Military Skill Development Programme 2015 2016

L.I. Magnussen

Military Skill Development Programme 2015 2016:

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heinecken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994. In South Africa's changed political state, how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy? This book presents an overview of the security environment, how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement, force preparation, force employment and force sustainability. The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force, the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy, recruitment and retention, military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment, gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged. HIV/AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness. In closing, the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation, spelling out some lessons learned. The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil-military relations of countries around the world. Military Review, 2017

Professional Journal of the United States Army, 2016-05 Disaster, Diversity and Emergency Preparation L.I. Magnussen, 2019-11-06 One of NATO's objectives is a better understanding of the human and social aspects of security-related issues. This book presents the proceedings of the NATO Science for Peace and Security Advanced Research Workshop ARW Leadership Development Programme on Gender and Diversity, Peace Risk and Emergency Preparedness and Collaboration held in Trondheim, Norway, on 11-12 December 2018, one of the aims of which was to strengthen organizational leadership. The workshop firmly established the collaboration between Japan and other NATO countries with regard to Women, Peace and Security (WPS). The workshop gave the participating leaders and researchers an opportunity to meet and debate, to learn and to build networks of leaders for change. This book consists of fourteen chapters, including a summarizing introductory chapter. It explores topics related to the way in which continued progress and change in institutional behaviors require an approach focused on altering perspectives and enhancing the skill sets of leaders. Each chapter stands alone but is ordered within the framework of the Societal Programme Model (SPM) described in Chapter 1. The book will be of interest to all those involved in building leadership and changing institutional behavior. The Military

A National Trauma Care System National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Health and Medicine Division, Board on the Health of Select Populations, Board on Health Sciences Policy, Committee on Military Trauma Care's Learning Health System and Its Translation to the Civilian Sector, 2016-10-12 Advances in trauma care have accelerated over the past decade spurred by the significant burden of injury from the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Between 2005 and 2013 the case fatality rate for United States service members injured in Afghanistan decreased by nearly 50 percent despite an increase in the severity of injury among U S troops during the same period of time But as the war in Afghanistan ends knowledge and advances in trauma care developed by the Department of Defense DoD over the past decade from experiences in Afghanistan and Iraq may be lost This would have implications for the quality of trauma care both within the DoD and in the civilian setting where adoption of military advances in trauma care has become increasingly common and necessary to improve the response to multiple civilian casualty events Intentional steps to codify and harvest the lessons learned within the military's trauma system are needed to ensure a ready military medical force for future combat and to prevent death from survivable injuries in both military and civilian systems This will require partnership across military and civilian sectors and a sustained commitment from trauma system leaders at all levels to assure that the necessary knowledge and tools are not lost A National Trauma Care System defines the components of a learning health system necessary to enable continued improvement in trauma care in both the civilian and the military sectors This report provides recommendations to ensure that lessons learned over the past decade from the military's experiences in Afghanistan and Iraq are sustained and built upon for future combat operations and translated into the U S civilian system

2016 Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance United States. Congress. Senate. Office of Management and Budget. Executive Office of the President,2016 Identifies and describes specific government assistance opportunities such as loans grants counseling and procurement contracts available under many agencies and programs OECD Economic Surveys: Israel 2023 OECD,2023-04-03 The Israeli economy has rebounded strongly from the COVID 19 pandemic and has proven resilient to the repercussions of Russia s war of aggression against Ukraine Inflation has risen above the central bank s target range amid strong demand and a tight labour market Nigeria's Fourth Republic, 1999-2021 Michael Nwankpa,2022-11-18 This book reflects on Nigeria s fourth republic the country s longest democratic period since it gained independence from Great Britain It argues that although constitutional or political democracy has lasted for over two decades in Nigeria and seen three successful democratic changes of power Nigeria s democracy remains largely militarised During Nigeria s fourth republic political and socio economic affairs have been increasingly dominated by a pervasive military presence and ideology which has seen a redistribution of resources and government funds away from social programmes into an increase in security budgets weapons proliferation and internal military interventions and occupations This institutionalisation of violence has turned the country into a national security state where the rule of force and violence rather than dialogue and compassion reflect everyday reality Whilst acknowledging the history of militarisation during colonial and military rule this book makes a compelling argument for considering the distinct character of the Nigerian nation state's path to militarisation over the last 20 years of experimentation with democracy This book's fresh insights into the fourth republic's path to militarisation will be of interest to researchers of African politics security and development
