Farwell, Nancy L. Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6-12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development promote literature appreciation and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork Supporting Reading Grades 6-12 A Guide addresses head on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students motivation and test scores The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this the READS curriculum which stands for Read as a personal activity Explore characteristics history and awards of creative works Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works Develop a literary based product and Score reading progress Each of these five components is explained thoroughly describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals in groups and as school communities support classroom teachers instruction and connect students to today s constantly evolving technologies Used in combination with an inquiry information skills model the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic balanced library program that addresses AASL s Standards for the 21st Century Learner Why cant U teach me 2 read? Beth

Fertig,2009-09-15 Why cant U teach me 2 read is a vivid stirring passionately told story of three students who fought for the right to learn to read and won only to discover that their efforts to learn to read had hardly begun A person who cannot read cannot confidently ride a city bus shop take medicine or hold a job much less receive e mail follow headlines send text messages or write a letter to a relative And yet the best minds of American education cannot agree on the right way for reading to be taught In fact they can hardly settle on a common vocabulary to use in talking about reading As a result for a quarter of a century American schools have been riven by what educators call the reading wars and our young people have been caught in the crossfire Why cant U teach me 2 read focuses on three such students Yamilka Alejandro and Antonio all have learning disabilities and all legally challenged the New York City schools for failing to teach them to read by the time they got to high school When the school system s own hearing officers ruled in the students favor the city was compelled to pay for the three students now young adults to receive intensive private tutoring Fertig tells the inspiring heartbreaking stories of these three young people as they struggle to learn to read before it is too late At the same time she tells a story of great change in schools nationwide where the crush of standardized tests and the presence of technocrats like New York s mayor Michael Bloomberg and his schools chancellor Joel Klein have energized teachers and parents to question the meaning of education as never before And she dramatizes the process of learning to read showing how the act of reading is nothing short of miraculous Along the way Fertig makes clear that the simple question facing students and teachers alike How should young people learn to read opens onto the broader questions of what schools are really for and why so many of America s schools are faltering Why cant U teach me 2 read is a poignant vital book for the reader in all of us Microeconomics

Culinary Cinema Deborah R. Geis, 2024-12-15 In this book Deborah Geis offers a new approach to the evolving genre of culinary films that center on the acts of eating and cooking through close analyses of ten different films These films range from the classics like Big Night 1996 and Babette s Feast 1987 to later box office hits like Chef 2014 and to films that deserve a second look like East Side Sushi 2014 Burnt 2015 and Mid August Lunch 2008 Throughout these analyses the book focuses on tropes including the big dinner as it connects to intercultural and transcultural communities the self destructive perfectionism of the obsessive chef and the craft of cooking in relation to aging and mortality Geis invites readers and viewers to experience food driven narrative films with an appetite for appreciating the visual ingredients and the ways in which they construct pleasure through the act of looking as a vicarious approach to consuming the actual food Drawing on the work of film theorist Christian Metz Geis ultimately poses a new paradigm for watching and understanding culinary cinema as a significant and constantly evolving genre that comes with its own conventions and contemporary filmmakers who seek to expand and transform those conventions in surprising ways
