Bangladesh Ali Riaz, 2016-06-08 Bangladesh is a country of paradoxes The eighth most populous country of the world it has attracted considerable attention from the international media and western policy makers in recent years often for the wrong reasons corruption natural disasters caused by its precarious geographical location and volatile political situations with several military coups following its independence from Pakistan in 1971 Institutional corruption growing religious intolerance and Islamist militancy have reflected the weakness of the state and undermined its capacity Yet the country has demonstrated significant economic potential and has achieved successes in areas such as female education population control and reductions in child mortality Ali Riaz here examines the political processes which engendered these paradoxical tendencies taking into account the problems of democratization and the effects this has had and will continue to have in the wider South Asian region This comprehensive and unique overview of political and historical developments in Bangladesh since 1971 will provide essential reading for observers of Bangladesh and South Asia

Working-Class Utopias Robert M. Fogelson, 2022-10-18 One of the nation's foremost urban historians traces the history of cooperative housing in New York City from the 1920s through the 1970s As World War II ended and Americans turned their attention to problems at home union leaders and other prominent New Yorkers came to believe that cooperative housing would solve the city's century old problem of providing decent housing at a reasonable cost for working class families Working Class Utopias tells the story of this ambitious movement from the construction of the Amalgamated Houses after World War I to the building of Co op City the world's largest housing cooperative four decades later Robert Fogelson brings to life a tumultuous era in the life of New York drawing on a wealth of archival materials such as community newspapers legal records and personal and institutional papers In the early 1950s a consortium of labor unions founded the United Housing Foundation under the visionary leadership of Abraham E Kazan who was supported by Nelson A Rockefeller Robert F Wagner Jr and Robert Moses With the help of the state which provided below market rate mortgages and the city which granted tax abatements Kazan's group built large scale cooperatives in every borough except Staten Island Then came Co op City built in the Bronx in the 1960s as a model for other cities but plagued by unforeseen fiscal problems culminating in the longest and costliest rent strike in American history Co op City survived but the United Housing Foundation did not and neither did the cooperative housing movement Working Class Utopias is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the housing problem that continues to plague New York and cities across the nation American Military Life in the 21st Century Eugenia L. Weiss, Carl Andrew Castro, 2018-11-16 A comprehensive guide to the lives and experiences of military service members veterans and their families in the United States today with special emphasis given to those of the post 9 11 era This reference work provides detailed information on the issues U S service members face both stateside and during deployments overseas Issues covered include relations with family substance use housing educational and job training opportunities post traumatic stress disorder and other health issues and experiences of women sexual minorities and ethnic racial minorities in the armed services This set also examines major issues related to military service for people close to the men and women who serve our country such as spouses or partners children and parents grappling with such issues as single parenthood during deployment and bereavement at the loss of a loved one Finally this set is a valuable resource for people seeking a greater understanding of the issues that confront some military service members and veterans from chronic health problems to economic vulnerability to suicide to incarceration The two volumes are written in a comprehensive yet succinct and accessible style by experts familiar with the latest trends and findings Citizenship in Africa Bronwen Manby, 2018-11-29 Citizenship in Africa provides a comprehensive exploration of nationality laws in Africa placing them in their theoretical and historical context It offers the first serious attempt to analyse the impact of nationality law on politics and society in different African states from a trans continental comparative perspective Taking a four part approach Parts I and II set the book within the framework of existing scholarship on citizenship from both sociological and legal perspectives and examine the history of nationality laws in Africa from the colonial period to the present day Part III considers case studies which illustrate the application and misapplication of the law in practice and the relationship of legal and political developments in each country Finally Part IV explores the impact of the law on politics and its relevance for questions of identity and belonging today concluding with a set of issues for further research Ambitious in scope and compelling in analysis this is an important new work on citizenship in Africa Corporate Social Responsibility in Developing Countries Steven Kayambazinthu Msosa, Shame Mugova, Courage Mlambo, 2023-06-20 This book examines corporate social responsibility theories and models in the context of developing countries The developing countries are amongst the poorest countries of the world despite vast natural resources The natural resources are mismanaged proceeds are misappropriated corruption and conflict are centered on resource control Governments and Multinational Corporations MNCs are at the centre of the controversy of corporate social responsibility CSR in the affected countries Moreover the lack of systems procedures and legislation to enforce CSR has led to environmental degradation and a decline in business ethics and morality This book analyses Corporate Social Responsibility in developing countries with specific reference to the extractive industry by integrating academic and industrial perspectives It will be of interest to researchers in the field of CSR as well as for
