

A REFLECTIVE ESSAY

The grand end of instruction ... is not to stamp our minds irresistibly on the young but to stir up their own; not to make them see with our eyes but to look inquiringly and steadily with their own; not to give them a definite amount of knowledge but inspire a fervent love of truth; not form an outward regularity but to touch inward springs.

As a good teacher, it is my job to find and inspire this desire in all students. I recall having several students who entered the rotation viewing it as little more than just a requirement, but exited expressing a newfound love of the profession or desire to do more. I encourage this attitude by letting students know on the first day of a rotation that a very
