Mild Cognitive Impairment: Influencing Factors and Intervention Effects Ying

Wang,Jin-Tai Yu,Xinyi Cao,Guillermo Felipe,López Sánchez,2024-07-16 As the aging population degree is deepened cognitive impairment has become a globally recognized public health problem As an intermediate state from normal cognition NC to Alzheimer s disease AD mild cognitive impairment MCI has a highly variable cognitive trajectory which contains three outcomes 1 progression to AD and other types of dementia 2 Maintaining stability 3 Reversal to NC Reversal of cognitive function can be achieved by taking positive and effective measures Current studies mostly focus on factors affecting MCI to AD World Health Organization and Alzheimer s Disease International have also proposed relatively mature guidelines for risk factors However there are still some influencing factors that have not yet formed a unified conclusion In addition there are fewer studies and no consensus on the influencing factors for MCI to NC Current forms of intervention for MCI are mainly non pharmacological interventions and there is a lack of randomized controlled trials with larger sample sizes and longer intervention periods to confirm the effect of pharmacological and non pharmacological interventions The purpose of this study is to explore the factors that influence the transition from MCI to AD or NC in aging adults and to examine how the influencing factors make the cognitive function of aging adults with MCI deteriorate improve or even reverse to NC and how are their reversal rates This includes effective measures proven through pharmacological and non pharmacological intervention studies and their impact on reversal Influence factors include but are not limited to demographic factors age socioeconomic status education lifestyle smoking alcohol consumption physical activity nutrition social participation mental health depression loneliness diseases hypertension diabetes sleep disorders biological markers amyloid tau protein and pharmacological factors cholinesterase inhibitor A monoclonal antibodies drugs to rebalance the gut flora etc and submission of research results based on intervention trials is encouraged

Privacy, Technology, and the Criminal Process Andrew Roberts,Joe Purshouse,Jason Bosland,2023-07-28 This collection considers the implications for privacy of the utilisation of new technologies in the criminal process In most modern liberal democratic states privacy is considered a basic right Many national constitutions and almost all international human rights instruments include some guarantee of privacy Yet privacy interests appear to have had relatively little influence on criminal justice policy making The threat that technology poses to these interests demands critical re evaluation of current law policy and practice This is provided by the contributions to this volume They offer legal criminological philosophical and comparative perspectives The book will be of interest to legal and criminological scholars and postgraduate students Its interdisciplinary methodology and focus on the intersection between law and technology make it also relevant for philosophers and those interested in science and technology studies

Multinationals and the Constitutionalization of the World Power System Jean-Philippe Robe,Antoine Lyon-Caen,Stéphane Vernac,2016-06-03 This collection offers a powerful and coherent study of the transformation of the multinational enterprise as both an object and subject of law within and beyond States The study develops an analysis of the large firm as being a system of organization exercising vast powers through various instruments of private law such as property rights contracts and corporations The volume focuses on the firm as the operational unit of governance within emerging systems of globalization whilst exploring in depth the forms within which the firm might be regulated as against the inhibiting parameters of national law It connects through the ordering concept of the firm in globalization the distinct regimes of constitutionalization national and international law The study will be of interest to students and academics in globalization and the regulation of multinational corporations as well as law economics and politics on a global scale It will also interest government leaders and NGOs working in the areas of MNE regulations Exercise as a Countermeasure to Human Aging, Volume II Bradley Elliott,Lawrence D.
