Part 1 – Business study

When opening a business, entrepreneurs must do everything right. Otherwise, the business may experience difficulties and even close down. Students will read a well-researched newspaper. They must identify at least the following 10/10 of the eight business functions: General Management, Marketing, Production, Finance, Administration and Personnel, Research and Development, Human Resources.

| Business                 | Marketing | Production | Finance |
|--------------------------|-----------|------------|---------|
| General Management       |           |            |         |
| Marketing                |           |            |         |
| Production               |           |            |         |
| Finance                  |           |            |         |
| Administration           |           |            |         |
| Research and Development |           |            |         |
| Human Resources          |           |            |         |
