Heartz,2009 A vivid portrait of Mozart and Haydn's greatest achievements and young Beethoven's works under their influence Museum Skepticism David Carrier,2006-05-31 Prominent art historian looks at the birth of the art museum and contemplates its future as a public institution Rome and The Guidebook Tradition Anna Blennow,Stefano

Fogelberg Rota,2019-04-01 To this day no comprehensive academic study of the development of guidebooks to Rome over time has been performed This book treats the history of guidebooks to Rome from the Middle Ages up to the early twentieth century It is based on the results of the interdisciplinary research project Topos and Topography led by Anna Blennow and Stefano Fogelberg Rota From the case studies performed within the project it becomes evident that the guidebook as a phenomenon was formed in Rome during the later Middle Ages and early Renaissance The elements and rhetorical strategies of guidebooks over time have shown to be surprisingly uniform with three important points of development a turn towards a more user friendly structure from the seventeenth century and onward the so called Baedeker effect in the mid nineteenth century and the introduction of a personalized guiding voice in the first half of the twentieth century Thus the guidebook tradition is an unusually consistent literary oeuvre which also forms a warranty for the authority of every new guidebook In this respect the guidebook tradition is intimately associated with the city of Rome with which it shares a constantly renovating yet eternally fixed nature

The Mask and the Quill Mary Helen Dupree, 2011-05-12 In the last three decades of the eighteenth century a small but significant number of German actresses including Sophie Albrecht 1757 1840 Marianne Ehrmann 1755 1795 and Elise B rger 1769 1833 began to publish poetry autobiography drama and short fiction under their own names These actress writers came of age at a time when the status of the actress was beginning to be radically redefined in accordance with Enlightenment aesthetics and the cult of sensibility as the model of the enterprising actress director in the tradition of Caroline Neuber gave way to an idealizing view of the actress as sentimental heroine The Mask and the Quill Actress Writers in Germany from Enlightenment to Romanticism is an exploration of this generation of actress writers their significance for German literary and cultural history and their attempts to come to terms with the new image of the actress through literature and performance In their texts and performances Albrecht Ehrmann and B rger articulated an entirely new sense of what it meant to be an actress and a woman writer They identified themselves with the cult of sensibility with the theater reform movement and above all with an image of the actress as Gef hlsschauspielerin or actress of emotion which emerged in the mid 1770s in response to the death of the Hamburg tragedienne Charlotte Ackermann 1757 1775 While some scholars have described this generation as a silent one forced to submit to increasingly passive ideals of domesticity actress writers of the era defied this trend by using the image of the Gef hlsschauspielerin as a passport to literary activity Their close relationship to theater and the nascent genre of paratheatrical literature provided them with a public voice access to literary circles and a language with which to articulate their identity as actresses and as writers More importantly it provided them with a space from which to critique contemporary notions of gender and virtue

The Return of Proserpina Sarah Spence, 2023-01-03 In this book Sarah Spence explores the role of Sicily in the European imagination through the myth of Proserpina who was abducted by the god of the underworld from the same Mediterranean island Drawing on the author s training in both classics and medieval studies the book explores how mythic narrative reflects ideas about ancient and medieval empires and engages with debates about the nature of the classical tradition as it evolved during the Middle Ages Spence argues that the narrative structure of the Proserpina myth the history of Sicily and ideas about empire come to reflect refract and refine one another through literature including works by Cicero Vergil Ovid Claudian and Dante More broadly Spence considers the way in which literature offers a space for political deliberation and imagination While Roman poets focus on Proserpina's abduction as a means for discussing the problems of imperial expansion for example high medieval renderings of the myth invoked in discussions of a new Christian empire shaped by the Crusades instead focus on the loss of Proserpina her eventual return and the necessary negotiations her return involves In this way the tale of Proserpina and the history of Sicily trace the changing needs and understandings of empire literature and the complicated links between the two
