Christian Parenting David P. Setran, 2022-06-21 What can the past teach us about what it means to be a good Christian parent today Today's parenting guidance can sometimes feel timeless and inviolable especially when it comes to the spiritual formation of children in Christian households But even in the recent past parenting philosophies have differed widely among Christians in ways that reflect the contexts from which they emerged In this illuminating historical study David Setran catalogs the varying ways American Protestants envisioned the task of childrearing in the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Comparing two main historical time periods the colonial era and the Victorian era Setran uncovers common threads opposing viewpoints and the cultural and religious influences behind the dominant parenting postures of each era The implications of his findings matter for today's big questions about parenting Should children be viewed as basically good in need of protection from corruption or as fundamentally sinful in need of moral correction How should parents address misbehavior Should a parent's primary role be that of teacher disciplinarian or nurturer What importance should be attributed to devotions and prayer church involvement Sabbath keeping home decorating and fun family activities What consideration should be given to gender Should boys and girls be raised differently Do mothers and fathers have essentially different responsibilities As he surveys these historical perspectives Setran reflects on the legacy and future of Christian parenting concluding that the Protestant heritage encourages the importance of intentional devotional practices the development of close parent child bonds and the creation of godly household environments In the end he argues that all of these historical values are critical to the full expression of Christian parental love This is a love that teaches because it wants to help children understand true goodness that admonishes and restrains because it wants to protect children from whatever keeps them from true pleasure and joy that fosters strong relationships so children might experience the lavishness of God's love that models Christlike sacrifice and guides children into the arms of their Creator punishment from Christianity's center Recker boldly reimagines the core questions of faith such as why Jesus lived and died and what it means to be saved It's time to rediscover spirituality as Jesus taught it loving God and loving our neighbors as ourselves Whether you're Christian exvangelical or anywhere along a deconstruction journey Hell Bent is the perfect resource to help you replace fear and church hurt with healing and peace

Christ Charles J. Prichard, 2014-05-13 What has happened to the American Christian church Divorce rates are skyrocketing children are not being raised to fear God and follow His commands and families are being ripped apart The truth is that all areas of our life get twisted when we stray from the perfect guidance and laws of the Word of God When we avoid looking at these important life subjects through the lens of the gospel we fall flat on our faces As a society we have developed so many different nuances that contradict Gods Word There are many people in the church who have looked to culture and have conformed to the godless patterns of this world Why do we so easily fall into the temptation to justify our sins and excuse our shortcomings Is it possible that many born again Christians are missing the mark more often than they think Are there many who do not have a biblical understanding on how they should live raise a family or cultivate a marriage who wander through life casually and turn to culture for guidance advice and encouragement and then wonder why their marriages or families crumble as soon as hardships arise who believe in Christ but have ultimately decided to follow culture instead This is a call for families all over
