Human Impact Report Climate Change

Kirstin Dow, Thomas E. Downing

Human Impact Report Climate Change:

Human Impact Report Kofi Atta Annan, 2009 The Anatomy of a Silent Crisis Global Humanitarian Forum, 2009

Human Rights and Climate Change Julia Neumann, 2011 Master's Thesis from the year 2010 in the subject Law Comparative Legal Systems Comparative Law grade B University of Auckland Law Faculty course Climate Change Law language English abstract This paper deals with the linkage of international human rights and climate change It focuses on the approach to deduce legal claims in the form of compensations and concrete measures from international human rights in the course of impairments through climate change This paper shall give a short overview on the issue climate change in general including its causes effects and the current political strategies It furthermore provides a synopsis on how human rights are impaired by global warming and climate change effects Unfortunately this essay will come to the conclusion that the international human rights approach struggles with functioning as a solitary legal basis in that context and with stepping beyond the just moral implication Human rights legislative potential rather lies in the development of more encompassing and more inclusive legal and political strategies Human rights may advisably be instrumentalized to strengthen political debates and be used as an incitement to set up enforceable and balanced agreements on reasonable measures of equalization and support The Atlas of Climate Change Kirstin Dow, Thomas E. Downing, 2016-05-04 This highly acclaimed atlas distills the vast science of climate change providing a reliable and insightful guide to this rapidly growing field Since the 2006 publication of the first edition climate change has climbed even higher up the global agenda This new edition reflects the latest developments in research and the impact of climate change and in current efforts to mitigate and adapt to changes in the world's weather The atlas covers a wide range of topics including warning signs vulnerable populations health impacts renewable energy emissions reduction personal and public action The third edition includes new or additional coverage of a number of topics including agreements reached in Copenhagen and Cancun ocean warming and increased acidity the economic impact of climate change and advantages gained by communities and business from adapting to climate change The extensive maps and graphics have been updated with new data making this edition once again an essential resource for everyone concerned with this pressing subject Research Handbook on Climate Change, Migration and the Law Benoît Maye, François Crépeau, 2017-10-27 This comprehensive Research Handbook provides an overview of the debates on how the law does and could relate to migration exacerbated by climate change It contains conceptual chapters on the relationship between climate change migration and the law as well as doctrinal and prospective discussions regarding legal developments in different domestic contexts and in international governance Climate Change, Human Impact and Green Energy Transformation Jan Kiciński, Patryk Chaja, 2021-07-23 This book indicates the most optimal solutions for the growing civilization problem related to climate change that takes place more and more rapidly on our planet It is divided into two parts In the first part the authors based on the available analyses and reports on climate change taking place on Earth

present their own point of view in relation to the above issue while trying to find answers to the following questions Why is it so difficult to admit that humans are responsible for the ongoing climate change Will climate change destroy life on Earth Can science and modern technologies stop this process In the second part of the book the authors propose a solution for the advancing climate change regarding the reduction of CO₂ emissions coming mainly from the energy sector On the basis of scientific achievements and implementations of research institutions in Poland especially the Institute of Fluid Flow Machinery of the Polish Academy of Sciences in Gdansk the book proposes directions of development of the energy transformation in Poland and other countries for which fossil fuels currently make a large contribution to the energy production process and are the main emitter of CO₂ to the atmosphere The book is addressed to citizens ecologists climatologists as well as politicians and experts responsible for shaping the climate and energy policy of the country level and also the world

The Role of Integrity in the Governance of the Commons Laura Westra, Janice Gray, Franz-Theo Gottwald, 2017-05-29 This book explores the impact of disintegrity on various aspects of governance as the disregard of ecological conditions produce grave direct effects to human rights to water or food and indirectly also to human security in several ways International legal regimes need to be reconsidered and perhaps re interpreted in order to correct these situations that affect the commons today Some believe that our starting point should acknowledge the impact we already have on the natural world and accept that we now live in the anthropocene Others think that the present emphasis on sustainable development needs to be re defined Finally many believe that reconnecting with moral principles both in professional life and in governance in general represents a necessary first step

Transforming Climate Finance and Green Investment with Blockchains Alastair Marke, 2018-06-28 Transforming Climate Finance and Green Investment with Blockchains establishes and analyzes the connection between this revolutionary technology and global efforts to combat climate change The benefits of blockchain come through various profound alterations such as the adoption of smart contracts that are set to redefine governance and regulatory structures and transaction systems in coming decades Each chapter contains a problem statement that describes the challenges blockchain technology can address The book brings together original visions and insights from global members of the Blockchain Climate Institute comprising thought leaders financial professionals international development practitioners technology entrepreneurs and more This book will help readers understand blockchain technology and how it can facilitate the implementation of the Paris Agreement and accelerate the global transition to a green economy Provides an authoritative examination of this emerging digital technology and its implications on global climate change governance Includes detailed proposals and thorough discussions of implementation issues that are specific to green economy sectors Relates innovative proposals to existing applications to demonstrate the value add of blockchain technology Covers blockchain for the smarter energy sector for fraud free emissions management to streamline climate investments and legal frameworks for blockchain based climate finance

Struggles for Climate

Justice Brandon Barclay Derman, 2020-03-14 This book provides an accessible but intellectually rigorous introduction to the global social movement for climate justice and addresses the socially uneven consequences of anthropogenic climate change Deploying relational understandings of nature society space and power Brandon Derman shows that climate change has been co produced with social inequality Mismatching levels of responsibility and vulnerability and institutions that emerged in tandem with those disproportionalities compose the terrain on which NGOs and social movements now contest climate injustice in a wide ranging politics of connection Case based chapters explore the defining commitments of affected and allied communities and how they have shaped specific struggles mobilizing human rights international treaties transnational activist forums national and local constituencies and broad based demonstrations Derman synthesizes these cases and similar efforts across the globe to identify and explore crosscutting themes in climate justice politics as well as the opportunities and dilemmas facing advocates and activists and those who would ally with them going forward How should we understand campaigns for climate justice What do these initiatives share and what differentiates them What in fact does climate justice mean in these contexts And what do the framing and progression of such efforts in different settings suggest about the broader conditions that produce and sustain climate injustice how those conditions could be unmade and what might take their place Struggles for Climate Justice approaches these questions from an interdisciplinary perspective accessible to graduate and advanced undergraduate students as well as scholars of geography social movements environmental politics policy and socio legal studies

Beyond Business John Browne, 2010-02-08 An inspirational memoir from a remarkable leader Once a lacklustre organisation BP became one of the world s biggest most successful and most admired companies in the new millennium John Browne the company s CEO for 12 years invented the oil supermajor and led the way on issues such as climate change human rights and transparency In BEYOND BUSINESS Browne brings to life what he learned about leadership in a tough industry His story encompasses the insights gained as he transformed a national company challenged an entire industry and prompted political and business leaders to change He takes us across the world on adventures that include going toe to toe with both tyrants and elected leaders and involve engineering feats which in many ways rival those of going to the moon And he shares his views on the true purpose of business and the leadership needed to tackle the grand challenges of our era It is also a story of failure and human frailty as Browne reveals how his private and public lives collided at frightening speed in full view of the world prompting his abrupt resignation as CEO of BP

MEGA-CRISES Ira Helsloot, Arjen Boin, Brian Jacobs, Louise K. Comfort, 2012-08-01 We live in turbulent times with continents and nations facing ever heightening risks such as natural disasters intense and protracted conflicts terrorism corporate crises cyber threats to infrastructures and mega events We are witnessing the rise of mega crises and a new class of adversity with many unknowns The prospect of mega crises presents professionals and students in the field of crisis management with four major tasks First they should engage in deep thinking about the causes of the increasing occurrence

Development Frauke Urban, Johan Nordensvard, 2013-07-18 Low Carbon Development Key Issues is the first comprehensive textbook to address the interface between international development and climate change in a carbon constrained world It discusses the key conceptual empirical and policy related issues of low carbon development and takes an international and interdisciplinary approach to the subject by drawing on insights from across the natural sciences and social sciences whilst embedding the discussion in a global context The first part explores the concept of low carbon development and explains the need for low carbon development in a carbon constrained world The book then discusses the key issues of socio economic political and technological nature for low carbon development exploring topics such as the political economy social justice financing and carbon markets and technologies and innovation for low carbon development This is followed by key issues for low carbon development in policy and practice which is presented based on cross cutting issues such as low carbon energy forestry agriculture and transportation Afterwards practical case studies are discussed from low carbon development in low income countries in Africa middle income countries in Asia and Latin America and high income countries in Europe and North America Written by an international team of leading academics and practitioners in the field of low carbon development this book is essential reading for students academics professionals and policy makers interested in the fields of low carbon development climate change mitigation climate policy climate change and development global environmental change and environment and development

Land Solutions for Climate Displacement Scott Leckie, 2014-05-23 The threat of climate displacement looms large over a growing number of countries Based on the more than six years of work by Displacement Solutions in ten climate affected countries academic work on displacement and climate adaptation and the country level efforts of civil society groups in several frontline countries this report explores the key contention that land will be at the core of any major strategy aimed at preventing and resolving climate displacement This innovative and timely volume coordinated and edited by the Founder of Displacement Solutions Scott Leckie examines a range of legal policy and practical issues relating to the role of land in actively addressing the displacement consequences of climate change It reveals the inevitable truth that climate displacement is already underway and being tackled in countries such as Bangladesh Kiribati Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Tuvalu and the United States and proposes a series of possible land solution tools that can be employed to protect the rights of people and communities everywhere should they be forced to flee the places they call home

Environmental Change, Forced Displacement and International Law Isabel M. Borges, 2018-12-07 This book explores the increasing concern over the extent to which those suffering from forced cross border displacement as a result of environmental change are protected under international human rights law Formally they are not entitled to admission or stay in a third state country a situation that has been identified as an international legal protection gap The book seeks to provide answers to two basic questions whether and to what extent existing international law protects cross border environmental displacement and whether and how existing formalized regional complementary protection standards can interpretively solidify and conceptualize protection for cross border environmental displacement The discussion outlines that the protection of the human person is not only an ex post facto obligation of states but must be increasingly seen as an ex ante one The analysis further suggests that the European Union regionally orientated protection regime can help states to consolidate an evolving protection paradigm of proactive and reactive measures being erected at the international level It can also narrow the identified legal protection gaps In so doing it helps states to reconceptualise protection as a holistic and dynamic enterprise This book will be of great interest to academics in law political science and human rights policy makers and civil society organisations both at national and international level Climate Change, New Security Challenges and the United Nations Sabita Mohapatra, 2018-02-28 Climate change affects human health in all sectors of society both domestically globally The sea level rise changes in precipitation resulting in flooding drought heat waves more intense hurricanes storms and degraded air quality affect human health This book is an attempt to unravel the new non traditional challenges that the UN will face in coming decades if the states fail to keep the climate change fixed at the threshold of 2 degrees Celsius as agreed at the COP 21 conference in Paris by all the states results in intra and inter state conflict Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Africa Toward 2030 E. Lundsgaarde, 2011-11-11 Combining studies of demography climate change technology and innovation political development new actors in international development and global governance frameworks this book highlights the major underlying determinants of change in the African context and key uncertainties about the continent's future development prospects

Agribusiness as the Future of Agriculture Youssef M. Hamada, 2020-09-24 This informative book reviews the challenges of agribusiness in the Southeast Mediterranean The author focuses on sugarcane cultivation in Egypt to illustrate the impact of climate change on agribusiness and his method and findings may be helpful for other studies in other regions as well As climate change creates new risks to human populations and food security a better analysis is needed to understand this new level of uncertainty and to understand how it will impact agriculture and its relationship with economies livelihoods and development Africa emits low greenhouse gases but is hit the hardest by global warming posing a serious challenge to increasing agricultural productivity in the Southeast Mediterranean Sugarcane in Egypt is used as a local food source for international trade for the balance of payments for land and water use and as a basic product for food and fiber manufacturing Hence every aspect of the economic structure of Egypt relates to agriculture The book examines the causes and effects of climate change on agribusiness in the Southeast Mediterranean region such as its effect on prosperity and net farm incomes crop yields It considers how to promote agribusiness development in the area and the potential to alleviate poverty in rural areas It looks at the future of the sugarcane industry in Upper Egypt as a case study of agribusiness with implications that can be applied globally
