Americans looking to eat lighter and healthier and anyone interested in a handcrafted approach to food Thinking like a Linguist Jordan B. Sandoval, Kristin E. Denham, 2021-07-01 This is an engaging introduction to the study of language for undergraduate or beginning graduate students aimed especially at those who would like to continue further linguistic study. It introduces students to analytical thinking about language but goes beyond existing texts to show what it means to think like a scientist about language through the exploration of data and interactive problem sets. A key feature of this text is its flexibility. With its focus on foundational areas of linguistics and scientific analysis, it can be used in a variety of course types with instructors using it alongside other information or texts as appropriate for their own courses of study. The text can also serve as a supplementary text in other related fields: Speech and Hearing Sciences, Psychology, Education, Computer Science, Anthropology, and others to help learners in these areas better understand how linguists think about and work with language data. No prerequisites are necessary. While each chapter often references content from the others, the three central chapters on sound, structure, and meaning may be used in any order. Not Just Desserts-Sweet Herbal Recipes Susan Belsinger, 2012-05-17 Although this book contains mostly recipes for desserts, it is called Not Just Desserts because the recipes are much more than that. These sweet herbal recipes are simple, homey desserts; some traditional, others innovative. All of them are made delicious because of the addition of herbs. These recipes will inspire you to experiment and add more herbs to your cooking. Think of this as one big sweet herbal adventure. Once you have tasted some of these recipes, you will agree that these are not just desserts. A Fork in the Trail Laurie Ann March, 2011-02 This cookbook A Fork in the Trail will forever change the way you eat on your outdoor adventures, whether backpacking in the wilderness, paddling, or even car camping. Inspired by foods from all over the world and the guiding principle of if you wouldn't eat it at home, why eat it in the backcountry, Laurie Ann March has created 208 lightweight, mouth-watering recipes to turn an ordinary backcountry trip into a gourmet adventure. Some recipes are cooked and dehydrated before the trip, a process that's surprisingly easy. Preparing dishes such as Lemon Wasabi Hummus is as simple as adding boiling water. Other recipes like Tropical Couscous and Chai Tea Pancakes can be prepared in camp in just minutes. Laurie also demystifies backcountry baking, who wouldn't want to end a long day of hiking with comforting Pear Berry Crumble topped with Trail Yogurt. The author, an outdoor chef extraordinaire, has compiled only those recipes that survived ease of preparation and rigorous taste tests by the author and many of her lucky friends. And, of course, all are lightweight. Most recipes are found nowhere else. Garlic Shrimp with Orange and Balsamic Sauce, anyone? You'll also find kid-friendly recipes that they can make themselves. In addition to the recipes, A Fork in the Trail covers menu planning, recipe creation, and meal planning for families and larger groups. The Hot Flash Solution Colette Bouchez, 2009-03-03 Say goodbye to hot flashes and night sweats in as little as 7 days with The Hot Flash Solution, a breakthrough, all-natural system developed by award-winning WebMD journalist and healthy lifestyle author Colette Bouchez.
