Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa Boadu, Gideon, Odhiambo, George, Marandi, Pegah, 2023-09-25 Teacher education is a known variable that impacts the quality of teaching and schooling yet while research on practices in teaching and teacher education abound in other contexts there seems to be no comprehensive reference work on teaching and teacher education in Africa. With Africa and the diaspora boasting rich diverse political and educational contexts and practices this gap in knowledge requires that attention be focused on investigating issues that shape the pace, course and direction of teaching and teacher education in these contexts. Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa facilitates scholarly discussions among scholars and practitioners about practices, innovations and future possibilities for educating the next generation of competent students and teachers in Africa. Covering topics such as educational reforms, equity, career progression and curriculum development, this major reference work is ideal for administrators, industry professionals, researchers, academicians, scholars, practitioners, instructors and students.

Journal of Education, 2001-07. Making a Grade James Elwick, 2021-03-18. Making a Grade takes historiographic and sociological perspectives developed to understand large scale scientific and technical systems and uses them to highlight the standardization that went into standardized testing. Examining Speaking Lynda Taylor, 2011-08-25. An up to date review of the relevant literature on assessing speaking. The International Encyclopedia of Education Torsten Husén, T. Neville Postlethwaite, 1994. Styles of Multiculturalism in Mauritius Barbara Waldis, 2019. What does multiculturalism mean in Mauritius? This question was the starting point of an ethnographic study on an island state in the Indian Ocean that had always been part of a global project and always been post colonial. The introduction of citizenship education at school in this Republic with its ethnically, religiously and linguistically diverse population serves as an example for the analysis of how different approaches to multicultural policy making collide. The negotiations on the school subject illustrate the organisation of cultural difference by the state mainly through Indo-Mauritian and Creole nationalism.
