Essay topics

The following are topics from which you may choose to write your Gatsby essay. Choose one topic and shape your essay around a thesis that you create. Remember, your thesis is a statement, and should be an answer to the question you are trying to answer.

1. Perform a character analysis of Daisy. What's she really about? Is she a pawn? Did she ever love Gatsby? Is she manipulative? What other questions about her intrigue you and leave you wondering?
2. Is Nick a reliable or unreliable narrator? How does his point of view colour the reality of the novel, and what facts or occurrences would he have a vested interest in obscuring?
3. Fitzgerald's story shows the clear delineations between different strata of society: new money, old money, some money, and no money. How are readers to interpret his comments on each of these groups? Does he hold any one group above the other? Are there ways in which people of all groups are alike?
4. Discuss the novel's theme that the American Dream is corrupted by the desire for wealth. What does the novel and its theme offer about the American identity?
5. Who is most responsible for Gatsby's death?
6. Is what Gatsby feels for Daisy love, obsession, affection, or accumulation/objectification? What is Fitzgerald's message here? Consider discussing whether or not Gatsby can really love, given his characteristics.
7. Compare and contrast the major female characters in the novel: Daisy, Jordan, and Myrtle. How does each act towards men? What are their motivations/goals/desires/values? How are they treated by men (including the narrator/author)?
8. Discuss Fitzgerald's use of symbolism (this is a large topic that must be significantly narrowed - such as focusing on one symbol and

Piagetian Reading of "The Great Gatsby": Gatsby's Character and Augmented Reality Marie H., 2014-10-14 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies, Literature, grade 1-7, RWTH Aachen University, Institut für Anglistik, Amerikanistik und Romanistik, language: English, abstract: The paper at hand will focus especially on Piaget's second development stage the preoperational stage which covers children around the age of three Subsequently the character of Jay Gatsby will be analyzed Does Gatsby act like a three year old boy and in how far does this affect his reality One question answered in the conclusion is if it is possible to analyze Gatsby only considering his egocentrism and is Piaget is the right theorist to use as a base In how far can Gatsby be reduced to only one of his attributes The most important literature that will be used is the novel The Great Gatsby by Fitz gerald as well as three publications written by Piaget Meine Theorie der Geistigen Entwicklung eng My Theory of Mental Development Possibility and Necessity Vol 1 the Role of Possibility in Cognitive Development and Theorien und Methoden der Modernen Erziehung eng Theories and Methods of Modern Education Those three publications are used because they are primary literature as well as relevant to the topic since they cover almost everything needed for this term paper This literature and such more will first give a definition of what the preoperational stage includes especially focusing on the egocentrism which will then build the base for the character analysis By analyzing Gatsby s character I want to ascertain his obvious egocentrism All in all I believe that Piaget is a start to analyze Gatsby s psyche He is not the usual theorist used for character analysis since he focused his research on children Yet I believe Piaget is the right choice for this topic I chose him as the foundation of the paper to point out Gatsby s inner child

Gatsby's Oxford Christopher A Snyder, 2019-04-02 The story of F. Scott Fitzgerald's creation of Jay Gatsby, war hero and Oxford man at the beginning of the Jazz Age when the City of Dreaming Spires attracted an astounding array of intellectuals including the Inklings, W. B. Yeats, and T. S. Eliot. A diverse group of Americans came to Oxford in the first quarter of the twentieth century, the Jazz Age when the Rhodes Scholar program had just begun and the Great War had enveloped much of Europe. Scott Fitzgerald created his most memorable character, Jay Gatsby, shortly after his and Zelda's visit to Oxford. Fitzgerald's creation is a cultural reflection of the aspirations of many Americans who came to the University of Oxford. Beginning in 1904 when the first American Rhodes Scholars arrived in Oxford, this book chronicles the experiences of Americans in Oxford through the Great War to the beginning of the Great Depression. This period is interpreted through the pages of The Great Gatsby, producing a vivid cultural history. Archival material covering Scholars who came to Oxford during Trinity Term 1919 when Jay Gatsby claims he studied at Oxford enables the narrative to illuminate a detailed portrait of what a historical Gatsby would have looked like, what he would have experienced at the postwar university, and who he would have encountered around Oxford: an impressive array of artists including W. B. Yeats, Virginia Woolf, Aldous Huxley, and C. S. Lewis.

1000 Ideas for Term Papers in World Literature Robert Allen Farmer, 1970 Elites in "The Great Gatsby" and "American Psycho". A

Comparison of the Illustration of Elites Till Neuhaus, 2019-05-13 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2014 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2.0 Bielefeld University language English abstract This paper aims at comparing the illustration of elites in two different temporal episodes The novels which will be the basis for this comparison are F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby and Bret Easton Ellis' American Psycho The explanation of the literary choices will be delivered in the next section Both F. Scott Fitzgerald and Bret Easton Ellis have created characters larger than life which partly represent the perversion of the upper classes but both also provide literally symbolically and figuratively different approaches to escape the problems they are facing May it be Jay Gatsby or Patrick Bateman they both feel uncomfortable in their respective environments and strive for something their current life cannot provide Those desires reflect the bygone and contemporary decoupling of the upper classes' lives and thereby comment on society as a whole in their respective temporal context After explaining what makes those novels predestinated for a comparison New York as a social and cultural concept and its history will be depicted Considering that both novels take place in New York and the geographical space clearly has an impact on the progression of the plot but also the mindset of the protagonists New York needs to be understood first to then derive sense from the novels taking place there Afterwards the term elites will be defined and set into context After having created a working definition of the term elites the work on the two novels will start with a temporal contextualization of the novel and the authors' lives After doing so the actual illustration of the elites will be analyzed In a second step the two novels and their depiction of the upper classes will be compared and contrasted After identifying both differences but also uniting factors the conclusion will pick up the hypothesis from the beginning and on the basis of that new questions for further research will be raised Media and artists had and still have enhanced interest in the life and doings of elites The reasons for that might be diverse and range from pure voyeurism to complex social criticism Nonetheless elites occupy artists' minds ever since and the list of authors who incorporated elites into their plays stories or novels is long and prestigious Even until today the concept of elites has an undeniable impact on both society and art

The development of Gatsby's dream in connection with his fascination to Daisy. About "The Great Gatsby" by F. Scott Fitzgerald Janina Gaiser, 2018-03-06 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.0 University of Constance language English abstract The Great Gatsby by Fitz Scott Fitzgerald is considered to be one of the greatest American novels one of the key themes in the book is Gatsby s dream and it will be the centre of this term paper Out of the various approaches to the book this paper will focus on the character constellation of the protagonist Jay Gatsby and Daisy the woman with whom he falls in love How does Gatsby s dream develop in connection with his fascination to Daisy Claiming that although two people are involved his dream is only focused on himself I will try to show at least to a certain extent how Gatsby s dream has three basic and related parts the desire to repeat the past the desire for money and the desire for incarnation of unutterable visions in the material earth Lockridge 1968 Since Daisy represents all of these dreams when they meet for the first time she becomes the personification of his dream but in the course of the events their paths become separated Therefore this term paper will also investigate how Gatsby s dream further develops since being separated from Daisy and finally what happens when he meets Daisy again why does she in the end tumble short of his dreams Fitzgerald 2000 Regarding the often discussed issue whether or not Fitzgerald was writing a myth specifically about America and the American Dream or whether Gatsby s dream can attain a wider relevance I will not be able to refer to in much detail The paper will also not discuss the point of narrative but it is nevertheless crucial to mention that Gatsby is presented almost entirely through Nick s puzzled and often disapproving eyes Parkinson 1988
