gender as construction and performance are embraced In Gender and Second Temple Judaism world renowned scholars take on these challenges with regard to ancient Judaism here including early Christianity and early rabbinic Judaism as well at once examining the ancient evidence and quite consciously addressing difficult methodological questions regarding gender Taken together these chapters further complicate discussions of the construction of identity e g who is a Jew by inflecting them with questions of gender construction as well Scholars of ancient Judaism and of gender alike will find much to grapple with in these pages

Larva Julián Ríos,2004 A striking reassessment of the Don Juan myth A literary tour de force this extraordinary novel is told in single minded pursuit of double meanings but it is serious play Larva is a rollicking account of a masquerade party in an abandoned mansion in London Milalías disguised as Don Juan searches for Babelle as Sleeping Beauty through a linguistic funhouse of puns and wordplay recalling Joyce s Finnegans Wake A mock scholarly commentary reveals the backgrounds of the masked revellers while Ríos allusive language shows that words too wear masks hiding an astonishing range of further meanings and implications Larva revives a Hispanic tradition repressed for centuries by introducing the English tradition of puns palindromes and acrostics a word puzzle in which certain letters in each line form a word or words and establishes Ríos as the most accomplished successor in any language to Joyce
