The Schenley Experiment Jake Oresick, 2017-04-14 The Schenley Experiment is the story of Pittsburgh s first public high school a social incubator in a largely segregated city that was highly even improbably successful throughout its 156 year existence Established in 1855 as Central High School and reorganized in 1916 Schenley High School was a model of innovative public education and an ongoing experiment in diversity Its graduates include Andy Warhol actor Bill Nunn and jazz virtuoso Earl Hines and its prestigious academic program and pensions lured such teachers as future Pulitzer Prize winner Willa Cather The subject of investment as well as destructive neglect the school reflects the history of the city of Pittsburgh and provides a study in both the best and worst of urban public education practices there and across the Rust Belt Integrated decades before Brown v Board of Education Schenley succumbed to default segregation during the white flight of the 1970s it rose again to prominence in the late 1980s when parents camped out in six day long lines to enroll their children in visionary superintendent Richard C Wallace s reinvigorated school Although the historic triangular building was a cornerstone of its North Oakland neighborhood and a showpiece for the city of Pittsburgh officials closed the school in 2008 citing over 50 million in necessary renovations a controversial event that captured national attention Schenley alumnus

Jake Oresick tells this story through interviews historical documents and hundreds of first person accounts drawn from a community indelibly tied to the school A memorable important work of local and educational history his book is a case study of desegregation magnet education and the changing nature and legacies of America s oldest public schools Studies in Intelligence ,2016

California Dreaming Lawrence J. McQuillan,2015-05-01 A politically created crisis of epic proportions is brewing in California and elsewhere across the United States For decades public pension officials and politicians of both parties have promised their employees increasingly generous retirement benefits while low balling the contributions from government agencies and employees that are needed to cover these promises presenting our greatest financial challenge since the Great Depression Pushing the pension liability from today and onto our children and grandchildren leaves them with a depleted future and a potentially bankrupt California State and local governments will scramble to find funds forcing them to raise taxes slash public services and or declare bankruptcy Schools parks emergency services and public employee retirement benefits will be at risk Politicians will defer until circumstances force them to reckon with a disaster of their own making The problem For far too long state and local governments have promised their employees increasingly generous retirement benefits but without ensuring that sufficient funds will be on hand when the pension payments come due In California Dreaming Lawrence J McQuillan pulls back the curtains covering this unfunded liability crisis He describes the true extent of the problem explains the critical factors that are driving public pension debt sky high and exposes the perverse incentives of lawmakers and pension officials that reward them for not fixing the problem and letting it escalate Finally he offers the six crucial reforms needed to restore the financial health of California and other threatened jurisdictions If California Dreaming s roadmap for reform is adopted the prospects for achieving a thriving balanced and equitable future are highly favorable in California and any state or municipality facing its own public pension problem If not the many opportunities that once made the Golden State seem like a Promised Land will quickly evaporate

Virtual Fundamental Cycles in Symplectic Topology John W. Morgan,Dusa McDuff,Mohammad Tehrani,Kenji Fukaya,Dominic Joyce,2019-04-12 The method of using the moduli space of pseudo holomorphic curves on a symplectic manifold was introduced by Mikhail Gromov in 1985 From the appearance of Gromov s original paper until today this approach has been the most important tool in global symplectic geometry To produce numerical invariants of these manifolds using this method requires constructing a fundamental cycle associated with moduli spaces This volume brings together three approaches to constructing the virtual fundamental cycle for the moduli space of pseudo holomorphic curves All approaches are based on the idea of local Kuranishi charts for the moduli space Workers in the field will get a comprehensive understanding of the details of these constructions and the assumptions under which they can be made These techniques and results will be essential in further applications of this approach to producing invariants of symplectic manifolds pioneering statistician's relentless twenty year effort to promote the status of women in academe and science Part biography and part microhistory the book provides the context and background to understand Scott's masterfulness at using statistics to help solve societal problems In addition to being one of the first researchers to work at the interface of astronomy and statistics and an early practitioner of statistics using high speed computers Scott worked on an impressively broad range of questions in science from whether cloud seeding actually works to whether ozone depletion causes skin cancer Later in her career Scott became swept up in the academic women's movement She used her well developed scientific research skills together with the advocacy skills she had honed in such activities as raising funds for Martin Luther King Jr and keeping Free Speech Movement students out of jail toward policy making that would improve the condition of the academic workforce for women The book invites the reader into Scott's universe a window of inspiration made possible by the fact that she saved and dated every piece of paper that came across her desk Thinking and Acting Systemically Alan Daly, Kara

Equivalence Amanda L. Golbeck,2017-04-28 Equivalence Elizabeth L Scott at Berkeley is the compelling story of one

Finnigan, 2016-05-19 This volume argues that districts are important as a lever for change given the limited success of school by school efforts Policies that focus on skill development recognize and support performance create opportunities for collaboration build leader capacity and create networks of knowledge sharing hold great potential for improving districts but it will require a paradigm shift in the way we view our public school system and those who work within it away from blame and toward complex systems change Endoscopic Classification of Representations of Quasi-Split Unitary Groups

Chung Pang Mok, 2015-04-09 In this paper the author establishes the endoscopic classification of tempered representations of quasi split unitary groups over local fields and the endoscopic classification of the discrete automorphic spectrum of quasi split unitary groups over global number fields The method is analogous to the work of Arthur on orthogonal and symplectic groups based on the theory of endoscopy and the comparison of trace formulas on unitary groups and general linear groups

Global Regularity for 2D Water Waves with Surface Tension Alexandru D. Ionescu, Fabio Pusateri, 2019-01-08 The authors consider the full irrotational water waves system with surface tension and no gravity in dimension two the capillary waves system and prove global regularity and modified scattering for suitably small and localized perturbations of a flat interface An important point of the authors analysis is to develop a sufficiently robust method the quasilinear I method which allows the authors to deal with strong singularities arising from time resonances in the applications of the normal form method the so called division problem As a result they are able to consider a suitable class of perturbations with finite energy but no other momentum conditions Part of the authors analysis relies on a new treatment of the Dirichlet Neumann operator in dimension two which is of independent interest As a consequence the results in this paper are self contained

Mathematical Reasoning: The History and Impact of the DReaM Group Gregory Michaelson, 2021-11-20 This collection of essays examines the key achievements and likely developments in the area of automated reasoning In keeping with the group ethos Automated Reasoning is interpreted liberally spanning underpinning theory tools for reasoning

argumentation explanation computational creativity and pedagogy Wider applications including secure and trustworthy software and health care and emergency management The book starts with a technically oriented history of the Edinburgh Automated Reasoning Group written by Alan Bundy which is followed by chapters from leading researchers associated with the group Mathematical Reasoning The History and Impact of the DReaM Group will attract considerable interest from researchers and practitioners of Automated Reasoning including postgraduates It should also be of interest to those researching the history of AI

Applications of Polyfold Theory I: The Polyfolds of Gromov-Witten Theory H. Hofer, K. Wysocki, E. Zehnder, 2017-07-13 In this paper the authors start with the construction of the symplectic field theory SFT As a general theory of symplectic invariants SFT has been outlined in Introduction to symplectic field theory 2000 by Y Eliashberg A Givental and H Hofer who have predicted its formal properties The actual construction of SFT is a hard analytical problem which will be overcome by means of the polyfold theory due to the present authors The current paper addresses a significant amount of the arising issues and the general theory will be completed in part II of this paper To illustrate the polyfold theory the authors use the results of the present paper to describe an alternative construction of the Gromov Witten invariants for general compact symplectic manifolds

The Quasispecies Equation and Classical Population Models Raphaël Cerf, Joseba Dalmau, 2022-07-30 This monograph studies a series of mathematical models of the evolution of a population under mutation and selection Its starting point is the quasispecies equation a general non linear equation which describes the mutation selection equilibrium in Manfred Eigen's famous quasispecies model A detailed analysis of this equation is given under the assumptions of finite genotype space sharp peak landscape and class dependent fitness landscapes Different probabilistic representation formulae are derived for its solution involving classical combinatorial quantities like Stirling and Euler numbers It is shown how quasispecies and error threshold phenomena emerge in finite population models and full mathematical proofs are provided in the case of the Wright Fisher model Along the way exact formulas are obtained for the quasispecies distribution in the long chain regime on the sharp peak landscape and on class dependent fitness landscapes Finally several other classical population models are analyzed with a focus on their dynamical behavior and their links to the quasispecies equation This book will be of interest to mathematicians and theoretical ecologists biologists working with finite population models
