

How to Write an Autobiography

Tips to write an autobiography:

Like the examples of autobiographies discussed above, any autobiography needs to deal with a few aspects:

Introduction: One needs to give an introduction about themselves in the autobiography. This introduction needs to contain basic aspects like name, where you live, when and where were you born, what conditions were you born in, etc.

You in totality: This part of the autobiography deals with a general point of view, that you hold about yourself. It also needs to let the reader be able to visualize you in the current day. You need to include your current situations, habits, lifestyle etc.

Life, in general: This part of the autobiography deals with your view about life, on a general note. You need to include your understanding of life and its implications. This part is your route to propound your belief. So, make it descriptive.

View and aims: Here, you talk about where do you see yourself in the future or what you expect to happen in the future. This part, mostly, should be in compatibility with the previous aspect, else your reader could get confused and lose interest in the book.

Conclusion: Like all stories, an autobiography also needs to have an apt conclusion. You can leave a lasting impression on the reader with the help of your conclusion. Remember, you do not need to have a "moral of the story". You can simply end it with hope, if you like.

Always remember, it is your autobiography, not an example of an autobiography, you can write it the way you like. So, experiment and enjoy. As they say, "if you find it interesting while writing it, the reader will find it interesting while reading it". This is where I sign off. Hope to find your autobiography on the stands soon!!

How to begin writing an autobiography

When writing an autobiography, focus on FOUR major things: (1) who you are in life (how would you describe your personality), (2) what life means to you, (3) what major life events or critical issues have had an impact on your life, and (4) what your outlook on the future is.

The first thing you do when writing an autobiography is start off with a lot of facts about

Allegories of Empire Jenny Sharpe, Allegories of Empire was first published in 1993 Allegories of Empire re constellates a metropolitan masterpiece Forster s A Passage to India within colonial discourse studies Sharpe a materialist feminist is scrupulous in her use of theory to articulate nationalism historical race gendering and contemporary feminist critique Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Columbia University Jenny Sharpe has done a great service in opening up the virtually taboo subject of the rape of the white woman by the colored man and furthermore in teaching us theory making by locating this frenzy of fantasy and reality within a specific crisis of European colonialism in India In showing how a wild anthropology must continuously rework feminism in the face of racism and vice versa she shows how the margins of empire were and still are at its center Michael Taussig New York University Allegories of Empire introduces race and colonialism to feminist theories of rape and sexual difference deploying women s writing to undo the appropriation of English universal womanhood for the perpetuation of Empire Sharpe brings the historical memory of the 1857 Indian Mutiny to bear upon the theme of rape in British and Anglo Indian fiction She argues that the idea of Indian men raping white women was not part of the colonial landscape prior to the revolt that was remembered as the savage attack of mutinous Indian soldiers on defenseless English women By showing how contemporary theories of female agency are implicated in an imperial past Sharpe argues that such models are inappropriate not only for discussion of colonized women but for European women as well Ultimately she insists that feminist theory must begin from difference and dislocation rather than from identity and correspondence if it is to get beyond the race gender class impasse Jenny Sharpe received her Ph D in comparative literature at the University of Texas at Austin and is currently a professor of English at the University of California at Los Angeles She has contributed articles to Modern Fiction Studies Genders and boundary 2

Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol, Diane Price Herndl, 1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism

Life Mapping as Cultural Legacy I-Chun Wang, Mary Theis, 2021-01-15 This volume celebrates a fascinating variety of nonfiction known as life writing This genre resonates quintessentially with the core of the humanities in its profoundly individual ways of fusing narrators with their narrative subjects The book brings together scholars from around the world to explore the personal mapping of such narrators in the context of their cultural legacies The hybrid fusions themselves form several subgenres that complement each other as they affirm human dignity and values and our need for human connection felt at all times but especially during times of globally met threats The ever expanding forms of hybridography here along with testimonies diaries letters and journals bear witness to how individuals have contrived to overcome their own traumatic sources of pain and suffering to discover joy and how to further map their pathways forward The narratives not only communicate important information and aesthetic beauty needed to prolong troubled lives due to social anxiety or mental illness but also challenge sociocultural issues involving stigma migration racial discrimination and persecution human trafficking and ecological concerns Global in scope personal in focus and historically and culturally contextualized the analyses provided here once again illustrate how much we have to learn from each other

Radicalizing Lawrence Robert Burden,2021-12-28 In this study of D H Lawrence and critical theory Robert Burden pays particular attention to the critical formations that underpin the reception history of the main novels including the much maligned leadership novels because strong readings have always contested the meaning and significance of Lawrence and because there has been a persistent reluctance to approach his writing through post structuralist theory This study demonstrates in some detail that once Lawrence s texts are the objects of the newer critical paradigms their principles of coherence are understood differently and that older notions of textual unity are displaced by aesthetic structures of degrees of generic and linguistic destabilization This enables a radicalizing of Lawrence s fiction by drawing out its deconstructive effects on his myth making and essentialist notions of the self The sexual identities represented in the fiction are read as experiments or thought adventures as Lawrence himself characterized his work The different approaches to Lawrence s writing in this study lead to a radical reassessment of his relationship to Modernism especially in the light of the more elastic concept of Modernism in recent discussion and one which traditional Lawrence scholars have ignored What emerges is a more self deconstructive Lawrence with some surprising results
