Abrams,Diane Terry,2017-05-31 In Everyday Desistance Laura Abrams and Diane J Terry examine the lives of young people who spent considerable time in and out of correctional institutions as adolescents These formerly incarcerated youth often struggle with the onset of adult responsibilities at a much earlier age than their more privileged counterparts In the context of urban Los Angeles with a large scale gang culture and diminished employment prospects further involvement in crime appears almost inevitable Yet as Abrams and Terry point out these formerly imprisoned youth are often quite resilient and can be successful at creating lives for themselves after months or even years of living in institutions run by the juvenile justice system This book narrates the day to day experiences of these young men and women focusing on their attempts to surmount the challenges of adulthood resisting a return to criminal activity and formulating long term goals for a secure adult future
