

Social Work Assessment

Patient information
Name: Jonathan Reed
Date of birth: March 15, 1985	Gender: Male
Address: 123 Maple Street, Springfield, IL 62704
Contact number: (555) 123-4567	Email address: john.reed@email.com
Date of consultation: September 20, 2024
Presenting concerns:
Johnathan presented concerns related to anxiety and depression, exacerbated by recent job loss and financial instability. He also expressed feelings of isolation due to limited social interaction and strained family relationships.
Background information/history:
Johnathan has a history of mental health challenges, including a diagnosis of generalized anxiety disorder (GAD) in 2017. He has had intermittent employment since 2020, working in construction before being laid off earlier this year. His family history includes mental health issues, as his father was diagnosed with bipolar disorder.
Support system:
Johnathan reports minimal support from his immediate family, though he maintains occasional contact with his older brother, who lives out of state. He has a few close friends but struggles to rely on them due to his feelings of guilt and fear of being a burden.
Assessment areas
Physical and mental health:	Social and environmental factors:
Johnathan's physical health is generally good, though he has reported increased fatigue and difficulty sleeping due to anxiety. His mental health requires ongoing attention, as he is experiencing heightened symptoms of anxiety and depression, affecting his day-to-day functioning.	Johnathan resides in a one-bedroom apartment in an economically disadvantaged neighborhood. Social isolation is a concern, as he has limited engagement with community resources or social activities.

Family Assessment Paper For Social Work Example:

Child and Family Assessment in Social Work Practice Sally Holland, 2010-11-15 This thoroughly revised and updated second edition of Child and Family Assessment in Social Work Practice is an essential guide for social work students and practitioners involved in the assessment of children and their families. Focusing on core assessments and guiding the reader through the complexities of conducting assessments of need and risk, the book now includes within each chapter a range of specifically tailored exercises and focus points which encourage readers both to reflect on what they have learnt and to understand how they can apply that learning to practice. Placing a strong emphasis on good evidence based assessment practice, Sally Holland has also for this new edition included original research evidence from a wide range of up to date research studies which are relevant to today's practice and which aim to promote a critical and reflective approach to the assessment process. The book is divided into three parts. Part 1 explores different approaches to assessment work, outlining policy changes and their implications for working with children and their families. Part 2 studies those involved in child and family assessments: children and their parents and the relationship between the assessors and the assessed. Part 3, a more practical guide, outlines the actual process of an assessment, illustrated by case studies focusing on planning, assessment methods, analysis, reporting and critical evaluation. Accessibly relating theory and research to actual practice through the use of case studies, exercises and suggestions for good practice and further reading, this book has a student friendly structure. It will be an invaluable resource for practitioners and academics across the field of social welfare, particularly for those embarking on or already involved in child and family assessment. Improving Child and Family Assessments Danielle Turney, Dendy Platt, Julie Selwyn, Elaine Farmer, 2011-09-15 This book brings together findings from 10 years of UK research that shed light on different aspects of child and family assessment, examining the evidence for what works in promoting the best outcomes for children. It covers thresholds for assessment and intervention, what information should be collected and assessments in different contexts. Putting Analysis Into Child and Family Assessment, Third Edition Ruth Dalzell, Emma Sawyer, 2016-03-21 Putting Analysis into Child and Family Assessment bridges theory and practice and provides clear guidance to improve assessments in child and family social work. It addresses the issues of central concern to child and family social workers, including analytical assessment, outlines how to avoid common pitfalls, provides strong theoretical foundations and demonstrates how the theory can be translated into practice. With reference to common and specialist assessments, the book covers every stage of the assessment process: planning and preparation, hypothesising involving children and making recording and reviewing decisions. It features practice tools, case studies and practice development sessions and activities. This third edition has been fully updated with recent policy changes and new research findings. This book will be valued by practitioners, managers, trainers and lecturers looking for a grounded resource which provides practical guidance on how to improve assessments. Family Health Social Work Practice Frank W Hoffmann, 2003 Family Health Social Work
