provides a novel perspective in party scholarship and develops the concept of reform as distinct from evolutionary and incremental processes of party change As an outcome reform is captured in deliberate and often very public changes to parties organizational rules and processes As a process it offers a party the opportunity to re brand and publicly alter its image to emphasize certain strategic priorities over others and to alter relationships of power within the party Analyzing the last ten years of party reform across a handful of established democracies including Australia the United Kingdom Canada and Germany the book examines what motivates political parties to undertake organizational reforms and how they go about this process Party Reform reveals how parties perceptions of the social trends in which they operate shape reform agendas and how this relates to competitive demands and pressures from within the party for organizational change In addition to the motivations for reform the book is equally concerned with the process of reform The book demonstrates that declining party memberships have had a fundamental effect on the way in which political parties sell organizational reform as part of a broader rhetoric of democratization of re engagement and of modernization delivered to diverse audiences both internal and external to the party The chapters focus particularly on four key reform initiatives that begin to blur the traditional boundaries of party the introduction of primaries the changing meaning of party membership issues based online policy development and community organizing campaigns Using these cutting edge developments as primary examples this book provides a framework for understanding why and how reforms occur and what the consequences might be in terms of how we think about modern political parties as vehicles for participation and representation Comparative Politics is a series for researchers teachers and students of political science that deals with contemporary government and politics Global in scope books in the series are characterised by a stress on comparative analysis and strong methodological rigour The series is published in association with the European Consortium for Political Research For more information visit www.ecpr.net eu The series is edited by Emilie van Haute Professor of Political Science Universit libre de Bruxelles Ferdinand M ller Rommel Director of the Center for the Study of Democracy Leuphana University and Susan Scarrow Chair of the Department of Political Science University of Houston Ha-Tov v'ha-Meitiv: Contemporary Scholarship in Jewish Studies Simcha Fishbane, Eric M. Levine, Yosef Dov Robinson, 2024-06-11 This book presents a group of distinguished scholars who examine key themes in Jewish religious life Their essays revolve around the dimensions of rabbinic intellectual cultural communal educational political and social leadership as well as a reflective look at one of the most tragic events in Jewish experience towards the hope of repairing the world and not repeating such evil The scholarship reproduced in this volume captures the essence of Touro University remembering the past perpetuating the rich historic Jewish tradition of tolerance and dignity and managing the delicate ballet of serving humanity and the Jewish community at the same time These papers are expressive of the Jewish commitment to intellectual inquiry the transmission of knowledge and the pursuit of social justice The Routledge Companion to African American Art History Eddie Chambers,2019-11-12 This Companion authoritatively points to the main areas of enquiry within the subject of African American art history The first section examines how African American art has been constructed over the course of a century of published scholarship The second section studies how African American art is and has been taught and researched in academia The third part focuses on how African American art has been reflected in art galleries and museums The final section opens up understandings of what we mean when we speak of African American art This book will be of interest to graduate students researchers and professors and may be used in American art African American art visual culture and culture classes Spaces that Tell Stories Donna R.

Braden,2019-07-12 Historical environments delight visitors because of their ability to make them feel transported to another time and place These environments found in both museum exhibitions and historic structures are usually rich with objects that hint at deeper stories and context But these spaces often lack rigor in terms of historical and interpretive methodology along with a thoughtful and purposeful integration of storytelling principles Spaces That Tell Stories Creating Historical Environments offers a fresh look at historical environments providing a roadmap for applying this rigor and integrating these principles into the creation of such environments It begins by delving into the power of these environments for museum visitors drawing upon multiple cross disciplinary fields An in depth how to methodology follows which begins with the steps of framing the project by aligning it with institutional goals defining audiences involving visitor studies and inviting community engagement It continues through the steps of researching creating interpreting refining and evaluating the impact of the environment The author s methodology is applicable to environments in both historic structures and museum exhibits from different eras places and topics It is also scalable to museums varying sizes and budgets To give a sense of how the methodology laid out in this book translates into real world practice detailed case studies appear throughout along with practical tips checklists charts descriptive photographs and source lists An extensive bibliography follows Spaces That Tell Stories Creating Historical Environments is a unique contribution to the museum field It is a must read for museum professionals installing or upgrading historic environments while the methodology and case studies also offer practical strategies for other museum professionals working with collections exhibitions and interpretation and how these are integrated thoughtful insights into museum practice for students and a helpful toolkit for local historians Modern Military Strategy Elinor C. Sloan,2016-10-11 This textbook provides a comprehensive introduction to post Cold War military theory for students of strategic studies This second edition has been fully revised and updated including a new chapter on peacekeeping and examines contemporary strategic thought on the conduct of war in the sea land air nuclear space and cyber domains as well as irregular warfare Each chapter identifies contemporary strategic thinkers in a particular area examines strategic thought through the lens of identifiable themes and discusses the ideas of classical strategists to provide historical context Examples of the link between the use of military force and the pursuit of political objectives are presented such as airpower against ISIS and in Libya counterinsurgency in Afghanistan and Iraq counter piracy operations off the coast of Africa and the Stuxnet virus in Iran The chapters identify trends statements and principles that indicate how military power can best be employed to effect political ends while the conclusion paints an overall picture of the relationship between classic and contemporary strategic thinking within each warfare domain This book will be essential reading for students of strategic studies war studies and military history and is highly recommended for students of security studies and international relations in general

Answers... to the Difficult Questions Dennis Waite, 2020-03-27 All spiritual seekers encounter problems A question arises which appears to challenge the veracity of their chosen path If an answer is not found quickly there is a great danger that the particular teaching will be abandoned and another sought Dennis Waite draws on traditional Advaita teachings to answer all seeker related questions He first invited questions to his website in 2005 and this book collects questions and answers in a comprehensive volume for experienced and new spiritual seekers One answer often leads to a new worry and his website adavaita vision org continues to accept questions No question is too difficult for Advaita Vedanta and all answers are reasonable

Immigration and Exile Foreign-Language Press in the UK and in the US Stéphanie Prévost, Bénédicte Deschamps, 2023-12-14 Both Britain and the United States have had a long history of harbouring foreign political exiles who often set up periodicals which significantly contributed to community building and political debates However this varied and complex journalism has received little attention to date particularly regarding the languages in which it was produced This wide ranging edited volume brings together for the first time interdisciplinary case studies of the exile foreign language press in French German Italian Spanish Russian Flemish Polish among other languages across Britain and the US establishing a useful comparative framework to explore how periodicals tackled key political linguistic and literary issues from the 19th century to the present day Building on the existing literature on the exile foreign language press in the United States and developing the study of this phenomenon in the British context Immigration and Exile Foreign Language Press in the UK and in the US offers fresh perspectives into how these marginalised periodicals influenced the political economic and social contexts that brought them into existence This is a major contribution to the burgeoning field of transnational periodicals and will be of interest to anyone studying the history of the Anglo American press the history of immigration and cultural history

Reflexivity and Criminal Justice Sarah Armstrong, Jarrett Blaustein, Alistair Henry, 2016-11-23 This collection presents a diverse set of case studies and theoretical reflections on how criminologists engage with practitioners and policy makers while undertaking research The contributions to this volume highlight both the challenges and opportunities associated with doing criminological research in a reflexive and collaborative manner They further examine the ethical and practical implications of the impact agenda in the higher education sector with respect to the production and the dissemination of criminological knowledge Developed to serve as an internationally accessible reference volume for scholars practitioners and postgraduate criminology students this book responds to the awareness that criminology as a discipline increasingly encompasses not only the study of crime but also the agencies process and structures that regulate it Key questions include How can criminal justice policy be studied as part of the field of criminology How do we account for our own roles as researchers who are a part of the policy process What factors and dynamics influence hinder and facilitate good policy

Innovation in Public Planning Aksel Hagen, Ulla Higdén, 2020-07-10 This book contributes to the discourse on planning theory by accentuating the perspective of public innovation Extending planning theory's traditional two major perspectives Communicate and Calculate the book argues that contemporary planning theory should incorporate Innovate as a third perspective It highlights the multitude of new perspectives that innovative planning can bring to bear on planning theory as well as showing how the interplay between the three perspectives Communicate Calculate and Innovate can help to address vital issues in contemporary societal development

The Forgotten Church Glenn Daman, 2018-05-01 Winner of Christianity Today's Award of Merit for The Church Pastoral Leadership 2018 Whether it's because of the 2016 Presidential election or books like Hillbilly Elegy Americans are beginning to understand the tremendous influence people in rural areas have in our nation But rural America not urban America is also the new center of poverty Thus the rural church stands at the crossroads of strength and struggle It carries the gospel the very hope and power needed Yet its ministry efforts are hamstrung because urban and suburban churches often don't realize their need for rural churches and the rural church itself rarely understands its unique assets and values The Forgotten Church addresses these problems and provides an overview of rural ministry explores opportunities recent trends provide showcases the remarkable benefits of suburban urban and rural churches working together This book is essential for any pastor whether from the city or the sticks because we are one body and we need each other Complex Political Decision-Making Peter Bursens, Christ'l De Landtsheer, Luc Braeckmans, Barbara Segaert, 2016-11-18 Political and societal elites are increasingly confronted with complex environments in which they need to take collective decisions Decision makers are faced with policy issues situated at different intertwined levels which need to be negotiated with different actors The negotiation and decision making processes raise issues of legitimacy leadership and communication Modern societal systems are not only affected by horizontal specialization and diversity but also by a vertical expansion of governance layers The national level is no longer the sole or even the most important level of governance In these complex environments cognitive abilities and personalities of political and societal elites have gained importance This book addresses the impact of an increasingly complex environment on the legitimacy and transparency of politics on the role of leadership and political personality and on motivated images rhetoric and communication Examining how these issues interact at the macro and theoretical level the types of problems decision makers face and how they communicate ideas with their audiences it brings together leading experts in political psychology law and political science to bridge the gap in the way these disciplines explore the issue of complex decision making Economic Crisis, Development and Competitiveness in Southeastern Europe Anastasios Karasavvoglou, Dimitrios Kyrkilis, Georgios Makris, Persefoni Polychronidou, 2016-09-08 This book analyzes the foundations and means of overcoming the current crisis in the broader area of Southeast Europe The contributions make proposals from both theoretical and empirical points of view and discuss the concept determinants and policies of competitiveness in these countries The financial crisis became a prolonged fiscal crisis a bank confidence crisis and economic recession and the book discusses the European and national policies implemented to resolve it It also investigates the internal conflicts generated by institutional arrangements and policy measures both within the nation states and the eurozone Economic competitiveness is a key topic for policymakers as they have to secure economic growth and improve their populations standards of living This volume sheds light on what constitutes economic competitiveness as well as on the policies and economic and institutional structures that improve competitiveness

Best Summit Hikes Denver to Vail James Dziezynski, 2016-07-05 From little known beauties like Coon Hill and Silver Plume Mountain to classic climbs like Peak 1 and Torreys Peak Best Summit Hikes Denver to Vail provides detailed accurate information on more than 60 summits that are within a 1.5 hour drive from the Denver Boulder metro area. Local author James Dziezynski guides readers to rarely documented peaks and along wonderful adventures that are easy to access yet provide a true wilderness setting in a matter of minutes. This is a great resource for those who don't have the time to drive far away for other popular mountains and may want to learn more about the fantastic peaks that are closer than they think. Other Colorado guidebooks focus on specific ranges or peaks grouped by elevation but Best Summit Hikes Denver to Vail focuses on the most heavily traveled part of Colorado and is as useful for tourists as it is for locals. The wealth of great adventures close to home is a bit of a secret even for veteran outdoors explorers.

Here and Everywhere Else Andrew Witmer, 2023-06-29 Winner of an Award of Excellence American Association for State and Local History AASLH. In 1822 settlers pushed north from Massachusetts and other parts of New England into Monson, Maine. On land taken from the Penobscot people, they established prosperous farms and businesses. Focusing on the microhistory of this village, Andrew Witmer reveals the sometimes surprising ways that this small New England town engaged with the wider world across the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Townspeople fought and died in distant wars, transformed the economy and landscape with quarries and mills, and used railroads, highways, print, and new technologies to forge connections with the rest of the nation. Here and Everywhere Else starts with Monson's incorporation in the early nineteenth century when central Maine was considered the northern frontier and over 90 percent of Americans still lived in rural areas; it ends with present-day attempts to revive this declining Maine town into an artists colony. Engagingly written with colorful portraits of local characters and landmarks, this study illustrates how the residents of this remote place have remade their town by integrating and resisting external influences.

The Lives Around Us Dan Papworth, 2016-06-24 The Lives Around Us is a series of short meditations for individuals or groups. It can serve as a Lent book or at any time of the year. Its purpose is to tap into the present public interest in nature connection and encourage this to be formed in concert with Bible reading and regular daily or weekly prayer. Each chapter begins with descriptive reflection on a specific creature: animal, plant, fungus, mineral, followed by one or two thoughts about what we can do for them practically. There is a Bible reading and then a section that encourages prayer and sometimes a prayerful activity.

Making Site-Specific Theatre and Performance Phil Smith, 2018-09-27 This practical, accessible, and far-reaching guide to making site-specific theatre and performance emphasises the diversity of approaches to the practice and explores key principles of space and site. Phil Smith draws on a wide range of interdisciplinary and international performance examples and uses an innovative variety of exercises to show students and aspiring performance makers how to find a site and generate a performance beyond the theatre building.
