where they're at. An online bank of graphic organizers, student reproducibles, sample classroom charts, rubrics, and photos. Reproducible planning templates for each standard to help you map out lessons, select books, generate key questions, and more. With more than 30 years of classroom experience in the primary grades and years of consulting in schools nationwide, Sharon Taberski has a depth of knowledge about what both students and teachers in this country need in order to cultivate the win-win of high expectations and high engagement in K-2. She is a nationally recognized educator, author, and presenter and a leader in the field of early reading instruction. Her professional books and teaching materials have revolutionized the way primary teachers approach reading and remain classics in the field.

The English Teacher's Companion Jim Burke, 2008. Teachers and teacher educators asked for the latest research on literacy, more information about national standards, ways to consider gender in instruction, advice for teaching Advanced Placement classes, ideas for teaching media literacy, and incorporating technology effectively into instruction, even more resources for mentoring new teachers, analysis of how trends in society, culture, and politics impact teachers and their classrooms. And Jim delivers. He has revamped his introductory chapters on literacy learning to include up-to-the-minute thinking from the field, and he has incorporated lists of key standards and helpful suggestions for reaching them. His practical strategies turn recent findings on literacy and gender into well-designed, research-based instruction, and his ideas help you meet the very different needs of AP students by understanding their goals and providing them with appropriate challenges.
