capacities and would seem to necessitate more federal engagement can a federal approach be sustainable and can it contribute to local capacity building This timely book examines local capacity building as well as the current legal policy and fiscal framework for disaster management questioning some of the fundamentals of the current system exploring whether accountability and responsibilities are correctly placed offering alternative models and taking stock of the current practices that reflect an effective use of resources in a complex emergency management system The Future of Disaster Management in the U S will be of interest to disaster and emergency managers as well as public servants and policy makers at all levels tasked with responding to increasingly complex catastrophes of all kinds Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective

Memory Mathilde Köstler,2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory They Played Rugby for New Zealand 1884-2023 Eric

Moment of Danger Julie Sze,2020-01-07 Let this book immerse you in the many worlds of environmental justice Naomi Klein We are living in a precarious environmental and political moment In the United States and in the world environmental injustices have manifested across racial and class divides in devastatingly disproportionate ways What does this moment of danger mean for the environment and for justice What can we learn from environmental justice struggles Environmental Justice in a Moment of Danger examines mobilizations and movements from protests at Standing Rock to activism in Puerto Rico in the wake of Hurricane Maria Environmental justice movements fight survive love and create in the face of violence that challenges the conditions of life itself Exploring dispossession deregulation privatization and inequality this book is the essential primer on environmental justice packed with cautiously hopeful stories for the future Hurricane Maria in Puerto Rico Alberto Dávila,Marie T. Mora,Havidán Rodríguez,2021-09-30 With its 155 mile per hour sustained windspeeds the near Category 5 Hurricane Maria brought catastrophic devastation and destruction as it diagonally crossed the Commonwealth of

Puerto Rico from the southeast to the northwest on September 20 2017 The official death toll estimate of 2 975 lost lives means this record storm became one of the most devastating hurricanes not only for Puerto Rico but for the U S Many of these deaths as well as the prolonged human suffering were attributed to what was described as inadequate disaster response and slow restoration of basic services including running water electricity and the provision and distribution of food and medicine and not to the direct impact of the hurricane itself At the same time Hurricane Maria made landfall when Puerto Rico had been confronting a severe economic crisis surging for over a decade This crisis referred to as La Crisis Boricua was characterized by a significant loss of industry and jobs a deteriorating infrastructure record net outmigration a shrinking and rapidly aging population rising healthcare under coverage a bankrupt government and federal legislation restricting fiscal policy decisions made by elected officials on the island Thus Hurricane Maria exacerbated the effects of La Crisis Boricua on the socioeconomic health and demographic outcomes affecting Puerto Ricans on the island and U S mainland Bringing together scholars from a wide variety of disciplines including economics sociology demography health psychology disaster research political science education the arts and others this volume represents one of the first interdisciplinary sets of studies dedicated to analyzing the effects of Hurricane Maria on island and stateside Puerto Ricans Specific topics cover Hurricane Maria s impact on labor market outcomes including wages and employment by industry health implications including mental health changes in artistic expression civic engagement and disaster response and recovery A common thread through many of the chapters was the destruction of Puerto Rico s electrical grid and the prolonged restoration of electricity and other essential services that resulted in the loss of thousands of lives

Powerless Diana Hernández, Jennifer Laird, 2025-04-08 Energy serves as the lifeblood of our daily experiences It permeates virtually every aspect of our existence facilitating nourishment safety and productivity When affordability threatens energy s availability a family s living situation can become untenable too cold too hot too dark and too often unhealthy and unsafe In Powerless sociologists Diana Hernández and Jennifer Laird reveal the hidden hardship of energy insecurity the inability to adequately meet household energy needs Approximately one in ten households in the U S are energy insecure and four in ten are at risk for energy insecurity These statistics alone do not convey the acute pain of utility shutoffs or the relentless toll of chronic energy hardships marked by difficult choices and harsh living conditions Drawing on survey data and interviews with one hundred energy insecure individuals and families Hernández and Laird detail the experience of energy insecurity Individuals and families suffering from energy insecurity endure economic hardships such as difficulty paying utility bills utility debt and disconnection from utility services They also struggle with physical challenges such as poor housing conditions and poor or dysfunctional heating and cooling systems They are often forced to make difficult choices about what bills to pay These decisions are sometimes referred to as heat or eat choices as families cannot afford to pay for heating and food at the same time Energy insecure individuals and families employ a variety of strategies to keep energy costs down to avoid having to make these hard choices This includes deliberate underconsumption of energy enduring physical discomfort and using dangerous alternatives such as open flames ovens or space heaters to try to maintain a comfortable temperature in their home To be energy insecure is to suffer Despite the heavy toll of energy insecurity most people confront these difficulties behind closed doors believing it is a private matter Thus the enormous social crisis of energy insecurity goes unnoticed Hernandez and Laird argue that household energy is a basic human right and detail policies and practices that would expand access to consistent safe clean and affordable energy Their proposals include improving the current energy safety net which is limited and often does not serve the most energy insecure due to stringent program requirements and administrative burdens They also suggest redesigning rates to accommodate income promoting enrollment and expansion of discount programs reforming utility disconnection policies improving energy literacy and ensuring an equitable shift to renewable energy resources Powerless creates a comprehensive picture of the complex social and environmental issue of energy insecurity and shows how energy equity is not just an aspiration but an achievable reality

Performance, Trauma and Puerto Rico in Musical Theatre Colleen Rua, 2023-08-11 This study positions four musicals and their associated artists as mobilizers of defiant joy in relation to trauma and healing in Puerto Rico This book argues that the historical trajectory of these musicals has formed a canon of works that have reiterated resisted or transformed experiences of trauma through linguistic ritual and geographic interventions These traumas may be disaster related migrant related colonial or patriarchal Bilingualism and translation ritual action and geographic space engage moments of trauma natural disaster incarceration death and healing community celebration grieving emancipation in these works The musicals considered are West Side Story 1957 2009 2019 The Capeman 1998 In the Heights 2008 and Hamilton 2015 Central to this argument is that each of the musicals discussed is tied to Puerto Rico either through the representation of Puerto Rican characters and stories or through the Puerto Rican positionality of its creators The author moves beyond the musicals to consider Lin Manuel Miranda as an embodied site of healing that has been met with controversy as well as post Hurricane Maria relief efforts led by Miranda on the island and from a distance In each of the works discussed acts of belonging shape notions of survivorship and witness This book also opens a dialogue between these musicals and the work of island based artists Y no hab a luz that has served as sites of first response to disaster This book will be of interest to students and scholars in Latinx Theatre Musical Theatre and Translation studies

Hoffma, Roberto E. Barrios, 2019-10-03 A consistent problem that confronts disaster reduction is the disjunction between academic and expert knowledge and policies and practices of agencies mandated to deal with the concern Although a great deal of knowledge has been acquired regarding many aspects of disasters such as driving factors risk construction complexity of resettlement and importance of peoples culture very little has become protocol and procedure Disaster Upon Disaster illuminates the numerous disjunctions between the suppositions realities agendas and executions in the field goes on to detail contingencies predicaments old and new plights and finally advances solutions toward greatly improved outcomes

Necrogeopolitics Caroline Alphin, François Debrix, 2019-10-08 Necrogeopolitics On Death and Death Making in International Relations brings together a diverse array of critical IR scholars political theorists critical security studies researchers and critical geographers to provide a series of interventions on the topic of death and death making in global politics Contrary to most existing scholarship this volume does not place the emphasis on traditional sources or large scale configurations of power force leading to death in IR Instead it details theorizes and challenges more mundane perhaps banal and often ordinary modalities of violence perpetrated against human lives and bodies and often contributing to horrific instances of death and destruction Concepts such as slow death soft killing superfluous bodies or extra ordinary destruction disappearance are brought to the fore by prominent voices in these fields alongside more junior creative thinkers to rethink the politics of life and death in the global polity away from dominant IR or political theory paradigms about power force and violence The volume features chapters that offer thought provoking reconsiderations of key concepts theories and practices about death and death making along with other chapters that seek to challenge some of these concepts theories or practices in settings that include the Palestinian territories Brazilian cities displaced population flows from the Middle East sites of immigration policing in North America and spaces of welfare politics in Scandinavian states Incarcerating the Crisis Jordan T. Camp, 2016-04-18 The United States currently has the largest prison population on the planet Over the last four decades structural unemployment concentrated urban poverty and mass homelessness have also become permanent features of the political economy These developments are without historical precedent but not without historical explanation In this searing critique Jordan T Camp traces the rise of the neoliberal carceral state through a series of turning points in U S history including the Watts insurrection in 1965 the Detroit rebellion in 1967 the Attica uprising in 1971 the Los Angeles revolt in 1992 and events in post Katrina New Orleans in 2005 Incarcerating the Crisis argues that these dramatic events coincided with the emergence of neoliberal capitalism and the state's attempts to crush radical social movements. Through an examination of the poetic visions of social movements including those by James Baldwin, Marvin Gaye, June Jordan, José Martí, and Suni Patterson, it also suggests that alternative outcomes have been and continue to be possible.
