

LAST DAY OF SCHOOL!

Dear Parents,

The last day of school... the closing of one door and the opening of another. I want to thank each child for all the warmth, the memories, and the learning that we have shared this school year.

To my students, I say THANK-YOU! For when I teach, I also learn. This past year we have grown together. A little bit of each of you will always be with me. Always strive to be the BEST that you can be!

To the parents, I say THANK-YOU for allowing me to be your child's teacher. It was been a wonderful and rewarding year for me.

I will love your child, always.

Classroom Routines that Really Work for PreK and Kindergarten Kathleen Hayes, Renee Creange, 2001
 Help children learn classroom routines. Filled with ideas for introducing and managing essential early childhood routines and activities that foster independence and build community.

Reframing the Emotional Worlds of the Early Childhood Classroom Samara Madrid, David Fernie, Rebecca Kantor, 2014-10-30
 This volume examines the emotional world of the early childhood classroom as it affects young children whose emotional wellbeing is crucial to successful learning. Educators for whom teaching is never a solely cognitive act, parents, and administrators. In a culture where issues such as bullying and teacher burnout comprise major challenges to student success, this book brings together diverse voices: researchers, practitioners, children, and parents, and multiple perspectives, theoretical and personal, to refocus attention on the pivotal role of emotion in schools. To do so, editors Samara Madrid, David Fernie, and Rebecca Kantor envision emotion as a dynamic, fluid, and negotiated construct performed and produced in the daily lives of children and adults alike. A nuanced yet cohesive analysis, Reframing the Emotional Worlds of the Early Childhood Classroom thus presents a challenge to the overriding concern with quantifiable classroom achievement that increasingly threatens to push the emotional lives of classroom participants to the margins of educational and public discourse.
