Breakthrough Community Change Paul Born, 2023-04-11 Discover a powerful methodology for bringing communities together to uncover hidden assets and transform deep rooted challenges Veteran community organizer Paul Born's work has contributed to lowering cancer rates in Maine improving mental health for young people in Florida and reducing poverty rates in Canada by 20 percent In this much needed new book he shares stories of how he was able to catalyze local communities and guide them to make significant progress on seemingly intractable community problems Born has found that the secret to success is to organize and unite around a common agenda This is not a list of topics like a meeting agenda nor a strategic plan He offers a process for bringing leaders from businesses human service organizations and governments together with people who have a lived experience of a specific community problem A common agenda is a statement of shared aspirations a map of the assets in the community and a road map for how to work together to make those aspirations a reality Part I of this book describes how to identify your community's readiness for change form leadership action and strategy teams create a common agenda and establish plans for community engagement Part II presents the approaches and skill sets needed to do the work described in part I Remarkably enormous systemic problems such as climate change poverty disease racism housing and many more issues can be best addressed at the local level Communities can develop solutions tailored to their unique circumstances and can collaborate at a magnitude that can result in a truly transformative impact This book shows how to make change happen The Adaptive School Robert J. Garmston, Bruce M. Wellman, 2016-08-30 This 3rd edition of the award winning Adaptive Schools Sourcebook provides both a theoretical and practical guide for groups and teams to develop and focus their collaborative energies to improve teaching practices and enhance student learning outcomes In five sections Becoming Adaptive Collaboration Matters Meetings are Teachers Work Resources for Inquiry and Conflict Change and Community the authors draw on decades of personal experiences in schools and research from multiple disciplines to present powerful tools and useful templates for structuring the work of productive professional communities in schools Readers will learn ways to develop and sustain the fundamental elements for enhancing social capital in schools distinguishing between dialogue and discussion establishing seven norms of collaboration automating language patterns for inquiry and problem solving facilitating groups and data teams engaging in productive conflict and building community The book offers links to video clips demonstrating key skills inventories for assessing groups instruments for assessing personal skills and a collection of over 150 meeting strategies and facilitator moves for engaging group members in productive interactions

DeepAesthetics Anna Munster, 2025-03-31 Computation has now been reconfigured by machine learning those technical processes and operations that yoke together statistics and computer science to create artificial intelligence AI by furnishing vast datasets to learn tasks and predict outcomes In DeepAesthetics Anna Munster examines the range of more than human experiences this transformation has engendered and considers how those experiences can be qualitative as well as quantitative Drawing on process philosophy Munster approaches computational experience through its relations and operations She combines deep learning the subfield of machine learning that uses neural network architectures and aesthetics to offer a way to understand the insensible and frequently imperceptible forms of nonlinear and continuously modulating statistical function Attending to the domains and operations of image production statistical racialization AI conversational agents and critical AI art Munster analyzes how machine learning is operationally entangled with racialized neurotypical and cognitivist modes of producing knowledge and experience She approaches machine learning as events through which a different sensibility registers one in which AI is populated by oddness disjunctions and surprises and where artful engagement with machine learning fosters indeterminate futures Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Donna L. Gilton, 2016-06-21 Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Tools and Tips For Practitioners is the sequel to Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries Principles Programs and People On the one hand Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses on the information needs and the developmental and psychological characteristics of diverse library users of all ages It endorses the use of ILI to promote lifelong learning in public libraries both by borrowing techniques from academic and school libraries and by building on existing public library traditions of programming and outreach This book also compares lifelong learning in public libraries to informal and nonformal education in museums community organizations and agencies places of worship and other organizations In addition Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries describes basic steps that librarians can execute in order to get started On the other hand Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries focuses much more on how public librarians can specifically plan and implement their instruction with chapters on planning for instruction using teaching methodologies teaching with and about technology and bringing ILI together with more traditional public library services programming and activities such as reference and Readers Advisory services bibliotherapy and cultural and literacy programming Changes in ILI standards and comparisons of ILI with basic reading media digital and cultural literacies are also described Both books together should act as basic manuals for public librarians who promote lifelong learning Creating and Promoting Lifelong Learning in Public Libraries also have helpful teaching hints for all librarians and other professionals who teach in a variety of settings The American Federal State Roscoe Lewis Ashley,1902
