Memorandum Grade 1 geography November 2014:

South African national bibliography, 1999 Classified list with author and title index The English Professor Margaret R. O'Leary/Dennis S. O'Leary, 2016-02-04 Across the span of more than forty years Raphael Dorman O'Leary a professor of English rhetoric and English literature taught his students at the University of Kansas to think straight to put sinew into their sentences and to embrace the magnificent literary treasures of their mother tongue The English Professor by authors Margaret R O'Leary and Dennis S O'Leary offers a narrative of the life work and times of a revered Midwestern university English teacher This memoir narrates how the professor born in 1866 was raised on a Kansas farm in the post bellum era Like his father before him he was committed to a life of learning and teaching His colleagues knew him for his unpretentious exterior honesty and integrity and his flashing anger at cheapness vulgarity pretense and above all charlatanism When Professor O'Leary died after a short illness in 1936 his personal effects passed through two generations to his grandson Dennis S O'Leary who with his wife Margaret discovered his papers while restoring a family house The trove of material served as the core resource for the compilation of The English Professor It provides insights into the histories of Kansas and the University of Kansas and of Harvard University as well as perspectives on higher education including the teaching of English rhetoric language literature journalism and oratory in the United States Child Development at the Intersection of Race and SES, 2019-07-10 Child Development at the intersection of Race and SES Volume 57 in the Advances in Child Development and Behavior series presents theoretical and empirical scholarship illuminating how race ethnicity and socioeconomic status intersect to shape children's development and developmental contexts Important chapters in this new release include the Implications of Intersecting Socioeconomic and Racial Identities for Academic Achievement and Well being The home environment of low income Latino children Challenges and opportunities Profiles of race ethnicity and socioeconomic status Implications for ethnic racial identity discrimination and sleep Youths sociopolitical perceptions and mental health Intersections between race class and gender and much more Rather than focusing on the additive effects of race ethnicity and SES which is typical and a limitation in the developmental literature the scholarship in this book considers how the factors and processes shaping the development of children of color can differ markedly across the socioeconomic continuum This collection illustrates how applying an intersectional lens to developmental science can yield unique insights into the challenges confronting and assets buoying both minority and majority children's healthy development Includes contributions from renowned developmental scholars working at the forefront of their fields Presents a multidisciplinary focus that will be useful to developmental psychologists sociologists family scientists and those whose interests and work fall under the purview of those disciplines Examines multiple dimensions and factors shaping childhood development A World More Concrete N. D. B. Connolly, 2014-08-25 Connolly argues that Americans immigrants and even indigenous people between the 1890s and the 1960s made tremendous investments in racial apartheid largely in an effort to govern growing cities and to unleash the value of land as real estate Through a focus on South Florida the book illustrates how entrepreneurs used land and debates over property rights to negotiate the workings of Jim Crow segregation General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1955 British Museum. Dept. of Printed Books,1967 Notable Americans American Biographical Institute,1981
