Utopia and the Contemporary British Novel Caroline Edwards, 2019-07-11 Explores how the experience of time in contemporary British novels reveals the persistence of the utopian imagination today Urban Voices Mike Gould, 2009-06-18 A new series of anthologies to get students reading Writing Excellent Articles for Conferences & Journals Abraham O. A, 2018-07-02 The goal of any researcher is to present a good article that is well organized properly documented and carefully edited This goal cannot be achieved unless the researcher is orderly logical honest imaginative and accurate As knowledge keeps expanding students and professionals across industries desire to put papers together and write their articles but need to take the right steps practically speaking Some have the ideas and know what to do but still are waiting and marking time to start later They keep procrastinating while some on the other hand have no idea of what it takes to write good articles No more need for worries the answer is here with you This book is designed for all researchers postgraduate students to simply guide them through writing articles authoring or co authoring their articles It has captured the most important styles currently in use by the various disciplines and professions Most importantly this book has presented the step by step guide on Understanding what an article is How to write good abstracts How to be an effective presenter How to be a leading keynote speaker How to write keynote abstracts How to write articles with examples of abstracts keynotes and articles Re-Framing the Theatrical A. Oddey, 2015-12-17 Oddey questions the role of the spectator and director and the nature of art works and performance She provocatively demonstrates the spectator as centre of the artistic experience a new kind of making theatre art revealing its spirit and nature searching for space and contemplation in a hectic twenty first century landscape Contemporary Fiction and Christianity Andrew Tate, 2010-10-12

Transmodern Literatures in the 21st Century Claus-Peter Neumann, Pilar Royo-Grasa, 2025-09-30 Transmodern Literatures in the 21st Century Of f Limits offers an in depth examination of how transmodern literatures in English over the last two decades have addressed the phenomenon of the limit The 14 chapters that make up the volume examine how geographical racial ethnical sociocultural generical ontological epistemological and other limits are articulated transgressed and reconfigured in recent narratives by authors writing in a wide variety of transmodern trends such as Afro and Africanfuturism Young Adult feminist science fiction food fiction air travel fiction the networked novel and future narratives amongst others They thereby expose and challenge hierarchised binary dichotomies as Euro and Anthropocentric exclusionary discursive constructs that have kept non hegemonic voices off limits To counter the detrimental effects of the neoliberal grand narrative of globalisation the chapters as well as the narratives of the limit they analyse emphasise an urgent need for inclusiveness relationality and communality

The Novel Cure Ella Berthoud, Susan Elderkin, Indrajit Hazra, 2014-08-01 Whether you have a stubbed toe or a stubborn case of the blues within these pages you ll find a cure in the form of a novel or a combination of novels to help ease your pain You ll also find advice on how to tackle common reading ailments such as what to do when you feel overwhelmed by the number of books in the world or if you have a tendency to give up halfway through When read at the right moment in your life a novel can quite literally change it and The Novel Cure is a reminder of that power Written with authority passion and wit here is a fresh approach to finding new books to read and an enchanting way to revisit the books on your shelves

Contemporary Novelists M. Hutton, 2012-09-19 Peter Childs offers accessible analyses of the work of twelve prominent contemporary British writers including Hanif Kureishi Pat Barker Zadie Smith and Jeanette Winterson This expanded second edition has been revised and updated throughout and now also features a new chapter on the younger generation of novelists born in the 1970s

Aesthetic Afterlives Andrew Eastham, 2011-10-06 Since the development of British Aestheticism in the 1870s the concept of irony has focused a series of anxieties which are integral to modern literary practice Examining some of the most important debates in post Romantic aesthetics through highly focused textual readings of authors from Walter Pater and Henry James to Samuel Beckett and Alan Hollinghurst this study investigates the dialectical position of irony in Aestheticism and its twentieth century afterlives Aesthetic Afterlives constructs a far reaching theoretical narrative by positioning Victorian Aestheticism as the basis of Literary Modernity Aestheticism s cultivation of irony and reflexive detachment was central to this legacy but it was also the focus of its own self critique Anxieties about the concept and practice of irony persisted through Modernism and have recently been positioned in Hollinghurst s work as a symptom of the political stasis within post modern culture Referring to the recent debates about the new aestheticism and the politics of aesthetics Eastham asks how a utopian Aestheticism can be reconstructed from the problematics of irony and aesthetic autonomy that haunted writers from Pater to Adorno

Cosmopolitan Novel Berthold Schoene, 2009-06-23 While traditionally the novel has been seen as tracking the development of the nation state Schoene queries if globalisation might currently be prompting the emergence of a new sub genre of the novel that is adept at imagining global community The book introduces a new generation of contemporary British writers Rachel Cusk Kiran Desai Hari Kunzru Jon McGregor and David Mitchell whose work is read against that of established novelists Arundhati Roy James Kelman and Ian McEwan Each chapter explores a different theoretical key concept including glocality glomicity tour du monde connectivity and compearance Key Features Defines the new genre of the cosmopolitan novel by reading contemporary British fiction as responsive to new global socio economic formations Expands knowledge of world culture national identity literary creativity and political agency by introducing concepts from globalisation and cosmopolitan theory into literary studies Explores debates on Britishness and the contemporary with close reference to the fall of the Berlin Wall on 9 11 1989 and the World Trade Centre attacks on 11 9 2001 Introduces a new generation of British writers within a complex global context by drawing on Jean Luc Nancy s work on community and creative world formation The Oxford Handbook of Ecocriticism Greg Garrard, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Ecocriticism provides a broad survey of the longstanding relationship between literature and the environment The moment for such an offering is opportune in many respects multiple environmental crises are increasingly inescapable at both transnational and local levels the role of the humanities in addition to technology and politics is increasingly recognized as central for exploring and finding solutions and the subject of ecocriticism has reached a kind of critical mass both within its Anglo American heartlands and beyond From its origins in the study of American Nature Writing and British Romanticism ecocriticism has developed along numerous theoretical historical cultural and geographical axes the most contemporary and exciting of which will be represented in the Handbook The contributors include eminent founders of the field including Cheryll Glotfelty and Jonathan Bate a number of key second wave ecocritics and the best up and coming scholars Topics covered include Green Shakespeare the Bard s subversive uses of the pastoral John Clare s sacred relationship with the land Thoreau s profound political passion the natural landscape as symbol of postcolonial resistance in works by Lessing Naipaul and Coetzee the relation between feminism and environmentalism language and the concept of biosemiotics and concerns over pollution and toxicity in films like Erin Brockovitch Michael Clayton and Al Gore s An Inconvenient Truth Literary Theory: A Complete Introduction Sara Upstone, 2017-05-04 Literary theory has now become integral to how we produce literary criticism When critics write about a text they no longer think just about the biographical or historical contexts of the work but also about the different approaches that literary theory offers By making use of these they create new interpretations of the text that would not otherwise be possible In your own reading and writing literary theory fosters new avenues into the text It allows you to make informed comments about the language and form of literature but also about the core themes concepts such as gender sexuality the self race and class which a text might explore Literary theory gives you an almost limitless number of texts to work into your own response ensuring that your interpretation is truly original This is why although literary theory can initially appear alienating and difficult it is something to get really excited about Imagine you are standing in the centre of a circular room with a whole set of doors laid out around you Each doorway opens on to a new and illuminating field of knowledge that can change how you think about what you have read perhaps in just a small way but also perhaps dramatically and irrevocably You can open one door or many of them The choice is yours Put the knowledge you gain

together with your own interpretation however and you have a unique and potentially fascinating response Each chapter in Literary Theory A Complete Introduction covers a key school of thought progressing to a point at which you ll have a full understanding of the range of responses and approaches available for textual interpretation As well as focusing on such core areas as Marxism Modernism Postmodernism Structuralism and Poststructuralism this introduction brings in recent developments such as Eco and Ethical Criticism and Humanisms

Rethinking Race and Identity in Contemporary British Fiction Sara Upstone,2016-10-04 This book takes a post racial approach to the representation of race in contemporary British fiction re imagining studies of race and British literature away from concerns with specific racial groups towards a more sophisticated analysis of the contribution of a broad post racial British writing Examining the work of writers from a wide range of diverse racial backgrounds the book illustrates how contemporary British fiction rather than merely reflecting social norms is making a radical contribution towards the possible future of a positively multi ethnic and post racial Britain This is developed by a strategic use of the realist form which becomes a utopian device as it provides readers with a reality beyond current circumstances yet one which is rooted within an identifiable world Speaking to the specific contexts of British cultural politics and directly connecting with contemporary debates surrounding race and identity in Britain the author engages with a wide range of both mainstream and neglected authors including Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Julian Barnes John Lanchester Alan Hollinghurst Martin Amis Jon McGregor Andrea Levy Bernardine Evaristo Hanif Kureishi Kazuo Ishiguro Hari Kunzru Nadeem Aslam Meera Syal Jackie Kay Maggie Gee and Neil Gaiman This cutting edge volume explores how contemporary fiction is at the centre of re thinking how we engage with the question of race in twenty first century Britain

Twenty-first-century fiction Daniel Lea,2016-11-21 This book offers readings of five of the most interesting and original voices to have emerged in Britain since the millennium as they tackle the challenges of portraying the new century Through close readings of the work of Ali Smith Andrew O Hagan Tom McCarthy Sarah Hall and Jon McGregor Daniel Lea opens a window onto the formal and thematic concerns that characterise a literary landscape troubled by both familiar and unfamiliar predicaments These include questions about the meaning of humanness in an age of digital intercourse about the need for a return to authenticity in the wake of postmodernism and about the dislocation of self from the other under neoliberal individualism By relating its readings of these authors to the wider shifts in contemporary literary criticism this book offers in depth analysis of important landmarks of recent fiction and an introduction to the challenges of understanding the literature of our time

The Wounded Hero in Contemporary Fiction Susana Onega,Jean-Michel Ganteau,2018-04-27 The Wounded Hero in Contemporary Fiction tracks the emergence of a new type of physically and or spiritually wounded hero ine in contemporary fiction Editors Susana Onega and Jean Michel Ganteu bring together some of the top minds in the field to explore the paradoxical lives of these heroes that have embraced rather than overcome their suffering alienation and marginalisation as a form of self definition

A Poetics of Postmodernism and Neomodernism M.

Latham,2015-05-27 This new book examines how a range of authors today perpetuate Virginia Woolf's literary legacy by creating new forms adapted to their new ages and audiences Addressing questions about the current penchant for refashioning our canon in order to update this book will be valuable reading for both students and scholars of Woolf
