J. Sullivan,2019-03-19 The migration and settlement of 11 million unauthorized immigrants is among the leading political challenges facing the United States today The majority of unauthorized immigrants in the U S have been here for more than five years and are settling into American communities working forming families and serving in the military even though they may be detained and deported if they are discovered An open question remains as to what to do about unauthorized immigrants who are already living in the United States On one hand it is important that the government sends a message that future violations of immigration law will not be tolerated On the other sits a deeper ethical dilemma that is the focus of this book what do the state and citizens owe to unauthorized immigrants who have served their adopted country Earned Citizenship argues that long term unauthorized immigrant residents should be able to earn legalization and a pathway to citizenship through service in their adopted communities Their service would act as restitution for immigration law violations Military service in particular would merit naturalization in countries with a strong citizen soldier tradition including the United States The book also considers the civic value of caregiving as a service to citizens and the country contending that family immigration policies should be expanded to recognize the importance of caregiving duties for dependents This argument is part of a broader project in political theory and public policy aimed at reconciling civic republicanism with a feminist ethic of care and its emphasis on dependency work As a whole Earned Citizenship provides a non humanitarian justification for legalizing unauthorized immigrants based on their contributions to citizens and institutions in their adopted nation Restraint Barry R. Posen,2014-06-03 The United States Barry R Posen argues in Restraint has grown incapable of moderating its ambitions in international politics Since the collapse of Soviet power it has pursued a grand strategy that he calls liberal hegemony one that Posen sees as unnecessary counterproductive costly and wasteful Written for policymakers and observers alike Restraint explains precisely why this grand strategy works poorly and then provides a carefully designed alternative grand strategy and an associated military strategy and force structure In contrast to the failures and unexpected problems that have stemmed from America's consistent overreaching Posen makes an urgent argument for restraint in the future use of U.S. military strength After setting out the political implications of restraint as a guiding principle Posen sketches the appropriate military forces and posture that would support such a strategy He works with a deliberately constrained notion of grand strategy and even more important of national security which he defines as including sovereignty territorial integrity power position and safety His alternative for military strategy which Posen calls command of the commons focuses on protecting U.S. global access through naval air and space power while freeing the United States from most of the relationships that require the permanent stationing of U.S. forces overseas

Consuming Whiteness Stefanie Affeldt, 2014 The White Australia Policy the country's historical policy that favored immigration to Australia from various European countries especially Britain has largely been discussed with regard only to its political ideological perspective No account was taken of the central problem of racist societalization i.e. the everyday production and reproduction of race as a social relation doing race supported by broad sections of the population This comprehensive study of Australian racism and the historical white sugar campaign shows that the latter was only able to achieve success because it was embedded in a widespread white Australia culture that found expression in all spheres of life Series Racism Analysis Series A Studies Vol 4 Subject Social History Australian Studies

The Structure of Human Abilities

(Psychology Revivals) Philip E. Vernon, 2014-01-27 First published in 1950 this revised edition of The Structure of Human Abilities was published in 1961 but remained largely unchanged from the original save for an additional supplement on the developments in factorial work on human abilities from 1950-1959. Much research had been carried out during the years leading up to publication in England and America into mental abilities and modern methods of statistical treatment especially factor analysis had been increasingly used. It was felt that the mass of diverse material was apt to confuse the student of psychology of the time especially as the results of such research were often apparently conflicting. Professor Vernon one of the leading experts in this branch of psychology sifted the material and attempted to provide a consistent picture of our mental structure.

The Exquisite Corpse of Asian America Rachel C. Lee, 2014-12-05 Addresses this central question if race has been settled as a legal or social construction and not as biological fact why do Asian American artists authors and performers continue to scrutinize their body parts.

The Soviet Colossus Michael G. Kort, 2014-12-18 The twentieth century was not kind to Russia. Despite its great potential and remarkable achievements the country also bore the weight of two world wars a revolution and civil war totalitarian tyranny famine and ecological destruction economic ruin and imperial decline. Will Russia ever be prosperous peaceful and free? Seeking clues in the past Michael Kort revisits earlier turning points in Russia's history from the fall of the old regime to the establishment of the Bolshevik dictatorship and Stalinist totalitarianism from the reforms and counter reforms of Khrushchev and Brezhnev to the tumultuous years of change under Gorbachev and Yeltsin. Which strands of Russia's past is their successor Vladimir Putin weaving into the fabric of the present and which are being allowed to fade for better or worse? This new edition of The Soviet Colossus brings the story up through the first decade of the twenty first century. Distinctively readable judicious and focused on critical events and questions it integrates new revelations about the Soviet past and ongoing debates about the Soviet regime as well as its successor. It is the ideal text for as one semester history course or background for a political science course.

The Foundations of Communication in Criminal Justice Systems Daniel Adrian Doss, William H. Glover Jr., Rebecca A. Goza, Michael Wigginton Jr., 2014-10-17 Myriad forms of communication occur within the criminal justice system as judges and attorneys speak to juries law enforcement officers interact with the public and the news media presents stories of events in courtrooms. Hindrances abound however Law enforcement officers and justice system personnel often encounter challenges that affect their

Texas Takes Wing Barbara Ganson, 2014-01-06 Tracing the hundred year history of aviation in Texas aviator and historian Barbara Ganson brings to life the colorful personalities that shaped the phenomenally successful development of this industry in the state. Weaving stories and profiles of aviators designers manufacturers and those in related services Texas Takes Wing covers the major trends that propelled Texas to the forefront of the field. Covering institutions from San Antonio's Randolph Air Force Base the West Point of this branch of service to Brownsville's airport with its Pan American Airlines instrument flight school which served as an international gateway to Latin America as early as the 1920s to Houston's Johnson Space Center home of Mission Control for the U.S. space program the book provides an exhilarating timeline and engaging history of dozens of unsung pioneers as well as their more widely celebrated peers Drawn from personal interviews as well as major archives and the collections of several commercial airlines including American Southwest Braniff Pan American Airways and Continental this sweeping history captures the story of powered flight in Texas since 1910 With its generally favorable flying weather flat terrain and wide open spaces Texas has more airports than any other state and is often considered one of America's most aviation friendly places Texas Takes Wing also explores the men and women who made the region pivotal in military training aircraft manufacturing during wartime general aviation and air servicing of the agricultural industry The result is a soaring history that will delight aviators and passengers alike

The Struggle for Change Marvin T. Chiles, 2023-12-28 A Black majority city with a history of the most severe segregation and inequity Richmond is still grappling with this legacy as it moves into the twenty first century Marvin Chiles now offers a unique take on Richmond's racial politics since the civil rights era by demonstrating that the city's current racial disparities in economic mobility housing and public education actually represent the unintended consequences of Richmond's racial reconciliation measures He deftly weaves municipal politics together with grassroots efforts examining the work and legacies of Richmond's Black leaders from Henry Marsh on the city council in the 1960s to Mayor Levar Stoney to highlight the urban revitalization and public history efforts meant to overcome racial divides after Jim Crow yet which ironically reinforced racial inequality across the city Compellingly written this project carries both local and broader regional significance for Richmonders Virginians southerners and all Americans
