Read the text and answer questions 1 and 2 :

Shamima's misery started the day she was married. Her husband was a greedy person and he used to abuse her verbally and physically. Within a few months into her marriage she had to leave her husband Kamal Uddin Joardar. Now Shamima vows to work with women, who are ill-fated like her. She has 43 female members in her organisation working for her. She herself trains the members and then provides them with work. She designs fabrics, makes block-print, brush-paint and hand-embroidered saris. She also makes three-piece dresses for women, and 'fatuas' for men. She sells these products in her shop and supplies them outside.

Sammima has a dream now, a dream to do something for the helpless people. She wants them to feel useful. They can live with self-respect and dignity. With this in view, she goes out looking for such people. Shamima finished her story with a smile. Shamima has no complaints, no regrets, no grudges. Her husband could destroy her outward beauty but not the beauty of her mind. All she wants to do is to bring a smile on the faces of those women who are unfortunate. Shamima wants to become a famous designer.

Jsc 2010 Board Question:

Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business 2010 Dennis Campbell, 2010-11-01 This edition of the Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business provides a general examination of issues vital to the world's economic recovery. In the field of company law practitioners examine changes in Russia's corporate law and the new Ukrainian law governing joint stock companies. In the area of competition law lawyers review Serbia and Bulgaria's new laws on the protection of competition and the private enforcement of Articles 101 and 102 in Europe's national courts. Dispute resolution occupies two chapters: one dealing with best practices for drafting arbitration clauses and the other set aside recognition and enforcement of private commercial arbitration awards. A further two chapters treat employment and labor matters relating to distribution and commercial representation indemnity upon termination and processing personal data in the employment context of Hungary. In the area of financial services practitioners from five jurisdictions deal with fiduciary duty, the European Commission's proposed Directive on Alternative Investment Fund Managers, Swiss disclosure rules on significant shareholdings, restructuring and refinancing routes for mortgage secured debt in Spain, and insurance laws and regulations in Nigeria. Foreign investment is examined by two authors reporting on 2008 and 2009 developments in investment treaty disputes and foreign investment in Indonesia. Intellectual property issues are reviewed in chapters relating to the use of intellectual property as collateral in secured financing and intellectual property licensing in Canada. Finally, lawyers treat a variety of other issues including the tax law of Liechtenstein, European Union-Israel trade in the automobile sector, insolvency risk and creditors' rights in Peru, the modernizing of trust law in Hong Kong, and bridging cultural differences in international Transactions. The Chittagong University Journal of Science, 2011

Private International Law in Nigeria Chukwuma Okoli, Richard Oppong, 2020-06-11 This book examines the rules, principles, and doctrines in Nigerian law for resolving cases involving cross-border issues. It is the first book-length treatise devoted to the full spectrum of private international law issues in Nigeria. As a result of increased international business transactions, trade, and investment with Nigeria, such cross-border issues are more prevalent than ever. The book provides an overview of the relevant body of Nigerian law with comparative perspectives from other legal systems. Drawing on over five hundred Nigerian cases, relevant statutes, and academic commentaries, this book examines jurisdiction in interstate and international disputes, choice of law, the enforcement of foreign judgments and international arbitral awards, domestic remedies affecting foreign proceedings, and international judicial assistance in the service of legal processes and taking of evidence. Academics, researchers, and students, as well as judges, arbitrators, practitioners, and legislators alike, will find Private International Law in Nigeria an instructive and practical guide. Judicial Review of Administrative Action Swati Jhaveri, Michael Ramsden, 2021-03-18 Explores the English origins of the principles of judicial review in common law jurisdictions and autochthonous pressures for their adaptation.
