

"The Second Coming" by W.B. Yeats Multiple Choice

Directions: These questions are based on the poem "The Second Coming" by W.B. Yeats and refer to the poem's content, form, and style.

Questions 1-12. Read the poem carefully before selecting your answers.

Turning and turning in the widening gyre
The falcon cannot hear the falconer;
Things fall apart; the centre cannot hold;
More anarchy is loosed upon the world,
„The blood-dimmed tide is loosed, and everywhere
The ceremony of innocence is drowned;
The best lack all conviction, while the worst
Are full of passionate intensity.

Surely some revelation is at hand;
„Surely the Second Coming is at hand.
The Second Coming! Hardly are those words out
When a vast image out of Spiritus Mundi
Troubles my sight: somewhere in sands of the desert
A shape with lion body and the head of a man,
„A gaze blank and pitiless as the sun,
Is moving its slow thighs, while all about it
Roast shadows of the indignant desert birds.
The darkness drops again; but now I know
That twenty centuries of stony sleep
„Were vexed to nightmare by a rocking cradle,
And what rough beast, its hour come round at last,
Slouches towards Bethlehem to be born?

1. The difference between the first and second stanzas is best described as:

- (A) the first has a definite rhyme scheme, and the second does not
- (B) the first contains imagery predicting the Second Coming, which the second confirms
- (C) the first asks a question about time, which is clearly answered in the second
- (D) the first develops a metaphor about life, while the second contains that comparison
- (E) the first lacks specific details, and the second provides concrete descriptions

2. The use of caesuras in lines 2-5 ("The falcon... everywhere")

- (A) conveys unending and limitless destruction
- (B) illustrates the unpredictable nature of chaos
- (C) presents a contrast to anarchy
- (D) highlights the falcon's plight as dark and empty
- (E) breaks blood-shed into manageable parts

3. The question to end the poem (lines 21-22)

- (A) provides readers some comfort regarding the end of the world
- (B) restates a previously posed inquiry about evil
- (C) delivers an unexpected climax regarding the darkness about to descend
- (D) answers an idea posed about death in the first stanza
- (E) showcases uncertainty about coming events

4. The juxtaposition in lines 7-8 ("The best ... intensity")

- (A) contrasts good and evil
- (B) explores the reasons behind the Second Coming
- (C) compares a fertile beast to new life
- (D) presents a cause for the lack of conviction
- (E) shows the spending of order

5. According to the poem, the Second Coming is most likely

- (A) to bring terror
- (B) to inspire change
- (C) to develop hope
- (D) to rid the world of evil
- (E) to destroy earth

Special Interest Terry M. Moe,2011-04-01 Why are America s public schools falling so short of the mark in educating the nation s children Why are they organized in ineffective ways that fly in the face of common sense to the point that it is virtually impossible to get even the worst teachers out of the classroom And why after more than a quarter century of costly education reform have the schools proven so resistant to change and so difficult to improve In this path breaking book Terry M Moe demonstrates that the answers to these questions have a great deal to do with teachers unions which are by far the most powerful forces in American education and use their power to promote their own special interests at the expense of what is best for kids Despite their importance the teachers unions have barely been studied Special Interest fills that gap with an extraordinary analysis that is at once brilliant and kaleidoscopic shedding new light on their historical rise to power the organizational foundations of that power the ways it is exercised in collective bargaining and politics and its vast consequences for American education The bottom line is simple but devastating as long as the teachers unions remain powerful the nation s schools will never be organized to provide kids with the most effective education possible Moe sees light at the end of the tunnel however due to two major transformations One is political the other technological and the combination is destined to weaken the unions considerably in the coming years loosening their special interest grip and opening up a new era in which America s schools can finally be organized in the best interests of children
