Performing Disfiguration Akhila Vimal

C., 2025-08-09 This book explores the processes of disfiguration in the classical and ritual healing performances of India with a particular focus on the rich and diverse performance traditions of Kerala. It examines three modes of disfiguration: blood, madness, and laughter, to offer unique insights into how these elements shape the performative body. By drawing on Kerala's distinctive cultural and ritual contexts, this work provides a deep understanding of the region's embodied practices. Written from an interdisciplinary perspective, the book blends performance studies with detailed ethnographic descriptions to capture the nuances of pain and affect. It challenges and subverts normative notions of performance, offering a fresh lens through which to view these dynamic traditions. This book serves as an invaluable resource for scholars of dance performance studies and practitioners seeking to explore the interplay between regional ritual and disfiguration in Indian performance forms.

The Instructor Clement of Alexandria, Aeterna Press, As there are these three things in the case of man: habits, actions, and passions, habits are the department appropriated by hortatory discourse, the guide to piety, which like the ship's keel is laid beneath for the building up of faith, in which rejoicing exceedingly and abjuring our old opinions through salvation we renew our youth, singing with the hymning prophecy, 'How good is God to Israel to such as are upright in heart.' All actions again are the province of preceptive discourse, while persuasive discourse applies itself to heal the passions.
