

Chapter 1 - Idioms -

Definition: An idiom is a phrase or expression that typically presents a figurative, non-literal meaning attached to the phrase but some phrases become figurative idioms while retaining the literal meaning of the phrase. Categorized as formulaic language, an idiom's figurative meaning is different from the literal meaning.

Below is a list of idioms from Chapter One - using context clues, what do you think the idiom means?

1. "... Soda, who is sixteen-going-on-seventeen, never cracks a book at all" (page 11) -
2. "We're almost as close as brothers; when you grow up in a tight-knit neighborhood like ours you get to know each other real well." (page 22) -
3. "... wondering if I could get away if I made a break for it." (page 52)-
4. "Soda never touches a drop - He doesn't need to. He gets drunk on just plain living." (page 68)
5. "I wouldn't see the misdirection of the bunch." (page 80) -
6. "... and he couldn't stop making funny remarks to save his life." (page 80)-
7. "He just want for kicks." (page 100) -
8. "In here, look. Gally blow off steam in gang fights, but here organized gangs are a rarity." (page 108) -
9. "And you can't win against them, no matter how hard you try, they're out all the breaks." (page 100) -
10. "His mother ignored him, except when she was hacked off about something." (page 111) -

The Stark Carpathians Anthony J. Amato, 2024-01-29 The Stark Carpathians Ritual Text and Authority Among Ukraine's Hutsuls addresses rituals and texts in a small mountainous area located in today's Ukraine The residents of this remote region are known as the Hutsuls This book argues that Hutsul rituals and texts cast as ancient and extraordinary had more mundane roots They formed out of contact between the region's residents and lowland institutions and they became foundations for everyday life Words and symbolic action had an inherent tension that stemmed from contests over authority The nature of these contests was such that distant officials willful locals and diverse sources of information were often as important as collective traditions in shaping rituals and texts Prolific producers of texts Hutsuls carried on discussions that included diverse topics such as agriculture astrology mass gymnastics divine punishment and witches and vampires This volume covers these and other discussions in their small and exact particulars and it investigates texts and rituals in their fullness and irreducible complexity By crossing traditional lines of inquiry and following the region's winding trails to their divergent ends this book offers insight into a larger Hutsul world Ultimately the study of Hutsul creations informs the study of rituals and texts in many elsewheres far from the Carpathian Mountains

Stigma Gerhard Falk, 2010-04-06 What is it in human nature that leads us to label some as insiders and stigmatize others as outsiders Sociologist Gerhard Falk examines the social psychology that motivates this process of exclusion focusing on the outcasts in contemporary American society and comparing current experience with examples from the past Referring to the work of Emile Durkheim and Erving Goffman Falk reviews the whole range of stigmatized people from the mentally ill to ordinary people with unpopular occupations like undertakers and trash collectors Amid the wide diversity of stigmatized persons he finds two basic types of outsiders the existential and the achieved The first group comprises those who are stigmatized because of their very existence regardless of their specific actions the mentally handicapped for example The second group describes those whose actions or life conditions have resulted in stigma from high achievers often subject to resentment to criminals Falk also looks at the ways in which writers past and present have dramatized stigmatized characters in literature This fascinating overview of a long standing and widespread social problem will be of interest to all those concerned about creating a more fair minded society

Racial Situations John Hartigan Jr.,2020-10-06 Racial Situations challenges perspectives on race that rely upon oft repeated claims that race is culturally constructed and hence simply false and distorting John Hartigan asserts instead that we need to explain how race is experienced by people as a daily reality His starting point is the lives of white people in Detroit As a distinct minority whites in this city can rarely assume they are racially unmarked and normative privileges generally associated with whiteness Hartigan conveys their attempts to make sense of how race matters in their lives and in Detroit generally Rather than compiling a generic sampling of white views Hartigan develops an ethnographic account of whites in three distinct neighborhoods an inner city underclass area an adjacent debatably gentrifying community and a working class neighborhood bordering one of the city s wealthy suburbs In tracking how racial tensions develop or become defused in each of these sites Hartigan argues that whites do not articulate their racial identity strictly in relation to a symbolic figure of black Otherness He demonstrates instead that intraracial class distinctions are critical in whites determinations of when and how race matters In each community the author charts a series of names hillbilly gentrifier and racist which whites use to make distinctions among themselves He shows how these terms function in everyday discourses that reflect the racial consciousness of the communities and establish boundaries of status and privilege among whites in these areas     Paul as a Prototype and Entrepreneur of Christian Identity Vuyani Stanley Sindo,2024-10-31 In this important addition to Pauline scholarship on 1 Corinthians Dr Vuyani Stanley Sindo brings fresh insight to how Paul s use of the in Christ terminology supports his argument on leadership and community Integrating social identity theory with a socio historical approach Dr Sindo examines how identity discourse is an integral part of the leadership discourse in 1 Corinthians 1 4 From this solid base he provides a close and insightful investigation of the interrelationship between leadership and identity This compelling and biblically rooted work will help Christians to understand the dangers of division within the church and how Christian leaders can overcome these divisions by reminding the community of their common identity in Christ     Outsiders Moving in Katherine Tegtmeier Pak,1998     Empire of Contingency Jorge Flores,2024-10-15

Explores the information and communication practices of the Portuguese empire in sixteenth and seventeenth century India Empire of Contingency explores the information and communication practices of the Portuguese empire in late sixteenth and seventeenth century India a period during which Portuguese imperial ambitions were struggling for survival while the Mughal empire was at the height of its power and influence Jorge Flores uncovers the tenuous but ingenious apparatuses of intelligence through which the Estado da ndia the State of the Indies the name given to the Portuguese political administrative unit in the region between the Cape of Good Hope and East Asia endeavored to survive in a vast Indo Persian world shaped by the influence and power of the Mughal empire Detailing the complex relations that the officials of the Portuguese empire particularly in Goa the capital of the Estado da ndia maintained with the Mughal empire as well as the sultanates of Ahmadnagar and Bijapur in the Deccan region through information gathering record keeping interpreting and diplomatic correspondence the book demonstrates how the Portuguese territories along the western coast of India were substantially incorporated into the vast Persianate cultural sphere spanning from Iran to Southeast Asia The process of empire building on the fringes of the Persianate world and the prolonged interaction with the Mughal empire Ahmadnagar and Bijapur Flores argues led to the irregular non linear and incomplete assimilation of the Portuguese empire into Persianate India Overturning teleological narratives that portray the workings of European empire as the unilateral imposition of power dynamics by a dominant omniscient actor Flores reveals how Portuguese imperial administrators were vulnerable participants in a network of relations involving multiple political powers relations that required enormous bureaucratic and diplomatic effort to understand and successfully navigate Showing how a European empire was drawn into the political practices and rituals of the Indo Persian world Flores decenters the lenses conventionally used to observe the Portuguese empire in Asia and helps us rethink its nature while questioning the boundaries of the Indo Persian world

The Battle for Fortune Charlene Makley, 2018-05-15 In a deeply ethnographic appraisal based on years of in situ research The Battle for Fortune looks at the rising stakes of Tibetans encounters with Chinese state led development projects in the early 2000s The book builds upon anthropology s qualitative approach to personhood power and space to rethink the premises and consequences of economic development campaigns in China s multiethnic northwestern province of Qinghai Charlene Makley considers Tibetans encounters with development projects as first and foremost a historically situated interpretive politics in which people negotiate the presence or absence of moral and authoritative persons and their associated jurisdictions and powers Because most Tibetans believe the active presence of deities and other invisible beings has been the ground of power causation and fertile or fortunate landscapes Makley also takes divine beings seriously refusing to relegate them to a separate less consequential religious or premodern world The Battle for Fortune therefore challenges readers to grasp the unique reality of Tibetans values and fears in the face of their marginalization in China Makley uses this approach to encourage a more multidimensional and dynamic understanding of state local relations than mainstream accounts of development and unrest that portray Tibet and China as a kind of yin and yang pair for models of statehood and development in a new global order

Interim Assessment of the HOPE VI Program Cross-Site Report Mary Joel Hollin, 2011-11-17 In 1989 Congress established the Nat Comm on Severely Distressed Public Housing to explore the problems of troubled public housing developments and to establish a plan to address those problems by the year 2000 Following several years of research and public hearings the Comm's 1992 final report identified the key factors that defined severely distressed housing extensive physical deterioration of the property a considerable proportion of residents living below the poverty level a high incidence of serious crime and management problems as evidenced by a large number of vacancies high unit turnover and low rent collection rates The Comm members agreed that existing approaches for improving public housing were inadequate to address the needs of severely distressed developments and proposed the creation of a new program to address comprehensively the social and physical problems of distressed public housing communities Originally called the Urban Revitalization Demonstration Program this public housing revitalization program soon became known by the acronym HOPE VI Homeownership and Opportunity for People Everywhere In 1998 under the Dept of Housing and Urban Development HUD a 5 year evaluation of the HOPE VI program was begun The Interim Assessment of the HOPE VI Program was designed to study program outcomes by collecting and analyzing data about 15 HOPE VI sites once redevelopment was completed and units were reoccupied This report presents the study findings Figures and tables This is a print on demand report      Playing for Change Rob Rosenthal, Richard Flacks, 2015-11-17 Although music is known to be part of the great social movements that have rocked the world its specific contribution to political struggle has rarely been closely analyzed Is it truly the lifeblood of movements as some have declared or merely the entertainment between the speeches Drawing on interviews case studies and musical and lyrical analysis Rosenthal and Flacks offer a brilliant analysis and a wide ranging look at the use of music in movements in the US and elsewhere over the past hundred years From their interviews the voices of Pete Seeger Ani DiFranco Tom Morello Holly Near and many others enliven this highly readable book      Modernism on the Nile Alex Dika Seggerman, 2019-08-13 Analyzing the modernist art movement that arose in Cairo and Alexandria from the late nineteenth century through the 1960s Alex Dika Seggerman reveals how the visual arts were part of a multifaceted transnational modernism While the work of diverse major Egyptian artists during this era may have appeared to be secular she argues it reflected the subtle but essential inflection of Islam as a faith history and lived experience in the overarching development of Middle Eastern modernity Challenging typical views of modernism in art history as solely Euro American and expanding the conventional periodization of Islamic art history Seggerman theorizes a constellational modernism for the emerging field of global modernism Rather than seeing modernism in a generalized hyperconnected network she finds that art and artists circulated in distinct constellations that encompassed finite local and transnational relations Such constellations which could engage visual systems both along and beyond the Nile from Los Angeles to Delhi were materialized in visual culture that ranged from oil paintings and sculpture to photography and prints Based on extensive research in Egypt Europe and the United States this richly illustrated book poses a compelling argument for the importance of Muslim networks to global modernism
